Our 1998 North Carolina Annual Conference Emphasis

ALL GOD'S CHILDREN

In 1996, the Council of Bishops called upon The United Methodist Church to reshape its life in response to the crisis among children and the poor. The goals of the initiative are threefold:

- * Reshaping of The United Methodist Church in response to God who is among "the least of these"
- * Understanding the crisis among children and the poor and enabling the church to respond
- * Proclaiming in word and deed the gospel of God's grace in Jesus Christ with children and those oppressed by poverty

As a response to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty, these days of Annual Conference will focus upon the theme, "All God's Children." May we remember that we are all God's children as we sing and celebrate, set apart persons for particular ministry, and make important decisions together.

Through these days together, may every congregation be inspired to become "A Church for All God's Children." May we grow in hospitality to all God's people, departing ready to extend a holy welcome to those nearby in our neighborhoods but outside the community of faith.

In the year ahead, may the Holy Spirit make us eager to communicate and live the gospel of Jesus Christ with all children and the poor.

1998 ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAM - DAILY AGENDA

ALL GOD'S CHILDREN

As a response to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty, these days of Annual Conference will focus upon the theme, "All God's Children." May we remember that we are all God's children as we sing and celebrate, set apart persons for particular ministry, and make important decisions together.

Through these days together, may every congregation be inspired to become "A Church for All God's Children." May we grow in hospitality to all God's people, departing ready to extend a holy welcome to those nearby in our neighborhoods but outside the community of faith.

In the year ahead, may the Holy Spirit make us eager to communicate and live the gospel of Jesus Christ with all children and the poor.

Executive Session for All Clergy: Bishop Marion M. Edwards called the 173rd session of the Annual Conference to order at 7:00 p.m. The Bishop reviewed the disciplinary requirements and purpose for the session. The Bishop announced that he would call the clergy together again on November 9th for a Bishop's Day Apart.

The Bishop explained that the reason for the current weekend format was to recognize the special needs of the laity, and to open the Conference to a wider variety of lay participation. The Bishop requested that the clergy remain at Conference through the fixing of the appointments. The Bishop also explained the need and requirement for all clergy to attend the sexual ethics workshops in their districts. The Bishop described the seriousness of this issue for the church. The Bishop exhorted all clergy to be considerate of those with differing views on the issue of ministering to persons of homosexual orientation. He asked for an honest and open debate, based on conviction, without clichés and labels.

The Bishop welcomed Bishop Alfred Lloyd Norris, Sr., episcopal leader of the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences. Bishop Edwards invited Bishop Norris to address the Executive Session. Bishop Norris emphasized the importance of preaching the Word and not letting other duties of pastoral leadership interfere. He said that preachers are to be relevant to the needs of the people in their preaching.

Following Bishop Norris's sermon, Bishop Edwards asked the clergy to respond with the "Affirmation" from 1 Corinthians 15:1-6 and Colossians 1:15-20. The clergy members then sang "Give Me the Faith Which Can Remove," a hymn for preachers by Charles Wesley.

The Bishop instructed the Executive Session regarding voting privileges.

Motion: The Bishop requested that a motion be made to allow attendance by non-clergy guests of the Executive Session. The motion was voiced by several and seconded in the same way. The vote was taken and the motion was approved.

Passing of the Character of the Clergy: Bishop Edwards asked the District Superintendents to stand and declared them blameless in character and administration of their duties. The Executive Session passed the character of the District Superintendents.

The District Superintendents were called upon to pass the character of the clergy in their respective districts. A complaint has been filed against an elder of the Rocky Mount District. The Bishop has decided not to refer the matter for investigation at this time, and the District Superintendent reported nothing further against the clergy of the Rocky Mount District. All District Superintendents reported nothing against the clergy of their respective districts. The Bishop called for passing of the official and moral conduct of clergy by the Executive Session. It was approved and Bishop Edwards declared that the character of the clergy had been passed.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Roger Elliott, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, thanked the members of the board for their faithful work, especially the work of Robbie Barrett, Belton Joyner, and Susan Pate Greenwood. Elliott explained the difficulty of making adjustments caused by new legislation. Lay members of the Board of Ordained Ministry were present and voting for the first time on the character and issues of clergy.

Elliott presented the Board of Ordained Ministry Report. The Executive Session was directed to page 3. Elliott noted that as a result of the ruling by the Judicial Council, a Master of Divinity is no longer required for a member in full connection. Elliott made the nominations of Susan C. Lindblade and Kermit L. Braswell to the Board of Managers of the Pastors' School for the Class of 2002. The Bishop asked for an endorsement of the nominees by the Executive Session and they were endorsed. The nominations to the Administrative Review Committee also were approved by the Executive Session.

Elliott referred to Question 33, "Who are elected as deacons in full connection?" These persons are under the transitional provisions for diaconal ministers. Each candidate was asked to stand before the Executive Session. The Bishop asked the candidates the Historic Questions. Each responded appropriately. The Bishop asked if the body had any questions for the candidates. The Bishop called for a show of hands, and the candidates were approved by the required $\frac{2}{3}$ majority vote. The members of the session rose to sing, "I Am Thine, O Lord."

Elliott referred to Question 27, "Who are elected as associate members?" The session was asked to approve the qualifications of Shirley Acker Ward for inclusion on the list of candidates for election as an associate member. She was approved. Elliott called the candidates' names for associates and full connection as listed under Questions 27, 32.c, 34.a, and 35 to come forward. Elliott noted the deletion of James Olen Murphy, Jr. (Question 35) from the list until the following year at Murphy's request. The candidates were presented to the Bishop, who in turn asked the candidates the Historic Questions. Each responded appropriately. The Bishop called for their election and they were approved by the required 2/3 vote. The members of the session stood and sang "This Is the Day the Lord Has Made." The Bishop prayed for the session and for those elected to ordination.

Elliott directed the Executive Session to Question 19 to those listed as receiving a certificate of candidacy. Elliott thanked those on the committee for their good work. He proceeded to review corrections to the report.

Those listed in Questions 24 & 25 were presented for election. The Bishop called for their election, and they were approved. Those listed in Question 26 required a 2/3 vote. The Bishop called for their election and they were approved.

Candidates for election to probationary membership under Question 29 were presented to the session. The Bishop called for the session to welcome the candidates by electing them to probationary membership and they were elected. An elder asked if the candidates should be asked the Historic Questions. The Bishop explained that candidates for probationary membership are not examined at this time, but shall be in due course.

Elliott requested a vote on those listed under Question 21. A majority vote was required. The Bishop called for a vote on the candidates and they were approved. William Howard Altman, Jr. was approved for readmission as a probationary member under Question 36. Carl Edward Settle was readmitted under Question 37 as a member in full connection.

James Olen Murphy was deleted from the list under Question 42. The Bishop called for election of those listed under Questions 41 and 42 respectively, and they were elected. William Joseph Stallings was approved under Question 43.

Charles Lynn Aaron, Jr. was deleted from the list under Question 45. Elliott called for approval of Question 46, to discontinue Benjamin Earl Nelms as probationary member, and it was approved. Elliott noted that under Question 50.b, William Edward Privette and Kendall Jay Guthrie had surrendered their credentials as ordained clergy. The Bishop called for the approval of their termination from Conference membership. Their termination under honorable conditions was approved.

The members rose in recognition of clergy and clergy spouses who had died since our last session (Question 51). Catherine Mable Murdock Thompson was added to Question 51e. Following the reading of their names, the Bishop offered a memorial prayer.

Under Question 52, Peter G. Singletary was added to the list. Kendall Jay Guthrie was removed from Question 53a. Stephen Floyd Swartz-Strock and Geiselle Thompson received the 2/3 vote required for leave greater than five years. Upon vote of the members, clergy listed on leave of absence under provisions of Question 53 were approved. Upon vote of the members, clergy listed on family leave under provisions of Question 54 were approved. Carol Dell Hayes was approved for sabbatical leave under provision of Question 56.

Charles Pollock reported for the Committee on Disability. He added the names of James Olen Murphy and Stuart Ralph Tucker to Question 57c. The Bishop called for the approval of those to be placed on disability, contingent on their fulfillment of their administrative requirements. They were approved.

The Reverend James Coile, Parliamentarian, stated that the Conference must pass on their status without contingency. Dr. Belton Joyner explained that the issue had to do with the lack of time necessary to fulfill all administrative requirements for the Board of Pensions which funds those on disability. To fail to approve them at this time would require the Conference to assume fiscal responsibility. They could be approved next year. The Bishop explained that the vote we have taken is the exercise of oversight. The Bishop ruled that the vote was in order. He asked Coile if he concurred that the vote could stand. Coile agreed that the Bishop could certainly allow that.

The Bishop recognized those retiring or recently retired to stand. He thanked them for their years of faithful service. The Bishop asked the Executive Session to grant retired relationship to those listed under Questions 58, 59, and 61 and they were approved.

Clergy listed under Question 77 for appointment to less than full-time service were approved. John Eldred Williams was approved separately due to extension beyond the time limit. Upon amendment of the list, clergy appointed to extension ministries under Question 81 were approved.

Elliott presented the report as amended for adoption and it was adopted. The Bishop thanked Elliott and the Board of Ordained Ministry for their support.

Adjournment: The members of the Executive Session stood and sang "Forth In Thy Name, O Lord." James Bryan, Conference Secretary, made announcements. The Bishop dismissed the Executive Session with prayer at 9:43 p.m.

FIRST DAY, MORNING SESSION, Friday, June 12, 1998

The Communion Service: The opening Communion Service began at 10:00 am with Bishop Edwards as celebrant and Bishop Alfred L. Norris preached. The District Superintendents were the servers for communion.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Friday, June 12, 1998

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order at 1:22 p.m. for the business session of the Annual Conference.

Organization of the Conference: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, referred to the rules, defined the bar of the Conference, and met other administrative requirements. The Bishop called for the vote and they were approved.

The Burlington District served as host to the Annual Conference. Rodney Hamm, Burlington District Superintendent, greeted the Annual Conference. Hamm invited the Bishop's wife, Linda, to come to the stage to be presented with a corsage. The Edwards received the welcome of the Conference.

The Bishop expressed appreciation to James Bryan, the Conference Secretary, and to Evelyn Lane and the entire staff for their work.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: J. Alexander Maulsby III, Vice-Chairperson, presented the report of the Committee on Conference Rules. The Bishop called for the vote to approve the report and it was approved.

State of the Church Address: Bishop Marion Edwards delivered his state of the church address to the Conference remembering the storms of NC that greeted him and his wife two years ago. He encouraged churches to drop racial, economic, and social barriers, and to develop a new heart for people. The Bishop stated that each pastor should have a working list of prospective members.

The Bishop called for a re-alignment of the Commission on Congregational Development. A qualified director would be appointed annually by the Bishop and the Cabinet. The Office of Congregational Development would operate under the auspices of the Cabinet and Bishop instead of the Conference Council on Ministries as set forth in ¶263 of the Discipline. Therefore, the Office of Congregational Development would have no programming responsibilities.

The Bishop would like to see five new churches established each year and to see more blue "Welcome, The United Methodist Church" signs. He emphasized children's ministries, cross-racial appointments, and evangelism. Bishop Edwards would like to receive even more than the 800+ (net gain) new members that were received last year.

Bishop Edwards stated his personal position on homosexuality. He recommended that we engage in dialogue on diversity, and to "stay at the table" and in conversation around the table. He stated that Jesus and Wesley both urged unity. Bishop Edwards reminded the Conference that the Discipline is very clear on the issue of homosexuality, and also that every person is a person of worth to our Church. He cautioned that in defending Christ we must not deny Christ. Edwards stated that he supports the position of the Church and invited the Church to a season of dialogue around our diversity.

Report of Task Force on Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty: Prior to Carol Hayes' introduction of Task Force Chairpersons, Tom and Paula Dille, the Conference sang "Jesus Loves the Little Children." Task Force members celebrated various programs local churches have implemented to minister to children and the impoverished. These programs include daycare, after school programs, Mothers' morning out, Friday night Sunday School classes, and other diverse programs for all God's children. Tom and Paula Dille expressed their gratitude for the great response of the Conference to this initiative.

Linda Edwards presented the Dilles with a picture in appreciation of their work and wished them well as they move out west. Mrs. Edwards described the Clergy Spouses' project of collecting shoes for children in Africa. Centenary in Smithfield collected over 1,000 pairs of shoes. Mrs. Edwards also announced the silent auction for the doll house built by Bob O'Keef. The money raised from the doll house will pay for the shoes to be shipped - and results will be announced on Sunday morning during Special Recognitions.

Sharon Lee presented a canvas tote bag and school kit to Bob O'Keef for the children in Africa. A total of 120 canvas tote bags and school kits were collected.

Orientation of the Run/Walk for Hunger and Human Need: Run/Walk Coordinator Randy Maynard presented his orientation and promotion of the run/walk for Saturday morning. Maynard and Woody Wells presented a humorous skit, in which Wells impersonated Bishop Edwards. Maynard presented Bishop Norris with a run/walk t-shirt. Last year over $48,000 was raised and the goal for this year is $50,000.

Good News Moment: The Bishop announced the first "Good News Moment" and invited Del Lancaster, former camp counselor and son of the Reverend Tryon Lancaster, to speak on the Camping Jubilee celebration. Lancaster gave a brief history of the first 50 years of the four Methodist Camps. He then asked former campers and staffers to stand and be recognized. Over $23,000 was raised this year through the Jubilee Offering in celebration of 50 years of camping. Lancaster then presented Bishop Edwards a camping t-shirt commemorating this Jubilee. Campers from Camp Rockfish led the Conference in the singing of "Pass It On."

Report of the Task Force on Conference Structure: Bishop Edwards asked Conference Lay Leader Robby Lowry to present the report of the Task Force on Conference Structure. Lowry referred to the report on page 10 of The 1998 Book of Handouts: Nominations and Reports. This report represents a three year process of study and self-assessment. The Bishop said that this Task Force will continue its work through the quadrennium.

Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: Conference Council on Ministries Executive Director Hope Morgan Ward presented the report. Ward celebrated the 7,150 baptisms in this Conference. Ward quoted ¶601 of the 1996 Book of Discipline, "The purpose of the Annual Conference is to make disciples for Jesus Christ by equipping the local church for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry, all to the glory of God." She then reviewed the meaning of that statement of purpose.

Ward invited the Conference to participate in the Conference EMail usage and to sign up while here at Conference. She referred to page 28 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998 regarding changes in the charter of the NC Conference Council on Ministries. The Conference calendar was presented on pages 31-33. The Conference Advance Specials are listed on page 33. The proposed changes will be voted upon on Saturday.

Motion: Ruth Harper Stevens, Dean of the Cabinet, made a motion that "the Annual Conference endorse the proposal of the Bishop and Cabinet that the Office of Congregational Development be moved from the staff of the Conference Council on Ministries to a relationship directly accountable to the Bishop and Cabinet." The motion was seconded, and Stevens spoke in favor of the motion. The Bishop opened the floor for discussion. James Coile, Parliamentarian, reminded the Bishop that the Conference rules require that a proposed change to the structure of the CCOM must remain on the table for 24 hours before a vote can be taken.

Motion: William Presnell, Elizabeth City District Superintendent, moved "to suspend the rules for the Stevens motion to be voted on." The motion was seconded and supported by a 2/3 vote.

The Stevens motion was reread. The Bishop called for the vote and the motion was passed.

Report of the Conference Committee on Nominations: Hope Morgan Ward presented the nominations found on pages 3-4 of the Book of Handouts. The nominations will be brought back for approval tomorrow.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Roger Elliott, Chairperson of the Board, presented the report and described the role of mentor in the traditional sense. He described the work of the board as that of a mentor.

Recognition of Extension Ministries: Elliott paid tribute to all persons serving in extension ministries. Elliott invited those who are involved in extension ministries to stand and be recognized. The Conference applauded them.

Continuation of Report of Ordained Ministry: Elliott made several notations and called on Diaconal Ministry Chairperson Denise Waters to present two nominees, Juanita Bryant and Betty Ann Buckley, to be approved for consecration as diaconal ministers. Waters referred to pages 40-41 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998, Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries, Board of Ordained Ministries, for revisions. Waters made corrections to the Diaconal Ministry report. She asked the body to approve these two persons who met the appropriate requirements. They were approved to be diaconal ministers.

Elliott concluded his report by recognizing those who will be going off the Board this year.

Dr. Belton Joyner asked for a vote on leaves of absence for diaconal ministers listed as a part of the previous report. The matter requires a vote. The Bishop called for a vote and the leaves of absence were approved.

Report of the Task Force on Full Connection Requirements: Chairperson the Reverend Milton Gilbert presented the report. The Task Force examined the Conference's policy of requiring a Master of Divinity degree for ordained elders' orders. The 1992 Book of Discipline, ¶536, stated that an Annual Conference may not subtract from disciplinary standards, but may add to them under certain circumstances. Last year, Bishop Edwards was asked to rule on the Conference's policy of requiring a Master of Divinity degree as a prerequisite for full connection. The Judicial Council ruled the Conference's policy to be unconstitutional. While this ruling overrode the primary work of the task force, the Task Force still had to study what are the standards to be fulfilled under ¶315 of the 1996 Book of Discipline.

Report of the Committee on Salary Structure: Committee on Salary Structure Chairperson, Robert E. Bergland, presented the report and described the work of the 14 person Task Force since last August. He referred to information on page 61 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998. Hal Porter, a compensation and personnel management consultant, reviewed statistical data related to the compensation of the Conference's clergy and district superintendents. Mr. Porter performed this service free of charge to the Conference. While the NC Conference minimum salary is the second highest in the US, the district superintendents' salaries are eighth. The task force made the recommendation to continue the present formula for district superintendents' salaries. This recommendation is found on page 57, Item V, of The Conference Program, Recommendations, and Reports 1998.

Motion: Bergland moved that the "District Superintendents' salaries continue to be set by the same formula as in the past. (See 1997 Journal, page 209, Section V.)" The question was called, the motion was reread, and the vote was taken. His motion was approved.

Report of Conference Council on Finance and Administration: The Bishop called Cashar Evans, President of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, to present the council's report. Evans presented the revised budget sheets previously distributed which will be voted on Sunday Morning. Evans explained the composition of the CFA. He directed the Conference to pages 46-59. He indicated that a Judicial Council ruling required that lines 48 and 54 be separate apportioned items. Evans reported that the budget represented a 3.9% increase.

Evans referred to page 55, Item IIIA.2, "A church failing to submit the annual Tables I and II forms will receive the maximum 15% increase." He also pointed out changes in Items IVB and V. Evans indicated that the CFA supports the previous report of the Task Force on Salary Structure and the formula that is used to determine the salaries of district superintendents. However, due to the fact that CFA is attempting to keep budget increases under 4%, they are recommending a 4% rather than 5.8% increase reflective of the overall raise in clergy compensation. To use the original formula would have reflected a raise in the Conference's budget of 4.1%.

The Bishop opened the floor for questions. Ray Brooks, First UMC, Pembroke, spoke against the change in Item III. Brooks suggested that the pastor bear the punishment and not the church for late reports. The Bishop asked to pull the change in Item III out and vote on the balance of the report.

Motion: Tony Collier, New Hope UMC, (EC), moved "that on page 55, under Item III.2, Financial Policies, the new addition be deleted."

There was a speech against the change in Item III stating it is hard to receive the information from the treasurer. Ray Warren, Harbor UMC, raised a question for an exception for new churches because of unavailability of data. Evans stated that an exception is in order as long as the minister is performing his/her duties. Gregg McGarvey, Hornes-Sims Charge (RM), spoke for the motion to delete the change in Item III. Susan Pate Greenwood, West Nash UMC (RM), spoke for the change and to adopt the report as stated, and make exceptions for specific qualified situations. Bill Presnell, Elizabeth City District Superintendent, spoke in favor of the Collier motion, stating that District Superintendents should encourage their clergy to complete reports in a timely manner.

The Bishop asked for a vote on the motion to delete the change in Item III. The motion was passed.

Bishop Edwards then called for the Conference to vote on the CFA report, Items III, IV, and V. The report was adopted. The budget will be presented to the Annual Conference for approval on Sunday.

Report of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: Alan Swartz introduced the following seven resolutions to be voted on by the Conference: (1) Resolution on Partial Birth Abortion, (2) Resolution on Becoming a Confessing Conference, (3) Resolution on A Call to Christian Conference and Conscience: to Listen, to Learn, to Love, (4) Resolution on A Healthy Ministry for a Hurting World, (5) Resolution on Support for Bishop Edwards and the Cabinet, (6) Resolution for the NC Conference to be a Transforming Conference, (7) Resolution with Regard to the Relationship of Camps Don Lee, Chestnut Ridge, and Rockfish to the NC Conference of The UMC. These resolutions will be presented for approval on Saturday.

Resolution on Livable Wage: Swartz introduced this resolution to the Conference. James Coile, retired, (NB), spoke in favor of the resolution but raised the issue of the student pastor's salary. Henry Jarrett, chairperson of Commission on Church and Society, (RA), spoke in favor of the resolution. Jimmy Tatum, Smyrna UMC, (SA), raised a question about the handouts and when they will be voted on. Helen Williams, lay member of Riverdale UMC, (NB), spoke against the resolution, stating that raising wages is not the answer to the problem. She suggested that tax cuts and credits and affordable housing would be more advantageous. The Bishop called for a vote to adopt the resolution and the resolution passed.

Swartz presented the Resolution on Condition of Camp Director Housing. Cashar Evans, President of CFA, spoke against the resolution and asked that it be referred to CFA due to the financial implications of the resolution. The Bishop referred the resolution to CFA and asked that they make a recommendation on Saturday.

Concerning the Resolution on Partial Birth Abortion, the Bishop reminded a conference member that all resolutions must lay on the table for 24 hours before being considered.

Motion: Elton Hendricks, Methodist College President, moved that "all resolutions to be considered must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Annual Conference 10 days in advance of the opening of the Conference. The resolutions shall be included in the registration packets to guarantee that they are in the hands of delegates. No resolution shall be voted on until it has been in the hands of delegates as least overnight." The Bishop stated that his motion would be an amendment to the Conference rules and therefore must be tabled for 24 hours before a vote is taken.

Peg Witt, Vass-Cameron Charge, (SA), suggested that Alan Swartz also rename all the resolutions in order to ensure that the delegates have a copy of each resolution to be presented and voted on by the Annual Conference.

Good News Moment: Mr. Gene Eagle, Southport: Trinity, (WI) introduced Alex Akimov, a Siberian Russian minister. Reverend Akimov stood and received applause from the Conference. Chuck Cook, Trinity UMC, (SA), led the Conference in the singing of "Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying."

The Bishop introduced Jamie Dew from Louisburg College. Dew shared his life story with the Conference and what the ministry of Louisburg College means to his life. He was greeted with applause.

Reconsideration of Resolution on Livable Wage: Kathy Dixon, lay member from West Orange UMC, moved "to reconsider the previous vote of the Resolution on Livable Wage." Bishop Edwards called for the vote to reconsider. Those in favor were asked to stand. The Bishop ruled that the majority ruled and the motion passed. Due to the upcoming Order of the Day, the Livable Wage Resolution would be revisited Saturday when the other resolutions are presented to the Conference.

Lay Person of the Year Award: Bishop Edwards asked Laity Chairperson Robby Lowry to present the Lay Person of the Year Award. The nominees from each district for this year were: (BU): Sue Hartnett Harvin from Carrboro UMC; (DU): Mark Galloway from Long Memorial UMC in Roxboro; (EC): Eunice Britton Carraway from Plymouth UMC; (GO): JoAnn Stroud from Sarecta UMC; (GR): W. Newton inspires others through his personal generosity and endorsement of local church ministry, his participation in connectional ministries, and his attentive care for those in need, who he seeks out and helps. Then Dillon presented to Jim Love, a philanthropist and servant who denies himself to follow Jesus, leading Seaside UMC into 36 different ministries of generosity and compassion.

The Accessibility Grant: Aggie Deese presented the $500 Accessibility Grant this year to Lebanon UMC, Mebane, (BU), for the construction of a ramp.

The Reverend William J. Weissner was the soloist, and Kevin Kerstetter was music director. Local pastors were recognized, and deacons in probationary and associate membership were presented by Dr. Roger Elliott for ordination. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Celebration of Christ's Ministry, Friday, June 12, 1998.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION, Saturday, June 13, 1998

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the morning's business at 10:30 a.m.

Report of Duke Divinity School: Bishop Edwards introduced the Dean of Duke Divinity School, Dr. Greg Jones, and invited him to speak on behalf of the Divinity School. Jones brought greetings from the school and announced that Charles Michael Smith has been appointed as a Trustee to Duke University. Jones assured the continuation of a positive relationship between the Divinity School and the Conference.

Report of Commission on Congregational Development: The Bishop asked Congregational Development Chairperson Reverend David E. Brownlee to present the report. Brownlee referred to pages 91-93 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998.

Amendment: Ruth Harper Stevens, Wilmington District Superintendent, proposed an amendment to page 93, Section III.B.1 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998: "The minimum number of full members required for the initiation of a Constituting Conference (§263) and organization of a local UM church in the NC Conference shall be one hundred and one (101) persons." She moved to change the number from 125 to 101.

Brownlee replied that the original number should stand. The Bishop called for a vote, and the Stevens amendment passed.

Brownlee proposed the adoption of the revised report as a whole and it was approved.

Good News Moment: Bishop Edwards called for "A Good News Moment" by welcoming Susan Pinnock, a lay person from Camp UMC, Shallotte, (WI), who spoke of the success of the Communities in Schools Organization.

Report of the Committee on Special Conference Funds: The Bishop asked Chairperson the Reverend H. Gray Southern to report for this Committee. Southern described the work of the committee and explained how difficult it is to estimate the amount of the unfunded pension liability, and how long it will take to resolve the issue. All projections are subject to a variety of influences, from actual survivability of retirees to the changes in interest rates available in the market. It would be necessary that the committee continue as a "watch dog" of actual progress. Southern asked the new Director of Current Giving, Pat McNeil, to stand and be recognized. Gray moved the adoption of the report on page 84 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998.

Brief Recess: Bishop Edwards announced a brief recess to prepare for the upcoming Memorial Service with Dr. Greg Jones as preacher. He reminded the body of the Clergy Retiree Banquet at 12:15 p.m. at St. Andrews UMC.

All Saints Celebration - Memorial Service: Bishop Marion M. Edwards presided and Dean L. Gregory Jones preached. Special music was provided by Dr. Charles Michael Smith and the liturgical dance group, Worship in Motion, performed. Family and friends of the deceased lighted candles for each person who had died. The names of Partners in Caring who had died in the past year were read to the Conference. The NC Partners in Caring then completed their annual report.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Edwards introduced the Reverend David D. Traynham, who has been a member of this Annual Conference for 68 years. The Conference applauded Traynham and the Bishop invited him to sit with him during the business session.

Report of Bennett College and Africa University: Dr. Gloria Scott, President of Bennett College and a founder of Africa University, brought greetings from Bennett College and the other 10 historically black institutions. She congratulated both the Western and NC Conferences for their support of Africa University and described her work there. She told how the students at Africa University are carrying the work of the church into the community by providing support for orphans whose parents have died of AIDS. Scott explained that Black Colleges within conferences do not receive funding as other colleges do within the conferences. Dr. Scott presented Bishop Edwards with a certificate of appreciation to the NC Conference of The UMC for its support of Bennett College and the Black College Fund.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Edwards invited E.M. Thompson and Jack Buckley to describe respective travel programs for tours of the Holy Land and other historic Christian sites. The Bishop described his involvement with the tours, and he invited and encouraged people to join him on the trips he plans to take in the future.

Report of Joint Committee on Disability: Charles Pollock, Chairperson, presented the report found on pages 59-61 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998. James Olen Murphy and Stuart Ralph Tucker were added to the report under Item 11. The Bishop called for the vote to approve the report, and it was approved.

Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation: Robert E. Bergland, Chairperson, presented the report on Equitable Compensation on page 61-63. Bergland explained that clergy who dedicate their lives to the service of the church deserve a reciprocal obligation on the part of the church to see to their needs. Equitable salaries are an expression of that care. The local church is the first consideration in establishing what is the minimum compensation for clergy in the local church. Bergland apologized for an error in the printed report on page 61 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998 and noted that a handout with the correct information was handed out yesterday.

Marty Cauley, Lebanon-Carr UMC, (BU), moved to disregard the handout sheet and to use the language from The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998, (65% of Compensation) now and from this point onward. His motion was seconded. Cauley then spoke in favor of the motion.

Question: Gene Tyson, Covenant UMC, (GR), spoke of his uncertainty between the handout and the printed report in the book. Bergland explained Section I(A) on page 61 incorrectly stated the student minimum base compensation for 1999 and the words this amount were changed to the increase.

Neal Salter, Riverdale UMC, (NB), spoke in favor of the motion to return to the report in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998, questioning the calculations that were on the handout. The Bishop ruled to send the report back to the Commission for review. Ross Carter, Center UMC, (BU), challenged the figures presented by the Commission on Equitable Compensation. Bishop Edwards recommended that they discuss the matter off the floor of the Conference. Bergland was willing to accept the ruling of the Bishop to refer. Roger Cope, Vanceboro UMC, (GR), also challenged the formula and the Bishop referred him to the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

Gregg McGarvey, Hornes-Sims Charge, (RM), offered an amendment to the Equitable Compensation report. The Bishop ruled the amendment out of order and told the pastor to speak with the commission which was meeting at that present time.

Report of Conference Clergy Living Committee: Clergy Living Chairperson Susan Southern presented her report on page 25 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998 which contained proposed changes recommended by the Committee. The Committee recommended that the word "temporary" be removed from the reference to a housing allowance in the Conference policies for Clergy Housing. Southern moved to adopt the report as a whole as printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998. The Bishop opened the floor for discussion.

Amendment: Sid Huggins, Greenville District Superintendent, moved that on page 25, "to include the second paragraph from the bottom, 'if the charge prefers...by rental, if necessary...' as part of the main document." Huggins explained that clergy under certain circumstances, such as associate pastors, or those with handicapping conditions, are sometimes offered a housing allowance in order to provide them with housing that meets their need. This motion would open that opportunity to all clergy and that his revision was consistent with the 1996 Book of Discipline ¶1262. The revision would make the profession more attractive to potential candidates.

Don Johnson moved to amend the addendum by removing the cap. Bishop Edwards ruled that the amendment would be appropriate if the addendum were made an integral part of the report. The Bishop recommended that he hold his amendment until the motion to include the addendum is passed as part of the report as a whole.

The Bishop called for the vote on the Huggins motion, and the motion passed. Bishop Edwards then referred back to Don Johnson to hear his motion.

Don Johnson, Evergreen UMC, (BU), moved to eliminate the line beginning on page 25: and no more than 40% of conference average compensation for the NC Annual Conference (40% of the CAC for 1998 would be $15,960)...must be approved by the Cabinet. Johnson then spoke for the amendment, stating that certain areas of NC have a higher cost of living than other areas. Norma Waters, spoke against the amendment citing that provisions already exist for the Bishop and Cabinet to consider exceptions. The Bishop called for the vote on the Johnson amendment, and the amendment failed.

Mike Pasquarello, Bethany UMC, (DU), moved to amend the addendum to include an inspection by the district superintendent. The Bishop corrected him in that his amendment is not to the addendum and ruled it out of order until the vote on the report is taken.

Questions: Darron Flowers, lay member from Fremont UMC, (GO), had a question about an addendum in the case that a pastor and the charge could not work out an agreement pertaining to a housing allowance. The Chairperson referred him to the first sentence: "If the charge prefers that the pastor in charge live in the parsonage, that shall be the case."

Donald Shields, Raeford: Hoke, (FA), raised an issue pertaining to furniture when a pastor is appointed to a charge that has a housing allowance. His question was, "Will Congregational Development provide a furnished parsonage to a new pastor of a new church?" Southern replied that they would.

Motion: Steve Compton, Director of the Office of Congregational Development, moved to amend the sentence: "In new church starts, a rental house or purchased parsonage may be provided by the Office of Congregational Development, or a housing allowance may be provided with the permission of the Bishop and Cabinet. A new church will provide a parsonage for the second pastor appointed to lead the church if, at the time, it has been at least five years since the church's constituting conference was held."

The Bishop called for the vote and the Compton motion passed.

Question: Ken Ripley, lay member, Spring Hope UMC (RM), asked if a pastor owns his own home and the church provided a parsonage, was the pastor entitled to any housing compensation. A member of the commission indicated that they were not entitled to any compensation. Sid Huggins explained that the decision was entirely up to the negotiation between the parish and pastor as to whether a housing allowance was provided.

The previous question was moved and approved, passing Items 1-4 of the Introduction and the addendum.

Mike Pasquarello, Bethany UMC, (DU), moved that an inspection be conducted by the District Superintendent, Pastor-Parish Relations Chair, Parsonage Committee Chair, and Trustee Chair, at the time of the Annual Charge Conference, with the results of the inspection being reported to the Charge Conference by the Parsonage Committee Chairperson. A question was raised on whether or not this amendment was in order because the report as a whole had been adopted. The Bishop ruled that we had adopted Sections 1-4 and this would represent the next section. Quinton Covington, Central UMC, (RO), spoke against the motion. The Bishop called for the vote and the motion failed.

Rodney Hamm, Burlington District Superintendent, moved to change the language of the report to delete the requirement for an inspection entirely. The motion was seconded. Hamm explained that the requirement exceeds that of the 1996 Book of Discipline, and he felt that an inspection was an invasion of privacy. Skip Williams, Jr., St. Paul's UMC, (BU), spoke against the amendment. The Bishop called for the vote and the amendment failed. The report as a whole was placed before the Conference body.

Question: Sam McMillan, Jr., Wesley Memorial UMC, (WI), asked for a clarification regarding housing and furnishings for pastors appointed to new churches. Steve Compton stated that furnishings were included in consideration for housing for new parishes. Bishop Edwards asked for a clarification on whether this action would go into effect immediately. Compton replied it was effective immediately, but it only pertains to new parishes under Church Development.

The Bishop called for the vote of the report as a whole and it was adopted.

Report of Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Committee: Chairperson Mary Plummer presented the Committee report printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998, page 66. Plummer moved to adopt the report as a whole.

Jerry Schronce, Warsaw UMC, (GO), moved to return to the previous 1997 Journal in regard to mileage allowance and to the $125 discretionary allowance. Don Stewart, Robersonville UMC, (GR), and a former IRS employee, spoke against the amendment and stated that the UM Clergy are automatically flagged by the IRS for an internal audit.

The previous question was called. The Bishop called for the vote on the Schronce amendment, and it failed.

Robert Hammond, Magnolia Charge, (GO), moved to increase the moving allowance by $250 in Item II, paragraphs 1 and 2 on page 67 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998. Allen Norris, Jr., Conference Treasurer, spoke against the motion. The Bishop ruled that because this motion had financial implications it must be referred to the CFA. He ruled further that we would vote on the amendment, but if it passed it would be referred to the CFA. The Bishop asked for clarification. The amendment was reread. Norris commented that the Conference budget would be increased. The vote was taken and the amendment failed.

The Bishop called for the vote on the approval of the report as a whole and it was passed.

Order of the Day: The Bishop referred to the upcoming order of the day, the recognition of retirees. He asked Pensions Chairperson Reverend Woody Wells to present the retiring clergy. He did so, and each retiring clergy had an opportunity to speak briefly to the Conference.

Brief Recess

Report of the Board of Pensions: Chairperson Woody Wells, Jr. presented the Board of Pensions report to the Conference. He referred to pages 68-71 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Programs, 1998, and made several corrections on pages 69 and 71. He then thanked the Board for their good work, especially Dr. Belton Joyner, Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Morris for their dedication and diligence. Wells moved the adoption of Report A - General Information. The Bishop called for the vote and the report was adopted.

Wells directed the Conference to Report B, pages 71-76. He noted the recommendation in Item C on page 71 to increase the rate from $367 to $385 per service year, a 5% increase. The Conference approved the increase in Item C. Wells moved the adoption of all of Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program, and it was supported.

He then referred the Conference to page 76 Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance. Wells moved the adoption of Report C and it was adopted.

The Conference was referred to Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution on pages 77-84, which was adopted.

Wells moved to adopt the report as a whole and it was adopted.

The Bishop asked the House if they would be willing to continue with business until 6:00 p.m. The House approved. The Bishop will call the Conference to order for a late session tonight five minutes after the close of the worship service.

Continuation of Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation: Robert Bergland, Chairperson, referred to the sheet that was handed out earlier and the overhead display on the monitor.

Amendment: Bergland said the commission recommended deletion of the lead sentence of Section I.A: "We recommend that the minimum base compensation for those serving full-time in 1998 be as indicated below and that 65% of this amount be set for student minimum base compensation." Section I.A would then begin: "I.A.1. Salary Schedule, Pastors under full-time appointment....," followed by the figures for full-time pastors that appear on the handout sheets. Students would follow: "I.A.2. We recommend that base compensation will be based upon a percentage of the full-time base compensation to be recommended by the Commission on Equitable Compensation. In addition, both full-time and student pastors will receive $2,000 in utilities annually....," followed by the appropriate figures for student pastors listed on the handout sheet.

Ross Carter, Center UMC, (BU), expressed his gratitude to the Commission and for the equitable solution. The Bishop called for the vote and it was adopted.

Motion: Roger Elliott, Edenton Street UMC, (RA), moved "that the order of the day be the Report of Committee on Resolutions." The Bishop called for the vote and the motion was passed.

Continuation of Report of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: The Bishop called on Alan Swartz, Chairperson, to present the resolutions. The Bishop indicated that the first order of business needs to be the reconsideration of the Resolution on Livable Wage. Bishop Edwards asked Kathy Dixon to the microphone to re-present her motion for reconsideration.

Reconsideration of Resolution on Livable Wage: Dixon expressed reservations about the quality of the statistics in the resolution. She also said that she did not adequately understand the resolution when the Conference voted on it. Henry Jarrett, chairperson of Commission on Church and Society, (RA), spoke in favor of the resolution. Rufus Stark, retired, (RA), spoke in favor of the resolution. Greg Wallace, White Plains UMC, (RA), stated that the terminology used in the resolution lacked definition, especially when specific terms are placed in quotes. The previous question was moved and passed. The Bishop asked for a standing vote. The Resolution on Livable Wage failed.

Motion: Bill Braswell, Haymount UMC, (FA), moved that "the resolutions presented to this Annual Conference entitled Resolution for the NC Conference to be a Transforming Conference, Resolution on Becoming a Confessing Conference, Resolution on Support for Bishop Edwards and the Cabinet, and Resolution on A Call to Christian Conference and Conscience not to be brought to the 1998 Annual Conference for discussion and action. Rather that they be used as resources for the facilitation of discussion at the meetings on diversity called for by Bishop Edwards in his state of the church address. Further, that delegates of the 1999 NC Annual Conference be strongly encouraged to participate in those discussions."

Ben Sharpe, Cornerstone UMC, (FA), stated that one of the functions of the Conference is to engage in dialogue and discourse as well.

Point of Order: Chuck Plowman, Rich Square-Woodland Charge, (RM), raised a point of order that the resolutions were properly submitted and are deserving of the Conference's consideration. The Bishop explained that the Conference has the right to deal with resolutions as they see fit, including the right to refer. The question was called. The Conference Secretary read the motion to refer.

Question: Frank Lloyd, Wallace UMC (GO), asked whether or not the laity are to vote. The Bishop assured him that they are included.

The Bishop called for a standing vote and head count. The question was raised as to who was eligible to vote and if the tellers would be identified. Mark Wethington, Duke Memorial, (DU), asked the Bishop to clarify some of his statements in his state of the church address regarding a season of dialogue. The Bishop expressed concern over his ability to respond and still maintain some neutrality as presiding Chair. Bill Presnell, Elizabeth City District Superintendent, suggested a time of silent prayer.

Bishop Edwards asked the Conference to stand and sing "Have Thine Own Way, Lord." After a time of silent prayer, the Bishop explained that the position of the Church as contained in the Discipline is not up for debate or discussion. He also stated that the Council of Bishops has spoken on the matter and that is not the issue at hand. The Bishop admitted that he has a limited vision, and that it has not been fully thought through regarding the nature of the dialogue that shall ensue. Bishop Edwards described his experience and the dialogue on diversity that was done by the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. He stated that well-structured and professionally facilitated forums for discussion within the Conference have not yet been planned. The members of the Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns will have the task of determining how this can be done.

The Bishop said it is in the hands of the Annual Conference to determine whether or not it is willing and able in a Christian way to deal with the issues this year if it refers to have a year of study and discernment.

Questions: Sam Wynn, New Bern District Superintendent, asked whether or not there was a time line on the motion.

Ralph Brown, Faith UMC, (NB), asked if we vote to support the motion, would that automatically bring these resolutions back to the following Conference. The Bishop ruled that this is a motion to refer and it would be up to the new Annual Conference to have a new set of resolutions.

Conference Secretary, James Bryan, reviewed the qualifications of those who are eligible to vote. Bishop Edwards called for the vote of the motion to refer. The motion passed, 456 in favor and 337 against. The Bishop then congratulated the Conference on their Christian procedure.

Adjournment: Bishop Edwards dismissed the Conference for dinner. Ken Ripley, (RM), thanked the Bishop and the Cabinet for their leadership and pastoral tone in handling this issue.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION, Saturday, June 13, 1998

Worship Service: CHILDREN AND POVERTY - What Happens After the Robe Comes Off?: A musical drama was presented under the direction of the Reverend Richard Clayton, and guest performer/artist, Ms. Rebekah Carpenter. Children and teens from around the Conference participated in this special event relating to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Saturday evening session to order at 9:06 p.m.

Report of Commission on Laity: Bishop Edwards called upon Laity Chairperson Robby Lowry to present the report. Lowry invited Jeanne Rouse, UMW president, to speak on behalf of the United Methodist Women. Rouse stated that a number of NC Conference UMW members attended the quadrennial UMW meeting in Orlando this past May. Rouse reported for the UMW on their mission work around the world. The membership drive has resulted in both membership growth and the formation of new circles. The UMW of the NC Conference contributed $446,000 in undesignated giving and their membership grew by 1,200 members in 1997.

Lowry invited Albert Meyer, UMY President, to address the Conference. Meyer stated that he did not bring numbers to present, claiming God is a God of quality not quantity. As Meyer was speaking, a variety of pictures from youth events were displayed on the large screens. He spoke about growing in relationships with other youth.

Guy Tilley, UMM President, was called upon to speak on behalf of the UMM. Tilley said that the Society of St. Andrew has recognized this Conference UMM as number one in this jurisdiction for the Meals for Millions Program. The Men have sponsored the Upper Room Prayer Room in the camper outside. He shared experiences of volunteers who have answered over 100 phone calls on the prayer line. He announced that the UMM Annual Fall Rally will be held November 9, 1998 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Paul, Goldsboro.

Report of United Methodist Publishing House: The Bishop asked Lou Jennings to bring the report from the UM Publishing House. She asked Dr. Belton Joyner to present the check to Bishop Edwards in the amount of $8,474.37. These monies go toward pension needs.

Report of the Insurance Committee: Chairperson the Reverend Gray Southern presented the report and referred the Conference to page 63-66 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1998. Southern stated that the insurance program was sound. He outlined two optional health care plans. The Select Co-pay option represents savings to the insurance program. Changes in the benefits and rates for 1999 have been mailed to the participants. Pat Brady, a representative for Blue Cross Blue Shield, was introduced to the Conference to answer questions about insurance coverage. The committee recommended a rate increase of 7%, a relatively low percentage compared to other groups. He recommended the use of Duke health screening and thanked those in the treasurer's office who work with the program. Southern recommended the approval of the report. The Bishop asked for questions and there were none. A vote was taken and the report was adopted.

Continuation of the Report of Conference Council on Ministries: Executive Director Hope Morgan Ward brought the nominations for the Commissions and Committees of the Council on Ministries and the Administrative Boards and Agencies. She referred the Conference to pages 3-4 of The Book of Handouts: Nominations and Reports. The nominations are for vacancies created by people who are rotating off because of the completion of their eight year tenure, and those who are to be replaced because of the attendance policy.

After revisions from the floor, she presented the report as a whole. The Bishop called for a vote on the report and the nominations were approved.

Ward presented charter changes to the NC Conference Council on Ministries on pages 28-29 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1998. The Commission on Camping and Outdoor Ministries requested to be dissolved, and this was placed before the Conference by Ward.

Question: Lon Miller, Maysville (UMC, (NB), asked a question pertaining to the resolution to return the camps back to the control of the Conference. The resolution has not yet been voted upon. Ward responded that if the resolution on returning the camps to the NC Annual Conference passed, the commission would be reconstituted.

The Bishop called for the vote on the dissolution of the Commission on Camping and Outdoor Ministries and it was dissolved.

Ward corrected the Conference Council on Ministries Calendar on page 32, stating that there is no special offering on Camp Sunday. The Bishop asked for the vote on this issue and it was approved.

Ward directed the Conference to pages 33-36 to the 1999 Conference Advance Specials. The Conference voted to approve the list.

The nominees for Trustees/Campus Ministry on pages 36-39 were then presented to the Conference. The Bishop asked for the vote and they were elected.

Continuation of Report of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: The Bishop brought the Hendricks motion back to the floor for a vote. Since it would change the Conference rules, it requires a 2/3 vote. He asked the Conference Secretary to reread the motion: Elton Hendricks, Methodist College President, moved "that all resolutions to be considered must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Annual Conference 10 days in advance of the opening of the Conference. The resolutions shall be included in the registration packets to guarantee that they are in the hands of delegates. No resolution shall be voted on until it has been in the hands of delegates at least overnight."

Ken Ripley, lay member, Spring Hope (UMC (RM), raised the point that the resolution is redundant and that the 10 day part is irrelevant. After Ripley requested a clarification of the rules, the Conference Secretary referred to page 12 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1998. Bryan then read the rules Section VI: Reports, Resolutions, Motions, and Amendments to Reports.

Ken Ripley moved to substitute that no resolution will be considered on the same day that it is presented to the Conference, therefore eliminating the 10 day rule. The substitute motion received a second. Steve Hickle, Fairmont (UMC, (RA), raised the issue that the Book of Handouts was distributed on the first day to the clergy and to the Laity the following day. The confusion came from scheduling a vote at the first plenary session on Friday, which was the same day the Laity received the Book of Handouts. The Bishop referred the matter to the Conference Committee on Resolutions and Reference. Alan Swartz was directed to convene the committee, and Ripley and Hendricks were invited to meet with them.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Bishop Edwards called on Bill Simpson to present the report of the Conference Trustees. Simpson read paragraphs from the 1996 Book of Discipline which outline the duties and responsibilities of the Conference Board of Trustees. The first part of the report included an overview of the Conference holdings, and a proposal to return 1.5 acres to the Methodist Home for Children for a model child care center. The second part of the report is the consideration of another site for the possible relocation of the Conference Headquarters.

Simpson reviewed the history of the United Methodist Building, its function and size. It has been valued at $2.75 million. A map of the existing property in Raleigh was displayed. Simpson described the Raleigh Town Apartments and the revenue that they generate. The Trustees recommend no action for the apartments at this time.

Simpson reported that the UM Building is approaching its life expectancy and will require additional maintenance funds to remain usable in the future. Therefore, an alternate site, known as the Wakefield site, is considered for the new location of a new Conference building and a new church. It would be situated close to the new outer loop around Raleigh. The Trustees requested permission to investigate the matter and for the Bishop to appoint a task force to study and report back to Annual Conference. The investigation is not anticipated to be expensive.

Simpson asked for a vote on the return of 1.5 acres to the Methodist Home for Children. It was approved.

Simpson drew attention to the additional report of the Trustees concerning the sale of the Methodist Building. Simpson described property which the Conference now owns as a possible site to relocate the Conference Headquarters. Simpson asked the Conference to approve the recommendation to form a task force to study the proposal. The Bishop asked for questions regarding the appointment of a task force. A question was asked if it would be a good idea to go ahead and buy the additional property at the Wakefield site. Simpson responded that the Trustees were, in fact, investigating that option. Bishop Edwards asked the Conference for approval and the task force was approved.

Mike Safley, President of the Methodist Home for Children, expressed his appreciation to the Conference for allowing the return of the property. Safley stated the Methodist Home for Children is dedicating five staff members to the issue of children and poverty. He gave a handout to everyone which explains the mission and focus of the MHC.

Continuation of the Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Cashar Evans presented the budget to the Conference for approval. He moved the adoption of the budget for the year 2000 as distributed earlier. Bishop Edwards asked for questions. The Bishop called for the vote and the budget was approved.

Report of Committee on Episcopacy: Bishop Edwards asked Episcopacy Chair Cashar Evans to give this report. Evans extolled the virtues and pastoral leadership of the Bishop. He asked the Conference to open their hearts and minds to the administration that Bishop Edwards brings to this Annual Conference, stating that the Conference was blessed and privileged to have Edwards among us. He asked the Conference to stand and join hands as he led a prayer for Marion and Linda Edwards.

Continuation of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference: The Bishop asked Resolutions Chair Reverend Alan Swartz to bring the Resolution concerning the Relationship of Camps to the NC Conference of The UMC. Bishop Edwards asked the Conference's permission to deal with that single resolution while the Conference Chancellor could be present. Swartz stated that the Committee on Resolutions and Reference recommended concurrence on the resolution.

Paul Phillips, Graham: First, (BU), spoke against the resolution. He stated that there are four, not three, camps. Kerr Lake had been excluded. He explained that not all funding for the camps comes from the Conference and acknowledged the difficulties of starting a new administration for camps. Phillips said such problems are common to most major transformations. Phillips also described the benefit of the legal protection that the Board of Camping, Inc. provides the Conference.

Wilson Hayman, Chairman of the Board of Institutions and Chancellor of the Conference, was invited to explain the legal and fiscal ramifications of the resolution. Hayman asked for the defeat of the resolution.

Lon Miller, Maysville UMC, (NB), spoke in favor of the resolution. He described an erosion of confidence, UM identity, and fiscal responsibility. He alluded that the camps are in excess of $300,000 dollars in the red. The Bishop asked for substantiation of the allegation. Allen Norris, Conference Treasurer, reported that the camps are members of institutions under "pooled cash" funding. He stated that the "pooled cash" deficit exists, though declining, and is a matter of concern to CFA. However, the camps have revised their operations, and are currently showing a slight profit. Miller said he understood that Conference representation on the Board of Trustees of the Board of Camping, Inc. are a minority. Mike Weber, Pamlico Cooperative Parish, (NB), spoke for the resolution, stating a need to return the camps to Conference control because of perceived erosion of Christian emphases at the camps. He reported that one camp director was unable to display the cross and flame due to liabilities. He also stated that the Board of Institutions did not report to the Conference. The Board also solicits funds separately from the Conference. Tony Collier, New Hope UMC, (EC), expressed a similar concern about the perceived lack of spiritual guidance through the camping experience of a child in his church.

The question was called. Ken Ripley, lay member, Spring Hope UMC (RM), asked if there was any way to address the spiritual issues other than through an action such as the resolution. The Bishop asked Hope Morgan Ward to respond and she stated that the members of the Board are United Methodists. She also informed the Conference that the Board is searching for an Executive Director who will provide the needed leadership. The Question was called and received a second. The Bishop asked the body if they supported the resolution, and it was defeated.

Announcements: Secretary Jerry Bryan made administrative announcements.

Adjournment: Bishop Edwards adjourned the Conference at 10:54 p.m.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION, Sunday, June 14, 1998

Plenary Session: The Bishop called the Conference to order.

Good News Moment: Bishop Edwards opened the plenary session and called for another "Good News Moment" to begin with Anne Beaty, Director of Older Adult Ministries at Edenton Street UMC. She told about the success of the "Sheets Adult Care Center" at her Church.

Report of Task Force on Older Adult Ministries: The Bishop called upon Older Adult Ministries Chairperson Dr. J. Conrad Glass to give his report. Glass spoke to the special ministry to older adults. He referred to the Task Force report in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1998. Glass reminded the Conference that the majority of church members are above the age of 50. Older adults represent the fastest growing segment of the population. There are special needs and graces older adults bring to the church.

Report of the Methodist Retirement Homes: Bishop Edwards asked Reggie Ponder, President of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. to present this report. Ponder reported on the progress and growth of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.. He told the body about the contract offered by Duke Health Care Services. A Memorandum of Understanding now exists to bring about a merger between Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. and Duke Health Care Services. This would augment comprehensive services, available to low income clients, and provide capital for expansion. Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. will have its own Board of Directors within Duke Health Care Services. Ponder introduced Al Sweeny of Duke Health Care Services. Sweeny described the needs of older adults and the services provided through Duke Health Care Services. He acknowledged the need for spiritual emphasis in all aspects of the services provided. He expressed both delight and great promise for the impending relationship with Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.. Ponder returned to the podium to share a good news moment about a client who, though without resources, received excellent health care through Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. and Duke Health Care Services.

Change in Order of the Day: The Bishop asked the body to adjust the time for the Order of the Day, Design for Inclusiveness.

Report of Project AGAPE: CCOM Associate Director of Missions, Bruce Stanley, presented Executive Directors of Project AGAPE, Darwyn and Jeanine Van Gorp. Darwyn Van Gorp spoke of the great need in Armenia, and of the special relationship between our Conference and the church in Armenia. Most of the ministry is located in the area of Karabach, a politically unsettled region. He advocated self-help projects in support of the people. He described the difficulties caused by customs restrictions. Shipments must be prepared in strict accordance with the instructions provided by Project AGAPE. He asked for support through missions giving and prayer. Jeanine Van Gorp addressed the Conference about her work in Armenia. She described the conditions in the area affected by the earthquake.

Continuation of Report of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: The Bishop referred to the discussion of the previous evening. He directed Hope Morgan Ward to meet with the New Bern District regarding their concerns about maintaining a Christian emphasis along with other matters pertaining to the camps.

The Bishop then called on Alan Swartz to continue his report from the previous evening. Swartz reported that several amendments were accepted as part of the motion of the previous day as a result of the meeting of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference with the framers of the motion.

Motion: Swartz called for a "30 day deadline prior to Annual Conference for all resolutions to allow review by the committee, and by delegates and local churches, in advance of Conference." This motion would amend the rules of the Conference. The Bishop called for a vote, and the motion passed.

Resolution on Partial Birth Abortion: Swartz reported that the committee found the resolution consistent with the 1996 Book of Discipline and recommended its adoption.

Amendment: Mary Nichols, Lay Member of Harbor UMC, (WI), offered an amendment to section 2: add "and to support local crisis pregnancy centers." Her amendment was accepted by the originators of the resolution.

James Coile spoke against the resolution. Item 3 would censure a member of a board of the General Conference. The move to censure is beyond the scope of our jurisdiction. Coile also said that the issue is so close to the statement of the 1996 Book of Discipline that it is in effect, a vote on the 1996 Book of Discipline. Carolyn Cummings-Worjax, Grace-Trinity, (FA), spoke against the resolution, especially part 3. David Banks, Saint Peters, (NB), responded, explaining the rationale for the censure.

Henry Jarrett, Chairperson of the Commission on Church and Society, (RA), offered an amendment to delete part 3 of the resolution. He requested that the Conference Secretary write the Reverend Thom White Wolf Fassett, General Secretary. He cited the ruling of the Judicial Council and a person's First Amendment rights. Paul Stallsworth spoke against the amendment, citing the wording is "counsel" not censure. The amendment failed.

Victor Galipi, Spring-Lebanon-Garysburg Charge, (RM), spoke in favor of the resolution. The Bishop called for a vote, and the resolution was adopted.

The Bishop then called for a vote on the Resolution on A Healthy Ministry for a Hurting World. The resolution failed.

For the Resolution on Condition of Camp Director Housing, Swartz recommended referring the resolution to the NC UM Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc., to review and to prepare a report for the CFA's fall meeting. A vote was taken, and the resolution was referred.

Motion: Jerry Lowry, Seaside UMC, (WI), moved that "Bishop Edwards appoint a special task force, to include Methodist College personnel, to explore the possibility of locating another site for Annual Conference which can accommodate the 1,600+ members. Reeves Auditorium seats only 1,160 persons, leaving 350 members with no seats in order to vote on the issues affecting their local churches." The Bishop called for a vote, and the motion passed.

Design for Inclusiveness: The Bishop called for the Order of the Day: "Design for Inclusiveness," led by Religion and Race Chairperson LaNella Smith. Belton Joyner gave a history and vision of inclusiveness; several people from across the Conference testified on the successes of cross-racial situations and settings, followed by a humorous skit concerning circles, squares, and triangles relating to one another.

The Love Feast: The Love Feast began at 11:00 a.m. with the Reverend Margaret Saunders as Presider. Many testimonies were shared.

Good News Moment: Bishop Edwards called for another "Good News Moment," and called upon Sewinkon Nagbe, pastor of St. John-Smith Chapel Charge, to show a "Get on the Bus" video about Liberia which was prepared in the Wilmington District.

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Sunday, June 14, 1998

Service of Consecration and Ordination: Liturgists were Bishop Marion Edwards, the Reverends Chong Ho Yang, Edgardo Colón-Emeric, David Malloy, Cynthia Powell, and the guest preacher was Dr. H. Eddie Fox. Special soloist was Ms. Laurie Ashley and organist was Mr. Mark Frazier. Dr. Roger Elliott, an elder, Mrs. LeeAnne Thornton, a layperson, Ms. Sue Ellen Nicholson, a diaconal minister, and Mrs. Denise Waters, a deacon, presented the diaconal ministers for consecration, and deacons and elders in full connection for ordination. Bishop Alfred L. Norris assisted Bishop Edwards. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Consecration and Ordination, Sunday, June 14, 1998.)

Plenary Session:

Report of Peru Covenant: The Bishop called on Peru Covenant Task Force Chair Dr. Mark Wethington for the report. Wethington presented a short video and asked representatives from the Methodist Church of Peru - David Figueroa, Guillermo Sanchez, Pedro Uchuya, Senor Bustamante, Lucha Luisa Rojas, and Lydia Guzman - to stand and be recognized. He also recognized Rosanna Panizo, president of Methodist Seminary in Lima, Peru, who is on leave and studying at Duke. He then asked the body to approve the Peru Covenant renewal. The Bishop called for a vote and the covenant was renewed. An offering for the Peru Covenant was taken.

Fixing of Appointments and Sending Forth: The Bishop drew attention to the 1998-1999 appointments. The Bishop declared the appointments fixed.

Benediction and Adjournment: The Bishop asked the Conference to sing the closing hymn, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Bishop Edwards followed with the benediction and adjourned the 1998 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, completing the 173rd Session, at 4:00 p.m.

LEGISLATION

CONFERENCE CLERGY LIVING COMMITTEE

A. A Parsonage Guide
INTRODUCTION

1. The Parsonage System: Itineracy is at the heart of the deployment of United Methodist clergy. This mode of pastoral assignment is dependent upon the use of the parsonage system. It is our expectation that the pastor in charge shall reside in a furnished parsonage. Each parsonage should meet the standards of the conference and in such cases as these standards are not met, it is the responsibility of the pastor, the charge, and the district superintendent to work together to move toward these standards.
2. Charges Provide Furnished Parsonages: The norm is that every full-time or student local pastoral charge shall provide a furnished parsonage (either owned or rented by the charge) in which the pastor in charge will live. Clergy couples (when two parsonages are involved) may negotiate with the cabinet and the charges to determine in which parsonage the couple will live. Disabilities covered with the Americans with Disabilities Act may require the use of alternative arrangements.
3. New Churches: In new church starts, a rental house or purchased parsonage may be provided by the Office of Congregational Development, or a housing allowance may be provided with the permission of the bishop and cabinet. A new church will provide a parsonage for the second pastor appointed to lead the church if, at the time, it has been at least five years since the church's constituting conference was held.
4. Pastoral Home Ownership: Upon written agreement of the pastor/staff-parish relations committee, pastor, and district superintendent, and upon approval of the charge conference and cabinet, the pastor may be allowed to live in his/her own house without remuneration from the charge other than standard utilities as long as the charge is ready to provide a parsonage at a pastoral change.
5. Use of Furnishings: Since it is the norm for the charge to provide and furnish the parsonage, it is the normal expectation that the pastor shall use the furnishings provided by the charge unless another arrangement is negotiated with the parsonage committee.
6. Pastoral Assignments: It is understood that The Book of Discipline gives the bishop and cabinet the authority and responsibility to maintain the itinerant system by appointment of pastors (§1329). We understand that assignments are based upon the parsonage system and without regard to personal living arrangements beyond the normal parsonage setting.
7. Housing Allowances: If the charge prefers that the pastor in charge live in the parsonage, that shall be the case. Upon written agreement of the pastor/staff-parish relations committee, the pastor, and the district superintendent, and upon approval of the charge conference and the cabinet, the charge may offer a housing allowance to the pastor. This allowance shall be no less than 20% of conference average compensation for the North Carolina Annual Conference (20% of the CAC for 1998 would be $7,980) and no more than 40% of conference average compensation for the North Carolina Annual Conference (40% of the CAC for 1998 would be $15,960). Any exception to this percentage range must be approved by the cabinet. Upon a change in pastoral assignment, the incoming pastor in charge may choose to live in a parsonage which the charge could provide either by purchase or by rental, if necessary.
8. Parsonage Committees Recommended: It is recommended that in each pastoral charge having a parsonage committee, which shall be elected by the charge conference upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel, that said committee shall be amenable the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and work closely with trustees in providing adequate housing for the pastor. (Reference is made to The Parsonage Committee in ¶2532 of The Book of Discipline, 1996.) This Committee should meet twice yearly at the parsonage. In charges of more than one church, each church should be represented on the Committee according to the percentage of ownership. Ex-officio members of the Committee should include the pastor, the pastor's spouse, chairperson of the trustees, and chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

The following suggestions are standards toward which to work. They are given so that the pastoral charge shall know what is expected of it, and that the parsonage family may know what to expect:

REPAIRS, FURNISHINGS, AND/OR SALE OF PARSONAGE

1. Repairs and furnishings should be divided among churches on a multiple charge by percentage of ownership.
2. When no interest is owned in a parsonage on a multiple church charge by one or more churches, each church having no ownership should pay its pro-rata share of the fair rental value of the parsonage and furnishings. Rental money should be placed in a savings account for furnishings and repairs. The church or churches which own the parsonage should repair and furnish the parsonage.
3. When a parsonage is sold, the principal proceeds resulting from the sale may not be used for the operating budget. (§12542, The Book of Discipline, 1996)

THE HOUSE

1. Minimum of three bedrooms (four are preferable) with ample closet space in each. One of the three bedrooms should be on the first floor.
2. A family room with book shelves, preferably separate and apart from the kitchen
3. Kitchen with ample built-in cabinets and large enough for family eating space, or a breakfast nook
4. Area large enough for washer, dryer
5. Two full baths
6. Living room, large enough for parsonage entertaining
7. A dining room is desirable, but where there is no dining room, the dining area should adjoin the living room in a living-dining room combination.
8. A home study in the parsonage is a desirable option in addition to the church office-study. It should have an outside entrance and be suitably equipped.
9. Garage with electric doors or a carport
10. Dry storage space
11. Adequate heating and air conditioning equipment and insulation, including storm or thermal pane windows and doors
12. Adequate rotary TV antenna or cablevision hook-up, if available. The purpose of this recommendation is to save the roof of the house from excessive wear due to moving antennas.
13. Uninterrupted utilities (electricity, water, gas, phone) in the name of the charge
14. The outgoing pastor is responsible for leaving the parsonage fuel tank full.
15. The chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Relations Committee and the chairperson of the Trustees are responsible for reviewing all items on the "So You're Moving Check Sheet" to be certain that each item has been completed.

THE FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should provide:

1. All heavy furnishings, including electric or gas range, refrigerator with freezer compartment, water heater, washer, dryer, and a dishwasher. (A garbage disposal and a freezer are desirable options.)
2. Bedroom, dining room, den and living room furniture. (One bedroom should be left unfurnished, so as to allow the pastor to have his/her own bedroom suite.)
3. Good mattresses, floor covering, shades, blinds, curtains or draperies in all rooms
4. Some lamps and occasional tables
5. Discarded furniture should not be used in furnishing the parsonage
6. The minister's family should provide linens, blankets, pillows, baby beds, dishes, china, crystal, silverware, cooking utensils, radio, TV, and other personal items which they desire.
7. The storage and payment thereof of unused parsonage furnishings and the pastor's furnishings is to be negotiated between the pastor and the charge.
8. An up-to-date inventory of furnishings which includes dates of purchases and costs. This should be reviewed and updated at each Committee meeting. Pictures or video tapes are recommended and should be kept in a safe place other than the parsonage.

PARSONAGE GROUNDS

Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees, adequate yard space for children, paved driveway and walks, and a power mower.

CARE OF PROPERTY

A clean parsonage is much to be desired by all. It is urged that a parsonage family keep the home clean and attractive.

Any abuse of the furnishings or house beyond normal wear should be the responsibility of the parsonage family.

The following pet policy consistent with the standard policy for rental property is established.

1. The pet owner is responsible for any property damage caused by pet(s).
2. The pet owner must conform to all state and local ordinances.
3. The pet owner is responsible for liability for any injury caused by the pet(s).
4. The pet owner is responsible for professional pest extermination of the parsonage when moving.

Walls, woodwork, and exterior should be painted as needed. The expense of painting, sanding and refinishing floors, repairs, periodic pest extermination, cleaning of carpets and draperies, are expenses to be borne by the church.

It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to leave the parsonage clean and in good condition when they move to another charge. As close to moving time as possible, each family should wash windows, screens and window sills, and leave curtains, draperies, carpets, shades, and blinds clean. Special attention should be given to closets, cabinets, and drawers. Bathrooms, kitchens, storage rooms, and attics should be clean. Refrigerators and stoves as well as all other appliances should be clean and in working order. Check light fixtures, exhaust fans, hot and cold air ducts to assure cleanliness. The parsonage yard should be well groomed.

The following information should be left by the pastor for his/her successor: All warranties, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment belonging to the parsonage, and an inventory including dates of purchase and cost of parsonage furnishings. The pastor should indicate when and from whom equipment was purchased, and whom to call for service. The pastor should leave, also, a list of persons to call for various reasons, where to find various items, and when and by whom various improvements are made.

THE PARSONAGE COMMITTEE

The persons responsible for the parsonage should have a current inventory of parsonage furnishings. A copy of the inventory should be given to the minister and the trustees of the parsonage property. This inventory should include date of purchase of each item listed, its cost, and dates of renovations and repairs.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should meet with the pastor and his/her spouse twice annually. Furnishings should be evaluated at this time to decide the condition of pieces, to discard unacceptable items, check for needed repairs, and replace items if needed. The charge shall maintain adequate insurance for the replacement of parsonage and furnishings. The pastor is responsible for insurance on the family's personal possessions.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should recommend to the Finance Committee an amount to be set aside each year, or included in the budget, for repairs and maintenance. A special parsonage maintenance fund should be established. A minimum of 1% per year of the replacement value of the parsonage should be placed in this fund, and this should continue to accrue until the fund reaches a minimum of 5% of the replacement value of the parsonage and then be maintained at that level. Each charge conference is urged to designate the chair of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee, chair of trustees, or chair of parsonage committee to make decisions for emergency replacements and/or repairs. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor/Staff Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.

BUILDING OR RENOVATING A PARSONAGE

In all matters pertaining to the location, renovation, and building of a parsonage, the Discipline should be consulted. The required legislation related to the above is found in ¶ 2535-2544 of The Book of Discipline, 1996.

Parsonage sites should be selected that will hold their value and be a wise investment, preferably in a sub-division. Whenever a new parsonage is built, its many uses should be considered.

Churches building new parsonages should be responsive to the handicapping procedures in the state building codes. Congregations receiving parsonage families with handicapping conditions should be responsive to their housing needs.

(Guidelines may be secured by writing: Director of Ministerial Relations, NC Annual Conference, P O Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.)

B. Arbitration Policy - Clergy Living Committee

The 1987 NC Annual Conference Session created the Clergy Living Committee whose responsibilities include "to hear unrecconciled problems regarding parsonage usage and to recommend solutions and alternatives" (1987 Conference Journal, page 326).

The following is a proposed policy for the Clergy Living Committee to carry out this Annual Conference mandate:

1. Provision for clergy housing is the responsibility of the local church.

2. Issues regarding housing should be resolved between the clergy family and the local church.
3. If housing matters cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of all involved parties, the respective District Superintendent should be invited for mediation by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.
4. The Arbitration Sub-committee of the Conference Clergy Living Committee may only be invited to arbitrate clergy housing issues at the initiative of the District Superintendent. Travel expenses will be borne by the Clergy Living Committee.
5. The sub-committee shall come to the local church or charge to hear the concerns of all interested parties, and offer recommendations and/or solutions that shall be mutually binding.
6. Recommendations and solutions offered by the sub-committee shall be consistent with the parsonage standards of the North Carolina Conference.
- C. Clergy Living Committee
 1. The Committee will be composed of at least 50% lay membership. A lay person and a clergy person will alternate as the chairperson each quadrennium.
 2. The Committee will meet as necessary, at least once a year, to review policy, to hear unreconciled problems, recommendations, and solutions from the Arbitration Committee.
 3. The newsletter has been discontinued.

CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Conference Staff Relations Committee has met three times during the conference year to implement the purpose of our Committee which is to: confer and counsel with the Council on Ministries Staff to make effective ministry possible - to receive reports concerning the work of the Staff - to evaluate effectiveness - to make nominations for staff positions and to recommend salaries.

Since our last Annual Conference, we have welcomed a new director of CCOM, the Reverend Hope Morgan Ward. We commend her for her outstanding leadership of the CCOM during this past year. Realizing that it has been a time of transition, learning, challenge, frustration, and discovery, we are confident that she has arisen to the challenges and has given her best, and we ask God's blessings on her as she continues in this position for another year.

Our new director has led us in exploring other creative and innovative avenues of implementing the purpose of our Committee and we are grateful for that.

We continue to up-grade and review the Handbook of Personnel Policies for support staff and program staff at the United Methodist Building so that all will have a good understanding of their rights and obligations as an employee.

In February, the Committee and all conference related personnel in the United Methodist Building gathered for a luncheon at Balentine's Restaurant. This was a time of fun, fellowship, and a means of establishing community and good relations with everyone who works together for the Annual Conference. It was also a time for the Committee to express our thanks and appreciation to all the Staff for their continued efforts in meeting the goal of helping prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers for ministry and mission, and to help make disciples.

Salaries for program staff positions on the CCOM were recommended and approved at the November meeting of the Council. A 5% increase was approved for all Council associate directors with the exception of the Office of Multi-Cultural/Social Ministries Office which was increased to 10% to bring that office in line with the other offices of the Council.

At the February meeting of the CCOM, there being no requests for changes in the present staff on the CCOM Staff, our Committee recommended and the CCOM approved, that the present clergy persons serving on the Staff be reappointed, that the deacon and diaconal minister be given a service appointment, and that the one lay person continue to be employed, all as associate directors of CCOM.

At the request of Carol D. Hayes, the Committee has recommended and the CCOM has approved, a 3-month sabbatical (April, May, and June, 1999) for her to participate in a 6-week study in Costa Rica and a 3-week retreat for spiritual discernment which may lead to future work in Hispanic ministry.

We express our thanks and appreciation to the Support Staff and Program Staff at the United Methodist Building for their continued support of ministry and mission in the NC Conference.

DIVISION OF DEACONS AND DIACONAL MINISTRIES, BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

This year we are pleased to present to the NC Annual Conference Juanita Cousins Bryant and Betty Ann Buckley for consecration as diaconal ministers. They have completed the candidacy process, have been examined by the Division of Deacons of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and have been found to be spiritually grounded, psychologically fit, and academically prepared for diaconal ministry.

We are excited about the possibilities for ministry in the future, and we remain committed to working with, caring for, and supporting - candidates for diaconal ministry, - those persons who remain in diaconal ministry, - persons who are certified or who seek certification in the future, - those who have chosen to transition into the new order of deacon in full connection, - and those who seek future ordination in this order.

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1998 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability, through the Office of Ministerial Relations, will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, chair of Joint Committee on Disability, Conference benefits officer, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference.
2. Definition of Disability: For the first 24 months, an active participant will be considered disabled for the purposes of the Comprehensive Protection Plan and the Basic Protection Plan as of the date the Administrator determines on the basis of medical evidence that such active participant was unable to perform the usual and customary duties of his/her employment by reason of bodily injury, disease, or mental or emotional disease or disorder that will presumably last for at least six continuous months, exclusive of any disability resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, warfare, intentionally self-inflicted injury, or participation in any criminal or unlawful act.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the validity of the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. All materials will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability with its approval.
5. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance, and Life Insurance shall be paid by the Joint Committee on Disability both for those approved by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and those approved by the Joint Committee on Disability.
6. Pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
7. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
8. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,000 be made at the beginning of Disability Leave (effective July 1, 1993). This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
9. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.

10. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.
 - A. Wilson E. Barber, P O Box 4931, Emerald Isle 28594 (919/354-5635)
 - B. George F. Blanchard, Rt.1, Box 333WW, Fayetteville 28301 (910/486-8756)
 - C. Nathan H. Byrd, P O Box 1868, Banner Elk 28604 (704/898-6687)
 - D. William T. Clarke, Box 754, Wanchese 27981 (919-473-3143)
 - E. Robert B. Craig, 115 McLean St., Portsmouth, VA 23701 (804/399-6120)
 - F. James W. Hicks, Jr.(AM), 3730 Salem Chur.Rd., Goldsboro 27530 (736-2311)
 - G. Richard F. Lewis, Sr.(AM), P O Box 323, Calypso, NC 28325 (919/658-3098)
 - H. Donna Susan Moore, 6757 David Moore Rd., Elon College 27244 (910/584-0034)
 - I. George C. Smith, 1243 Butler Town Rd., Clarendon, NC 28432 (910/653-3336)
 - J. Michael Lawrence Tart, 105 Shawn Ct., Rocky Mt., NC 27804 (919/443-1931)
 - K. LaVerne B. Womack, Jr., 10760 Taylor Rd, Laurinburg 28352 (910-610-1248)
11. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time:
 - James O. Murphy, Jr.
12. Who have been placed on Disability Leave since the last Annual Conference?
 - LaVerne B. Womack, Jr., effective July 1, 1997
13. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities.

Charles L. Pollock, Chairperson

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline mandates that "...there shall be in each annual conference a Commission on Equitable Compensation" (§1622.1), whose purpose is "...to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference..." (§1622.2). Three broad areas of responsibility are outlined in §1622.2, which are (a.) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (b.) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c.) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations.

God calls persons to ministry to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing (Matthew 28:19), for without them the world would not have heard Christ preached (Romans 10:14). These are called to be stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Corinthians 4.1). The church sets some persons apart for the role of clergy and ordains these persons to the work of pastoral ministry to the servants of God.

Pastors answer affirmatively the historic question of John Wesley, (§321) "Are you determined to employ all your time in the work of God?" For such a called, set apart, and committed clergy, the church assumes an obligation to plan adequate support (§1617). The Book of Discipline is clear that "the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges" (§1622.4; see also §1249.12). Charges carry a responsibility for pastoral salaries as one expression of missional/ministry presence in the community. We recognize that such a missional presence also includes faithful payment of apportionments in full as ministry beyond the local church.

The purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to seek fairness both for pastors and local churches. Why should this commission be so concerned about equity/fairness in clergy compensation? Our prayerful consideration of scriptural and historical foundations for our work lead us to note:

- a.) Jesus says, "the laborer is worthy of his hire," (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us "you shall not muzzle the ox when it is treading out the grain," (1 Timothy 5:18; Deuteronomy 25:4).
- b.) Wesley was concerned that clergy have a responsibility not to be "in debt so as to embarrass you in your work" (§321 and §327), which implies that the church has responsibility that it neither lead its clergy into positions of embarrassing indebtedness, nor leave them there.
- c.) The Great Commission to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the great commission bear its promised fruit.
- d.) The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the great commandment to love our neighbors as we love ourselves by wanting for each pastor what our members want for themselves - compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our praying, thinking, and working together as laity and clergy from across this Conference, we make the following recommendations, which we believe will help us move toward fairness for both churches and pastors as we support ordained ministry in the NC Annual Conference.

I. Recommended Schedule of Base Compensation for 1999:

A. Salary Schedule

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT			1998	1999
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Base Compensation	$26,045	$26,983
Utilities	2,000	2,000
		$28,045	$28,983
STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Base Compensation	$16,600	$17,210
Utilities	2,000	2,000
		$18,600	$19,210

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $2,400 for travel expense. We encourage each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's cash base compensation (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash base compensation designated by the General Board of Pension/Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of parsonage). Cash base compensation plus housing is Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The Pastor's base compensation is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

A. In considering the base compensation for the charge, all income, including base compensation, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as base compensation in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Base compensation support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.

B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total base compensation will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.

In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all base compensation obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one-third of the base compensation required for such a division.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
- C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation Funds to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- D. The Commission on Equitable Compensation further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum base compensation for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.
- E. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.
- F. Equitable Compensation Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum base compensation established by the Annual Conference. The monthly base compensation supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
- G. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the NC Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum base compensation. Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. This policy does not restrict the Equitable Compensation Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
- H. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference. The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.
- I. The Commission will not fund any charge at the same time the charge is receiving funds from the Emerging Church Salary Fund.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Conference Benevolences
 - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black College Fund
 - Africa University Fund
 - Mission Initiatives Fund
2. Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Administration, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; district work fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Response Committee and Resident Bishop.
3. Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

BUDGET YEAR	BASE FORMULA	MAXIMUM % INCREASE
A
C	$4A \div 4$	No Cap
D	$3A + B \div 4$	No Cap
E	$2A + B + C \div 4$	No Cap
F	$A + B + C + D \div 4^*$	No Cap
G	$B + C + D + E \div 4$	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

4. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
5. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 17, 1998.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.

- C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the CFA for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
- D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
- E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Interdenominational Cooperation, Mission Initiatives, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, College Debt Retirement, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
- F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. The Conference is also a member of Project Equality.
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1998 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1999.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶609.5.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶610.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.
- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference. The CFA continues to recommend that 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the on-going priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club and the John Wesley Endowment for Congregational Development.
- C. The Board of Directors for Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the NC Conference.
- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Asbury Homes for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety), or contact with pastors without approval of the CFA.

- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Response Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.
- H. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- I. Golden Cross Sunday observance for optional offering.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

CFA continues to recommend that the percentage change in district superintendents' salary be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary and utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. The percentage change, 1998 over 1997, is 5.80; therefore, the 1999 salary for district superintendents would increase by 5.80% to $72,514.00. In recognition of other budget increases, however, CFA recommends that for 1999, the superintendent salary increase be set at 4% ($2,741) to $71,280.

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

- A. The CFA uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in the monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 AM on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 AM on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries. Note: CFA requests the Board of Institutions to provide regular reports (at least annually) regarding its financial monitoring of related institutions/programs.
- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year.
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.

- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
 2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
- I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
 - J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
 - K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation.
 - L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain reserve funds measured at cost basis equal to 10% of the conference operating budget. Both cash reserves and realized gains/losses shall be considered as a part of the 10% reserve goal. Unrealized gains/losses shall be separately reserved for future use as recognized in realized gains. Funds in excess of cash requirements shall be invested in the United Methodist Foundation in proportion to the percent of reserves on hand.
 - M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church related uses.
 - N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
June 1998: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
September 2, 1998: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.

A. General

1. The Insurance Committee will mail the proposed benefits to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The committee considers the most current financial information that is available before adopting its recommendations.
2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.

3. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee and administered by Health and Human Services on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 1998. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.
4. The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Commission on Health and Human Services; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 3, Lay Members appointed by the Commission on Laity; 1, Conference Treasurer (without vote); 1, Conference Controller (without vote); 1, Conference Group Administrator (without vote); 1, Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies.

B. Policy and Rules

1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee.
2. Effective January 1, 1997, two options in health insurance coverage are to be offered to eligible participants. The current coverage will continue to be offered as the Preferred Provider Organization (PPO). The new option will be offered as the Preferred Provider Select CoPay (PPO Select CoPay). Details may be obtained from the Treasurer's Office.
3. Effective January 1, 1995, eligible clergy received disability coverage through the Basic Protection Plan of the General Board of Pensions. Effective January 1, 1997, this benefit is 70% of the greater of compensation or the DAC less benefits received from CPP and Social Security.
4. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 1-800-672-7897. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield within 48 hours following an emergency admission. Details are printed in your benefit book available from the Treasurer's Office. Benefits will be reduced, and/or denied if pre-certification is not obtained.
5. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (clergy or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement. At the time of retirement, the participant must be enrolled in Medicare parts A & B to be eligible for the Medicare Supplement.
6. The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer's Office.
7. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Clergy personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.
8. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
9. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
10. Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
11. Laypersons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
12. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.

13. Clergy or laypersons who choose not to join the group within 30 days of becoming eligible, will be added as late applicants upon completion of a new enrollment form. Adding family members or changing the type of coverage while enrolled is permitted at anytime during enrollment. A one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions after enrollment will continue to be required for late applicants.
14. At the time of retirement, clergy become eligible for coverage under the Board of Pensions group insurance plan currently administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC.
15. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.
16. Effective February 1, 1996, participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (thirty days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

If you enroll in this program, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following your first day of work.

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary and commissioned probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) Clergy shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
 4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 1. Each church/charge must apply for a group insurance contract with the Conference Treasurer's Office in order to offer insurance to eligible lay employees. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. This contract may be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's Office. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
 2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.

3. The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date first eligible, or be added as a late applicant.
4. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.

V. The Insurance Committee is grateful to the Annual Conference for the support we have to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits. We constantly monitor our insurance programs and their costs.

We are thankful that 49% of our active clergy and their households have chosen to use the Select CoPay option for their health coverage. Their choice saves money, both for themselves and for the Annual Conference. We ask all of our members to consider subscribing to that plan, recognizing, however, that for some people the PPO option is preferable.

The Committee's thanks also go to Caroline Buckland, Allen Norris, and Sharon Strother, along with the other members of the Treasurer's Office, whose daily work sustains our efforts.

taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.

3. Itinerant clergy couples will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,600.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one member of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.

- B. Travel: Mileage of $.10 per mile per vehicle may be paid for a single trip to move each vehicle to the new residence. If a vehicle is used to move household goods, i.e., in lieu of a moving company, additional trips may be reimbursed as necessary. The per trip mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the appointment to the Conference boundary, or the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement) whichever is less. Either the mileage as described above or actual out of pocket expenses for gas, oil, repairs, etc. may be reimbursed.
- C. The Conference treasurer will make payment to eligible itinerant clergy as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. This will fulfill the 1996 Discipline, ¶1262.2f(5), which states "The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and pastor shall make an annual review of the church owned parsonage(s) to assure proper maintenance." Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee, the superintendent may request the arbitration committee of the clergy living committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
- D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible itinerant clergy to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer.
- E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
- F. Reimbursable expenses include the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, mobile homes, etc., moving household and personal goods, travel as defined in II.B., lodging, packing, crating, in-transit storage and insurance, labor costs, and any other expense necessary to physically move household items. Expenses which are not reimbursable include meals, purchase of household items, or any other item not reasonable or necessary for the move.
- G. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer's Office no later than four months following the date of the move.
- H. Reimbursement will be considered a qualified, non-taxable fringe benefit not subject to income and employment tax when:
 - * Your move is 50 or more miles from the old appointment to the new appointment and
 - * Your new appointment is full time for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months at the new location.
 If your appointment does not meet the above conditions, then the reimbursement will be reported as taxable for both income and employment tax.

III. Review Committee

- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.
- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: The NC Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the NC Conference our report for 1998.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference that wrestles constantly with its responsibilities outlined in The Book of Discipline 1996 (§1633). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination in a way which is both fair and diligent, seeking always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth with those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given nine (9) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
- 2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained ministry and their election as: a) Full-time Local Pastors, b) Associate Members, c) Probationary Members, and d) Full Members of the Annual Conference.
- 3) To interview and report recommendations concerning: a) students to be appointed to attend school, b) candidates for ordination as Deacon, and c) candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Disability Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of Conference membership.
- 5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
- 6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.
- 7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline 1996, and to study matters pertaining to character.
- 8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

Members of the NC Conference Board of Ordained Ministry have worked diligently to fulfill their duties! This continues to be a time of transition. The new legislation adopted at General Conference in 1996 has significantly changed the structure and function of the Board! For example, the Board of Ordained Ministry now has two divisions: The Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries and the Division of Elders and Local Pastors. This new ordering means that new candidates will no longer be ordained deacon and later elder. Instead, candidates will seek to be either a Deacon in Full Connection or an Elder in Full Connection. Another change from General Conference involves the office of Diaconal Ministry. After those now in process complete their work for Diaconal Ministry, no new diaconals will be consecrated. Those interested in specialized ministry and called to word and service will pursue ordination as Deacons in Full Connection. These are just a few of the changes. As we continue in this time of transition, we covet your prayer, patience, and understanding.

This year we are pleased to report that seventeen persons will be ordained as Deacons on the Elder track. Four will be ordained Deacon in Associate Membership and one will have orders recognized as Deacon in Associate Membership. There are four persons making the transition from Diaconal Ministry to ordination as Deacons in Full Connection. Our class for Elders in Full Connection numbers thirteen. This year's retirement class includes eighteen Full Members and two Associate Members. In addition, five pastors retired ad interim, including four Full Members and one Local Pastor. Our large number of retiring pastors each year continues to provide opportunities for many persons to enter this field of service!

Please note that various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., Robbie W. Barrett, and Lynn J. Morris. We are indebted to these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our Annual Conference.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials).

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel, and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on Tuesday, May 5, 1998.

Lisa B. Cole, Chairperson

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1996 Book of Discipline, ¶1348.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The 1996 Discipline, ¶1348.2, further states, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. In the 1996 Book of Discipline, ¶1325.2, it states, "There are professional responsibilities that elders are expected to fulfill and that represent a fundamental part of their accountability and a primary basis for their continued eligibility for annual appointment. Growth in vocational competence and effectiveness through continuing formation is expected of conference members."

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) It establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) It seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the Local Church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. (The Book of Discipline, 1996, ¶1348.2)

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Clergy: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of Conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and Conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and Extension Ministry categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.
2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.
3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.
4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

Limits to Conference Funds:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.
2. For a one CEU event, no more than $100; a two CEU event, $200; a three CEU event, a maximum of $300 if the cost of the event merits it.
3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.
4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.
5. Holy Land Trips - A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, provided funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation or other appropriate time.
2. Clergy shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.
3. It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

According to The Book of Discipline, 1996, ¶1633.2a, one of the primary responsibilities of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry is the enlistment and recruitment of men and women of all races and ethnic origins for ministry as ordained clergy persons.

Your Committee on Enlistment has taken its charge seriously this year. As in past years, we have focused on a single goal: to raise the consciousness of our constituency within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference so that identification and enlistment of ordained ministers is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church.

This year we have worked to put together a series of events and programs to meet this goal. One event that will be held in Los Angeles, CA, on November 13-15, 1998 is "Exploration '98," a national gathering for youth and young adults considering ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church. In 1996, the last time such an event was held, we sent twenty-eight (28) persons to this gathering. We hope to meet or exceed this number in 1998!

Once again this year, our committee will sponsor a sermon writing contest, with contributors submitting sermons that have been preached in local congregations and that deal with the nature of God's calling persons into ministry. There is a December 1, 1998 DEADLINE for these sermons, with the winning entry being published in the NC Christian Advocate early in 1999.

Several other program ideas have been generated by your Enlistment Committee for the Board of Ordained Ministry. With fully one-third of all currently active ordained pastors scheduled for retirement by 2004, the work of this committee is increasingly important. We encourage the involvement of the laity across our conference in the serious task of identifying youth and young adults who have a call to ordained ministry.

Samuel D. (Mack) McMillan III, Chairperson

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The MEF is one of the most unsung blessings of our connexional support. In addition to being the underlying support to our seminaries, it provides invaluable support for the following ministries: Annual Conference Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry for programs they provide for clergy and diaconal ministers; scholarships for students studying for the ordained and diaconal ministry in the 13 outstanding United Methodist seminaries and in non-United Methodist seminaries approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry and taught by seminary professors and conference leaders throughout the United Methodist Church; continuing education; course of study schools (more than 2,300 people are involved in 12 course of study schools); research and special programs related to candidacy and enlistment; pastoral care initiatives; clergywomen concerns; racial and ethnic concerns; spiritual formation; testing and evaluation; training of boards of ordained and diaconal ministry; international theological education; jurisdictional block grants; supervision issues and Dempster Fellowships. NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL
AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The 1997 Pastors' School and Convocation, held October 13-15, allowed participants to explore the matters of pastoral leadership in the context of the church and the community. Barbara Brown Zikmun, president of Hartford Seminary, was the 1997

James A. Gray Lecturer. Loren Mead, author, priest, and consultant brought the Franklin S. Hickman Lectures. The keynote address was presented by Jim Wallis, founder of the Sojourners Community in Washington, DC. Preachers for the Convocation included Bishop Lawrence McCleskey, Dean Gregory Jones, and Professor William Turner. A variety of continuing education courses was offered in the areas of theology, biblical studies, pastoral care, spirituality, worship, and new church trends.

Plans are well under way for the 1998 Convocation and Pastors' School scheduled for October 12-14. The 1998 Gray Lecturer will be Parker Palmer. Cheryl Sanders will be the Hickman Lecturer. The keynote session will feature a dialogue on racial reconciliation between John Hope Franklin and William Friday. Continuing education and worship experiences will be provided. A few new features to the Convocation schedule will be added. A brochure with full details will be available from the Divinity School later this summer.

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care has, since 1971, served the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of four members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one member from the Board of Diaconal Ministry; one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor; and two members from the Commission on Health and Human Services. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Health Insurance Program should review the Health Care Benefit Program Book as up to 80% of financial coverage is provided for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of 22.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 448, 449, or 450 of The Book of Discipline (1992), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose status is active, retired, or on leave in accordance with ¶ 313.1 of The Book of Discipline (1992), or a dependent.

Special circumstances:

1. Grant eligibility is provided when ministerial couples undergo marital separation or divorce. The amount provided is $400.00 for each spouse for a maximum of two years following the separation.
2. Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, and for surviving spouses of ministers.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Counselors: Clinical members of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT);

Pastoral Counselors: Members of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC);

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification;

Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologists; and Social Workers: Certified Clinical Social Workers (CCSW) or equivalent licensure in the jurisdiction of practice.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the Chairperson of the Pastoral Care Committee. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
2. Once the application, Conference Directory, and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning this process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.

In 1997, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted over $19,170.95 for counseling sessions. This represents 891 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year (84 more than provided in 1996). Grants were processed for 73 client units during 1997, representing 599 sessions for clergy, 132 for spouses, 37 for families; and 87 for dependent children, and 36 for cleric/spouse. Of these 73 units, 13 received the 1997 maximum of $400 in assistance.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND BACKGROUND CHECKS, COMMITTEE ON

The North Carolina Annual Conference requires and administers psychological assessment and evaluation of all who seek to enter ordained ministry in our Conference. Responsibility for this area is given to the Committee on Psychological Testing. Members of the committee for 1998-99 are: Trish Hicks, Merritt Jones, Larry Robinson, and Peg Witt.

Psychological testing serves two purposes. 1.) It offers the individual information, feedback and guidance toward psychological health and wholeness. 2.) It offers the Board of Ordained Ministry assistance in the discernment process about candidates. The Board uses this testing as ONLY ONE PART of the evaluation process.

All potential candidates under The 1996 Discipline are required to be tested - whether they are seeking to become Deacon or Elder. Those under The 1992 Discipline (or prior Disciplines) are required to have the testing as they seek ordination as a Deacon and Probationary Member of the Conference. Probationary members of other annual conferences seeking to transfer into this conference must release information on their testing to the Transfer Committee of this Board.

The required tests are: Personal Data Inventory, Incomplete Sentences, Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and 16 PF (back-up to the MMPI). The cost of testing is borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry for persons within the North Carolina Annual Conference. For those transferring into our conference, we also bear the cost when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

Testing services are provided by Dr. Gary Brown, a retired Elder from the Western North Carolina Annual Conference who has his doctorate in counseling. We GREATLY appreciate the faithful and effective work Dr. Brown does in helping our Committee and our Board to do its work for the well-being of Christ's Church and to the glory of God.

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The 1996 Book of Discipline, ¶1317 - Probationary Service of Commissioning Ministers and ¶1417.3 in the 1992 Book of Discipline states:

"Each probationary member shall have an elder in full connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation."

The NC Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry program meets this requirement through the cluster group model. Probationers meet in small groups throughout the probationary period. Cluster leaders are elders who are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, and with the same leader, for the duration of the probationary experience. This arrangement provides a particularly important collegiality and support for the probationers.

In October 1997, the committee sponsored a pre-probationary seminar for candidates preparing for probationary membership. Representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry's interview committees presented overviews of the interview process.

Each year, Phase I Probationers, those in their first year of probationary relationship ('92 Discipline), meet for an overnight retreat. A resource person, selected by the committee, leads the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation, and practical concerns of pastoral leadership in the local church.

Phase II members are those in the second year of probationary membership with the Annual Conference ('92 Discipline). They work in their cluster gatherings to prepare for full conference membership and ordination as elders. A retreat is held at Duke Divinity School each fall to assist this group in their preparation.

Phases III & IV are designed to help Probationers who must reappear before the Board for Elders' Orders and full conference membership.

Within the RIOM program for the year 1999, a new tracking process has been approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry known as Phases A,B,C and D - created for the Probationary members seeking to become Deacons and Elders in Full Connection under The 1996 Book of Discipline which requires a three-year probationary period.

The new probationary period, approved by the 1996 General Conference outlined in The Discipline, ¶1315, comes following the completion of one's seminary degree and prior to ordination. This period will be a minimum of three (3) years and a maximum of six (6) years. During Annual Conference, the Bishop commissions persons being recommended for the probationary period by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Clergy Session, inaugurates the probationary period and brings the commissioned probationer into the clergy covenant and into the new Residency in Ordained Ministry process of Phases A,B,C and D.

Those commissioned as Deacons/or Elders in Full Connection must serve full-time under Episcopal appointment for three (3) full annual conference years, following completion of their educational requirements. Those commissioned will be appointed to their appropriate ministries during the probationary period as well as required to participate in the RIOM process of Phases A,B,C and D.

The number of years a probationary member spends in either Phases I,II,III and IV or Phases A,B,C and D becomes CRUCIAL when a probationary member seeking full connection fails satisfactorily to complete the requirements of The Book of Discipline and the Board of Ordained Ministry. {Eight (8) year time-line for persons entering probationary membership under The 1992 Book of Discipline or six (6) year time-line for persons entering under The 1996 Book of Discipline}.

During the probationary period, a probationer under The 1992 Book of Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Elder's Orders within two (2) years by accepting a full time appointment and participating in Phases I and II of the RIOM process.

During the probationary period, a probationer under The 1996 Book of Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Deacon/or Elder in Full Connection within three (3) years by accepting a full time appointment and participating in Phases A,B and C of the RIOM process.

During the RIOM process, certain probationary members may be required by the Board of Ordained Ministry to spend an additional year or more in Phases III and IV (under The 1992 Discipline) OR Phase D (under The 1996 Discipline). Continuance in Phases III and IV or Phase D does not mean that the probationer has failed or that he/she does not have the gifts and grace for Ordained Ministry. It is better understood as an opportunity for the probationer to improve in some unfinished requirements recommended by the Board. The purpose of the RIOM committee is to surround each probationary member with others in one of the phase groups. These phase groups are invited to face with their cluster leaders, (Elders who are not members of the Board), the possibilities and challenges of ordained ministry and his/her growth in that ministry for which he/she has been called.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Committee is committed to helping candidates for Ordained Ministry in every way possible.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 1999 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $41,591.
- C. The current rate is $367 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1999 be increased to $385 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $27,902.829.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
- E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 1999 required by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is $2,422,332 (Due Date December 31, 1999). The amount needed in the 2000 budget to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $1,900,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 2000 budget request is $1,263,000.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g.	$30,000.00
Add 25% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	7,500.00
Plan Compensation will be	$37,500.00

1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be items of local expense.
2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)

- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Study (Third Year Study, 1990 - 1993)
 - 1. Interest assumption decreased from 9% to 8%.
 - 2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.
 - 3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).

III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
 - 1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 30% of the DAC upon retirement at any age. (The DAC for 1998 is $38,298.00 and for 1999 is $39,337.00.)
 - 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on Disability Leave.
 - 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 - 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of DAC). (Effective January 1, 1990)

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of the DAC)
 STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility
- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.

- C. It is recommended that the pastor make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.
- V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance
- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.
1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
 2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
 3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.
 4. Health care insurance is furnished for the dependent children of all deceased clergy who were active or retired full members of the NC Annual Conference at the time of death. This coverage continues until the age of 26 provided that the child is a full-time student and unmarried.
Disabled dependent children are continued on the Conference's health insurance program.
This coverage is funded through the Board of Pensions.
- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)
1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
 2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers

(The following Item V. was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference to be placed in effect at the conclusion of the Session of the Annual Conference, Year 2000:)

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.
 - 1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
 - 2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains Medicare eligibility or the dissolution of the marriage.
 - 3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.

B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 2000 Session of the Annual Conference.)

- 1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have the following hospital and life insurance benefits paid by the Conference Board of Pensions:
 - a. Before the retired pastor and/or spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility (currently 65 years of age), the retired pastor will pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year in which he/she retires. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the difference between the minister's payment and the costs of his/her health insurance. The retired pastor must continue to pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year of retirement until both the retired pastor and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility. Billings will be made monthly from the Treasurer's Office.
 - b. If a pastor, who prior to retirement, has been covered as a single individual for the purposes of health insurance, wishes at the time of retirement to add family members to his/her health care plan, he/she must pay the premium applicable to that type of coverage for the year in which he/she retired. The retired pastor must continue to pay that amount of premium until both the retired pastor and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility.
 - c. Upon a pastor's or retired pastor's spouse reaching the age of Medicare eligibility, the Conference Board of Pensions will pay for the retired pastor/pastor's spouse's Medicare Supplement.
- 2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference is responsible for the individual health insurance premium payments as described in #1 above. When he/she attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, the Conference Board of Pensions will pay a share of the remaining health insurance premium costs by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only)

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1998 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Please Note: There is no place on your 1040 Tax Form to list this Housing Exclusion. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has provided a sample statement to be used:

"I received $X,XXX from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and #X,XXX from the Duke Endowment, as reported on the 2 attached 1099-R forms. I did not include that amount on Line 16b because it has been excluded under the provisions of IRC Section 107 as a housing allowance exclusion. As a retired United Methodist clergy person, I am entitled to take this housing allowance exclusion."

Attach this note to your 1099-R forms.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

(See New Sections under VIII.B(1)(e), XIIA, XII.B(3) that are Written in Italics)

I. The Principles of the Fund - The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

II. The Conference Treasurer - The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

III. Eligibility for Membership - Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

A. Conference Contributions - Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items, and this amount shall become part of the Fund.

B. Minister Contributions - Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.)

C. Council on Finance and Administration Contributions - The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment into the Fund an amount equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff.

D. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions - District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

E. All Other Ministers - All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference Average Salary, whichever is greater.

V. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment - The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

VI. Base Benefits - Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00

If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

VII. Allocation of Dividends After Ten Years of Membership - After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to the members account.

Any funds, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

VIII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General - The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the lesser of the member's Exclusion Allowance as determined in subsection B of this Article VIII or the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection C of this Article VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limits on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code sections 403(b)(2) and 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with those Code sections.

B. Maximum Exclusion Allowance Pursuant to Code Section 403(b)(2) - The member's Exclusion Allowance shall, for any calendar year of the member, be an amount determined under whichever of the following rules (1), (2) or (3) are applicable:

(1) General Rule: Unless paragraph (2) or (3) of this Article VIII.B applies, the member's Exclusion Allowance for the calendar year shall be equal to the excess, if any, of:

(a) The amount determined by multiplying 20% of such member's includible compensation, within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3), for the most recent 12 months of service ending on the last day of the calendar year by the participants period of service as of the close of such calendar year; over

(b) The aggregate of the amounts which have been contributed by the member's employer, including allocations of base benefits or dividends to a member's accounts pursuant to Articles VI and VII hereof, to Qualifying Retirement Plans for such member, to the extent such contributions were excludable from the gross income of the member for all calendar years ending prior to the calendar year for which the Exclusion Allowance is being determined.

(c) "Qualifying Retirement Plan" as used in this Article VIII shall mean and include:

(i) Any Code section 403(b) plan, but only to the extent that contributions to such plan with respect to the member are vested at the close of the calendar year ending prior to the calendar year for which the Exclusion Allowance is being determined; and

(ii) Any pension plan qualified under Code section 401(a) or 403(a) whether or not contributions with respect to the member are vested.

(d) A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (1) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service which is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.

(e) A member's "includible compensation" for purposes of paragraph (1), above, shall mean the amount of compensation received from an employer within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3) and 414(e) which is includible in gross income, computed without regard to Code section 911 for the most recent period ending not later than the close of the taxable year which is counted as a one year period of service under Section VIII.B(1)(d). Such term shall not include utilities to the extent such amounts are not includible in compensation pursuant to Code section 107.

(2) Election to Have Exclusion Allowance Determined Under Code Section 415.

If a member elects to have his or her Exclusion Allowance determined under the election provided in Code section 415(c)(4)(C), his or her Exclusion Allowance shall be the amount determined under subsection C, and for this purpose, contributions to any other defined contribution plan required to be aggregated with this plan under Code section 415(e)(5) shall be treated as contributions to this plan.

(3) Minimum Contribution Ceiling. The minimum Exclusion Allowance that shall be applicable to any member to a calendar year shall be the lesser of:

(a) Three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) or

(b) The excess of, (i) the amount of includible compensation, within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3), received by the member for the calendar year, over (ii) any amount contributed to this Fund. In the case of a member performing services outside the United States, the amount described in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be zero.

If this paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B applies, the limitations of Article VIII.C shall be treated as being not less than the limitation determined under this paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B. This paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B shall not apply to a member for any calendar year in which the members adjusted gross income (determined separately and without regard to any community property laws) exceeds seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000).

C. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415 - A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:

(1) 25% of the member's compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3) in such calendar year, or

(2) $30,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, in the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer (a "Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute annual additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.C to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(4) or Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

D. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions - Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

IX. Death Benefits - When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.

X. Designation of Beneficiary - Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds - Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 1996, ¶¶355.1, 355.2a, 355.2b, 355.2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

XII. Payment of Benefits

A. In General - At retirement or early termination from the Fund members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

(1) Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions.

(2) Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited.

(a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the balance in the member's account including accrued dividends and interest and is subject to income tax.

(b) Six payment option. The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining principal balance and will be subject to income tax. This six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Fund, all payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and regulations thereunder, including but not limited to the incidental death benefit requirements of Code section 401(a)(9)(G) and Proposed Treas. Reg. section 1.401(a)(9)-2.

Under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the minister's retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The second payment will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the four quarters ending prior to the date on which the minister terminates or retires. Any remaining payments will draw simple interest annually at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the January payment.

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the member terminates or retires.

B. Direct Rollovers

(1) This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(2) Definitions:

(a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).

(b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, or an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code) that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse, an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.

(c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.

(d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

(3) Within a reasonable time before making an eligible rollover distribution from the Fund, the Conference Treasurer shall provide or cause to be provided the written explanation to the distributee required by Code section 402(f).

XIII. Disability Leave - A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:

A. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.

B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.

C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.

D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.

XIV. Leave of Absence - A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:

A. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation while on leave.

B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI.

Conference Average Compensation means the Conference Average Compensation as determined annually by the General Board of Pensions.

XV. Less Than Full Time Service - A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:

A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.

B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.

XVI. Membership Transferring - Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement - If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.

XVIII. Reinstatement - A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.

XIX. Hearing Committee

A. The Committee - A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

B. Claims Procedure - If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:

(1) The specific reason or reasons for denial;

(2) Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;

(3) A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and

(4) An explanation of the plans claim procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions - The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous Provisions

A. Prohibition Against Diversion - Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.

B. C. Notification of Mailing Address - Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member of beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.

D. Unclaimed Benefits - If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the members beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.

Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.

F. Commingling of Assets - The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.

G. Governing Law - This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. If any provisions of the plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.

H. Limitations on Liability - The Conference, Conference Treasurer, Board of Pensions and members of the Hearing Committee shall not be liable to any person or entity for any of their acts carried out hereunder in good faith and based upon the information available at the time.

PERU COVENANT, TASK FORCE ON

The mission covenant between our NC Conference and the Iglesia Metodista del Peru has completed its seventh year. Initiated by a first visit of NC clergy and laity in 1991, this covenant of mutuality has been reaffirmed ever since 1992. It is a covenant in which both churches recognize the benefits of being in relationship with one another through correspondence, visits, prayer, and study. Such walking together, in the spirit of a kind of Wesleyan global "class meeting," helps us to understand challenges of faith and ministry which we hold in common, despite our different contexts; and, fosters accountability in our Christian discipleship as we encounter the struggles of each other's faith and ministry across contexts of very different cultures and economic realities. Clergy and laity in our respective conferences have frequently commented on how this relationship has led to growth in intellectual awareness and in spiritual maturity.

Since the past year several teams from NC have visited Peru churches in various areas around the country. Our bishop, Marion Edwards, visited numerous churches and mission projects around Peru in the summer of 1997; and, in addition, Hope Morgan Ward and Bruce Stanley of our Conference staff visited with teams in the summer of 1997 as well. We were privileged to have the bishop of the Peru church, Figeroua, to visit our 1997 Annual Conference, as well as a youth from our Methodist church in Callao, Peru, to visit several of our NC Conference churches during January 1998. Again, this year, we have had two seminary students from our Methodist seminary in Peru attending the Duke Divinity School during the Spring 1998 semester. We are grateful to Duke for the continued relationship they have desired with the Comunidad Biblica Teologica.

The Iglesia Metodista del Peru continues to struggle with issues of disunity and reorganization, many of these issues caused by geographical separation and the scarcity of economic resources. At Present, the seminary is in a process of reorganization, in part necessitated by meager financial support. We are concerned about this and are seeking ways to be in greater support. The presence of the Mission Society of Peru also brings tensions of allegiance in a church which is often eager to receive resources from wherever they are offered. While recognizing our own issues of disunity in the North American UMC, we seek to find answers and offer support for each other in the midst of our own respective challenges.

This year a team of our Conference youth is scheduled to make a visit to Peru, as well as several adult teams throughout the year. At this Annual Conference we are happy to welcome several visitors from the Methodist Church in Peru, who will be remaining for a few days after Annual Conference to be in dialogue about the history, present status, and possible future of our covenant relationship. Especially popular in this mission relationship, among our NC churches, has been the financial support of the Breakfast of Love; a program of numerous Methodist churches in Peru who provide oatmeal to children, for whom for some is their main meal of the day. This mission program is an Advance Special.

Again, this year, at our 1998 Annual Conference, we propose that our covenant relationship be reaffirmed. The covenant statement, as it was originally written in 1992, reads as follows:

We, the members of the NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, in session June 1998, hereby affirm our covenant in Christ with our sisters and brothers of the Iglesia Metodista del Peru. As an expression of that covenant bond, we will call upon the cabinet and agencies of this Annual Conference to encourage and lead the Annual Conference, districts, and local congregations to enter into a covenant relationship with the Iglesia Metodista del Peru, for prayer and other forms of mutual support, engagements, and communication as determined by and agreed upon by the communities of faith entering into such a covenant of mutuality.

SPECIAL CONFERENCE FUNDS, COMMITTEE ON

Named by Bishop Edwards in August 1997, our Committee has met many times. We have three responsibilities to the Annual Conference:

- To monitor and report regularly to the Conference on the amount of our unfunded pension liability;
- To secure and direct the services of a part-time Director of Current Giving whose work will be to solicit funding beyond what our apportionments supply for the paying of our pension responsibilities;
- To educate the Conference about the nature of our pension responsibilities, how our current plan to pay for pensions is working, and to seek to find alternative funding options.

We have sought to communicate our findings relative to these responsibilities with the Annual Conference's lay and clergy leadership with mailings and announcements in Conference publications.

Our current plan to retire our pension debt is working, although we are aware of the heavy demand it puts on our Conference budget. Our pension liability is approximately $27,762,104 as of January 1, 1998 using the 1998 per service year rate of $367 as the base. Our liability has grown at a lower than anticipated rate due to higher than projected earnings, as well as, changes in the per service year rate actually used versus the rate projected. Local churches have spearheaded this excellent progress with their renewed emphasis on supporting our apportionments which allows the Conference to more readily subscribe the budgeted pension amounts without neglecting other ministries. That renewed effort, along with CF&A's work to insure that we have the resources to fund our annual payment to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, leaves us in a stronger position than had been predicted years ago. We will have to continue this work in the future and continue to examine other options both to fund our liability and to manage the debt.

I am delighted to report that Patricia McNeil is our Director of Current Giving. Having come to us in April, 1998, Pat's skills as a fund raiser and organizer will be much valued by us as she helps us move toward funding our unfunded pension liability.

The Committee asks that the Annual Conference approve the following plan to educate ourselves and our Conference about the retirees who live and serve around us, as well as, about our responsibilities to them.

Each local church/charge will designate a Sunday in September, October, or November of each year to be known as "Retired Pastors' Day." (Homecoming would be a prime opportunity for such an event.) Retired clergy are to be invited to preach and/or be recognized. The Conference's ministries to and for retired clergy and their families would be explained to the congregation that day.

The Committee will make available sample bulletin inserts that could be used that day to promote an understanding of our pension program.

I thank the Committee for its faithful work.

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Annual Conference Trustees are charged with responsibility for managing property of the NC Conference and making recommendations regarding the care and disposition of this property. Through its committees, the Board of Trustees provides maintenance, insurance and recommends disposition and use of the properties. In addition to the United Methodist Building, the Board manages five staff parsonages, the Episcopal residence and more than 15 church sites.

No closed or abandoned church property has been received by the Trustees in the past year. The Board has been engaged in an inventory of the buildings and property in its care. In many cases we are able to rent buildings no longer being used to other worthwhile ministries.

Last year, the Annual Conference authorized the sale of the house at 1924 Hillock Drive. I am pleased to report that we were able to sell this house for its full asking price in the spring of 1998. The funds are now invested with the United Methodist Foundation for future usage.

In the spring of 1997, a request was presented to the Trustees from the United Methodist Home for Children to return the land which joins the United Methodist Building property on the north side, a tract of some one and one-half acres. This land was conveyed by the Trustees of the Children's Home in 1985 when the Conference was considering expansion of the present building. The plans for building expansion were never acted on by the Conference. The United Methodist Home for Children hopes to utilize this property for a model day care program that would provide a teaching setting and also focus on low-income families.

After thorough investigation of the impact of returning the property and also the usage proposed by the Children's Home, the Conference Board of Trustees now recommends the transfer of this land back to the United Methodist Home for Children.

The Long-Range Planning Committee of the Board of Trustees has been examining the larger picture of how the Conference utilizes its real estate. A report follows on the United Methodist Building.

The Board of Trustees is appreciative of those who labor in the execution of our work. In particular, we express gratitude to Dr. Allen Norris and his staff who serve on the Board's behalf.

1998 REPORT ON THE UNITED METHODIST BUILDING by the NC Conference Board of Trustees

An important role of the Board of Trustees is maintaining a suitable site for the administration of Annual Conference program. The wisdom and vision of church leaders nearly 40 years ago resulted in a United Methodist Building which has served us well.

The Long-Range Planning Committee of the Trustees has responded to questions of whether another site and a different building would better serve the needs of the Conference. We have had inquiries from developers in the Raleigh area who see the potential of our property for other usage. The Board has a unique role in investigating options and making recommendations to the Annual Conference. The consensus of the Board is that the questions that have been raised about the suitability of the present headquarters for administration merit discussion.

Several positive factors are worth noting:

- * After lengthy investigation, the Conference concluded several years back that a location in the Raleigh area is the most appropriate site for the Conference headquarters. The Long-Range Planning Committee of the Board of Trustees has studied this and concurs with that decision. The bishop's office for the Raleigh area of The United Methodist Church is located there. It is the major city in the Conference and the seat of government for the state of NC.

- * The proximity to the United Methodist Home for Children has been beneficial to both entities.

- * The rental of over half the floor space in the United Methodist Building has provided a great portion of the funds for maintenance and necessary repairs. The building is debt free.

- * The United Methodist Building and the property make it a valuable asset that would be significant in any negotiations for re-locating the Conference headquarters.

In addition, there are concerns to be raised:

- * The present building was constructed nearly 40 years ago. The Trustees have had to make large investments to upgrade heating and air conditioning, general repairs, and improvements to keep the facility usable. Seven years ago, the heating and air conditioning had to be replaced at a cost of over $300,000. This year we had to replace an air conditioning compressor and cooling tower at a cost of approximately $50,000. It is clear that the roof will need to be replaced soon. Rental income no longer covers the full cost of repairs and maintenance.

- * The present building has limitations for the usage we make of it. A small conference room, office configurations and narrow hallways restrict its function and efficiency.

- * Security has become an issue.

These are some of the factors that the Conference Trustees bring to your attention. We continue to examine all options that are presented to us. One possible option might be to develop a tract in northern Raleigh in a joint venture with a local church congregation to be developed. One such site, the Wakefield property bequeathed by Mr. Olaf Wakefield, a member of St. Mark's UMC, is within 2,000 feet of a proposed interchange of the new I-540 Beltline in north Raleigh. This tract includes approximately 16 acres, and in addition, there are invested funds given by Mr. Wakefield for the establishment of a new church. The Trustees have explored a co-venture with Congregational Development on this site or on a site in the near vicinity.

There would be many advantages in such re-location. The most obvious is construction of a building that would better suit the needs of the Annual Conference today. A new building would be designed for optimum mechanical efficiency utilizing modern technology. This could result in lower utility costs. It would also obviate growing costs in maintenance and repair. Such a location could be more accessible to those traveling from other parts of the Conference.

Because this is a matter of such magnitude with implications for the entire Conference, the Conference Board of Trustees requests that Bishop Edwards appoint a study committee to investigate the advisability of re-locating the Conference headquarters. This committee would look at the implications such a move would have on administration of program and ministry, future initiatives and budgetary considerations and report back by the 1999 Annual Conference.

Meanwhile, we welcome your observations, comments, and recommendations as we seek to be good stewards of the property of the Annual Conference. We also solicit your prayers as we go about the work entrusted to us.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION AGAINST PARTIAL-BIRTH ABORTION

WHEREAS, the baptismal vows of The United Methodist Church include: renunciation of "the spiritual forces of wickedness," rejection of "the evil powers of this world," and acceptance of "the freedom and power God gives [us] to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves" (Baptismal Covenants I, II, IV from The United Methodist Hymnal);

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church's resistance to evil, injustice, and oppression, in the power of the Holy Spirit, not only begins in the Church's life but also extends to the general society, after all, John Wesley declared that Methodism's purpose was "to reform the nation, particularly the Church, and to spread scriptural holiness over the land" (1996 Book of Discipline, ¶60, p. 43);

AND WHEREAS, partial-birth abortion (or intact-dilation-and-extraction abortion), a late-term procedure, involves "delivering the fetus part way, vacuuming out its brains and then removing the rest of the body from the birth canal" (New York Times. 3/3/97); hence, partial-birth abortion—because of its morally problematic, even repugnant, nature—is opposed even by large majorities of the American people, the United States House of Representatives, and the United States Senate;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, in response to the Church's baptismal vows, hereby:

- (1) understands partial-birth abortion, except when only this abortion procedure will save the mother's life, to be a matter of grave concern;
- (2) encourages congregations to assist women tempted by partial-birth abortion with the gifts of Christian hospitality and to support local crisis pregnancy centers;
- (3) requests that the Conference Secretary write to The Reverend Thom White Wolf Fassett, General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society, to counsel him to remain silent (in spoken and written word) regarding judicial, legislative, and political matters related to partial-birth abortion; and that the Conference Secretary sends copies of the letter to Rev. Fassett to all Directors of the General Board of Church and Society; and
- (4) asks that a copy of this resolution be sent, from the Conference Secretary, to all North Carolina state representatives and senators, and to all United States representatives and senators from North Carolina.

REPORTS

BISHOPS' INITIATIVE ON CHILDREN AND POVERTY, TASK FORCE ON

We have been meeting for over a year and have begun to glean from our efforts in this ministry. This is an on-going ministry that can effect every board and agency of this Conference.

A Pilot Hearing of resources and ideas was held at Clark Street UMC in Rocky Mount that brought together all 12 districts. We heard stories of changed lives as well as stories of those who still need help. State, local, and conference materials and resources were shared. Each of the 12 districts were commissioned to hold their own District Hearing to highlight their specific needs and resources to meet those needs. Many districts held hearings in the Spring while others are holding hearings in the Fall.

A resource page has been started entitled: "Our Response: The North Carolina Conference Response to the Bishops' Initiative," which is featured in the monthly publication of Connectings.

We have received a $10,000 planning grant from the Duke Endowment to develop a vision and a specific plan of action for children and poverty. We have hired "The Institute" at Mars Hill College to be consultant as a coalition is formed of the NC Conference, WNC Conference, Methodist Home for Children, Communities in Schools, and other denominations. This is a great step for our ministry.

In accordance with the Bishops' Initiative vision, the Commission of Education is developing and sponsoring a Fall workshop entitled: "Creating Caring Communities: Churches Responding Faithfully to Welfare Reform." We are working with the JUBILEE office of the NC Council of Churches to make this a theological and practical response to the issue of welfare reform. This workshop will be held in four different locations within the boundaries of our Conference and will also be an inter-faith collaboration.

Many more commissions, boards, and agencies continue to move forward with this vision. We are excited about our involvement and commitment and are trying to think outside of the box so that we can be in effective ministry with children and the impoverished. Many thanks to all of you who work so diligently in response to God's call to this ministry.

At Annual Conference, every church will be invited to become "A Church for All God's Children." Churches returning completed checklists by April 15, 1999, will be recognized and celebrated at the 1999 Annual Conference.

Paula and Tom Dille, Chairpersons

1997 COMPENSATION OF CLERGY IN EXTENSION MINISTRIES

The 1996 Discipline, ¶625, states: "Every clergy member of the Annual Conference appointed beyond the local church shall furnish annually to the conference secretary, at such time as the secretary shall direct, a statement of his/her total compensation (including base compensation, travel, automobile, housing, and other expenses allowed and paid) for the year then ending, and said compensation of all clergy appointed beyond the local church shall be published in the journal of the Annual Conference. When this information is not furnished, the appointment of the clergyperson shall be subject to review by the resident bishop and the Cabinet."

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES REPORTS

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

The spring meeting of the Commission was held on Saturday, April 19, 1997 at the Soapstone UMC in Raleigh. We joined with the NC Conference Historical Society for the morning session. President Denny Wise gave the devotion reading from Asbury's journal about his last trip through NC when he passed very near the site of the Soapstone Church. The program presented by Sally Cable and Marie Chatham was informative and delightful. Mrs. Vivian P. Mitchell, as interim editor of Saddlebags, shared these insights: "Founded in 1837 on a camp meeting site, the church served the 'Soapstone Community' for over a century. Declining membership resulted in closing the church in the 1940s, but it was reopened in 1951 and served by Duke students. By 1980 that section of Wake County experienced a growth spurt. In order to serve the people better, the NC Conference designated Soapstone as a new church development site and relocated the church to the intersection of Norwood and Old Creedmoor Roads. In 1986, a full time pastor, Hope Morgan Ward, was appointed." The UMY served lunch to our group to raise funds for their mission trip. We appreciate Mrs. Mitchell serving as interim editor for the spring issue.

Mrs. Ann Veazey Davis of Zebulon was elected editor of Saddlebags effective with the fall 1997 issue, following the resignation of Reverend Franklin C. Grill. Her address is POBox 353, Zebulon, NC 27597-0353. Mrs. Davis would be glad to have items of interest sent to her for our newsletter. Membership dues for the Society are: Students, $3; Regular, $7; Patrons, $10; Contributing, $25; and Life Member, one-time payment of $100. Send your check to John C. Mitchell, Sec.-Treas., 622 Wimbleton Dr., Raleigh, NC 27609. Membership includes the newsletter, Saddlebags, published bi-annually.

The fall meeting was on October 31, 1997 at the Holiday Inn in Lumberton. We completed the business session and shared in a training session reviewing the Guidelines for Managing Records of the Local Church and the Annual Conference, the Manual for Annual Conference Commissions on Archives and History 1997-2000, and the Guidelines - Caring for your Church's Heritage, Church Historian 1997-2000. We viewed the video "Ministry and Memory" produced by the General Commission, which may be ordered by calling 1-800-251-4091. We concluded our meeting the next morning and traveled to Pembroke First UMC in Pembroke to attend the NC Conference Historical Society meeting. President Denny Wise gave the devotion and we elected the next president of the Society, the Reverend James W. Caviness, Jr. The history of the church was presented by the Reverend Ray Brooks, Dollie Lowry, Carrie M. Dial, and Ruby B. Locklear. The Reverend D. F. Lowry founded the church in 1918. We are thankful to share in the celebration of God's grace that enabled the establishment of this place of worship.

To help those who are interested in and who enjoy the Internet, our website is <http://nccumc.org/ministry/ncchs/ncchs.htm>. We rejoice with NC Methodists in the ministry of historical preservation and for the privilege of supporting and encouraging them in sharing our heritage.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Christian Unity seeks to give witness to the unity in Christ which is a gift of the Holy Spirit to all Christians. This year our priorities have continued in several areas: 1) continuing dialogue with other denominational bodies, 2) exploring new areas for discussions of Christian Unity and 3) recognizing significant ecumenical endeavors on the local level.

We have continued our semi-annual meetings with the Roman Catholic Commission on Christian Unity with a joint meeting, including Taizé worship, in the fall of 1997. In the spring of 1998 we met together with Bishops Edwards and Gossman, who presented recent pastoral documents related to children and the impoverished. Last year members of this commission were our guests at our Annual Conference Ordination Service; they will also be invited guests again this year. Our Commission members were invited guests at the Chrism Mass again this year, which is held the Tuesday of Holy Week and where representatives of each Catholic parish come to receive holy oil, or chrism, for the parish's use in the coming year.

Several Commission members also serve on the statewide Episcopal-United Methodist Dialogue, which is the only statewide event of its kind. Episcopalian members of this dialogue group will also be our invited guests for ordination this year. Commission members also have participated in the North Carolina Council of Churches House of Delegates, a COCU presentation by Rev. Daniel Hanby, executive director of COCU, and the National Workshop on Christian Unity. We continue to explore possibilities for a Pan-Methodist dialogue with episcopal leadership from AME, AMEZ, CME, and UMC denominations.

Another aspect of Christian unity that we are beginning to explore is the presence of diversity and unity within our own house. The General Commission sponsored recent dialogues on reducing polarity within The UMC, and our Commission is hopeful to further this discussion within our own conference as we explore the extent to which Christian unity demands or precludes theological diversity.

This year we recognized the West Sampson Christian Outreach with our annual Award for Christian Unity. The award is accompanied by a $500 grant to encourage local efforts in ecumenical witness, and West Sampson Christian Outreach is particularly noted for its efforts in racial and denominational inclusiveness, including purchasing Spanish language Bibles, Community Vacation Bible school, and community Holy Week worship with a children's choir. We also thank all those who nominated local ecumenical efforts.

The Commission is particularly thankful for the vision and witness provided by Bishop Edwards in his leadership and presence at the National Dialogues on Diversity within The UMC, by Rev. Belton Joyner, who leads the United Methodist-Episcopal dialogue and who chaired the NC Council of Churches Christian Unity Committee for the past eight years, and by the Rev. Jimmy Cummings, Council Staff representative.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, COMMISSION ON

This year the Conference Commission on Church and Society is struggling with poverty in the midst of our Conference. With some of the poorest counties in our state located in our Conference, we seek to do ministry with the poor following the example of Christ and John Wesley. Just recently we held a workshop titled "Welfare Reform: The Local Congregation's Response." This workshop was held in response that many people on public assistance will be reaching their limit on assistance, and we sought how local churches can be resources for those people to move towards economic independence, and how churches can move from offering charity towards advocating justice.

We continue to be part of other justice ministries, including racial justice and healing. We applaud Reconciliation UMC in Durham for crossing over class, ethnic, and racial lines to form a new congregation. And we applaud and pray for the North Carolina Council of Churches in its fight against institutional racism. We continue to provide start-up grants for Habitat for Humanity, and support environmental justice through our support of the Land Stewardship Council. And we continue to seek those who dare to be prophetic in our midst through the Jack and Kay Crum Award for Prophetic Ministry.

We hope that in this time of changes in our connection that the United Methodist tradition of a strong social witness is not forgotten. In Christ's name we respectfully submit our report. Grace and peace.

COMMUNICATIONS, COMMISSION ON

The Scriptures call all Christians to spread the Gospel message. Your Communications Commission is at work each day helping you fulfill your calling. There are three people at the United Methodist Building to help. Bill Norton is the Associate Director of Communication and coordinates the work of the commission. LeeAnne Thornton is Administrative Assistant to Bill and Laura Bailey is the Media Center Director.

These people help communicate conference ministry. News releases, photos, stories and articles about conference, state and world events are issued from this office. Each month Connectings is sent to each pastor and certain local church leaders. With this monthly coordinated mailing church leaders receive fliers, brochures, registration forms and other current materials for church life and work.

Each year the commission publishes and distributes 45000 copies of the Mission and Service Commitments budget paper. This piece is used to interpret the work and mission of our Annual Conference and the general church. With the budget details outlined in this paper local church leaders are able to interpret the common connection and ministry we all have as United Methodists. The commission also produced an interpreting video featuring Bishop Marion Edwards discussing selected conference ministries. This eight minute video was provided to each pastor for use in local churches.

Laura Bailey is the Media Center Director. The Media Center houses an extensive collection of over 1000 Christian audio visual aids and lesson materials. There are over 200 local churches members of the Media Center. They may borrow from this library for a cost of return postage. Is your church a member? Call 1.800.849.4433 and ask for Laura Bailey. She will assist you in planning your church calendar.

Each year, more and more people learn to use the World Wide Web. Well, www.nccumc.org is your web site. Log on to get information about conference ministries, up to date appointment information, news releases and photos, a message from the Bishop and links to other church related web sites. The commission and the Office of Information Systems installed a new, powerful Email server this year. With this new computer we will provide Email addresses to pastors and other leaders in the conference. Local churches can have their own home pages on this site. Bill Norton is Web Administrator and Robbie Pollock is our new Web Master. Take time to log on to nccumc.org.

If you have any questions or comments to help us better serve you, give us a call.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Congregational Development continues to embrace the scope of work placed before us by the Annual Conference. The Into the 21st Century Report affirmed the need to start a number of new congregations each year to equal 1% of the total charges in the Conference. That translates to the challenging goal of six new congregations per year!

In 1997, five new congregations were started. They are: All God's Children UMC in Aulander; Reconciliation UMC in Durham; New Life UMC in Cary; Christ Community UMC in Clayton, and Durham Urban Hispanic UMC in Durham. All five churches are guided by committed pastors who are seeing the Holy Spirit bless their ministries in extraordinary ways!

The work of Congregational Development is divided into three major categories: I. New Church, II. Redevelopment, and III. Churches of Small Membership.

I. New Church

A. Leadership - The first priority in successfully starting a new congregation is the appointment of a pastor who possesses the skills, experiences, and call that are needed for this unique and demanding ministry.

1. A search has been undertaken to discover pastors who would wish to be considered for such an appointment. A number of pastors are currently enrolled in a new church leadership identification group.
2. Several pastors from our Conference attended the Duke National Institute for New Church Development in the summer of 1997, and will continue through the second phase of the Institute in the fall of 1998. The idea is to develop a cadre of pastors who are willing and trained, from which appointments to new congregational development could be made.

B. Location - A number of communities and locales across the Conference are being identified as likely sites for new churches.

1. The Percept Program continues to provide demographic profiles of the locales around the Conference that show sufficient numbers of under-served, unchurched people that would require a new church mission.
2. Five locations were recommended to the Bishop and Cabinet as offering excellent opportunities to reach unchurched persons for Christ in 1998. Extensive study has illustrated the viability of these locations. A number of other locations in the Conference are on a priority list and studies are being carried out in these areas.

C. Funding

1. The Emerging Church Salary Support Fund is currently providing partial compensation for the pastors of new congregations.
2. Ten Dollar Club members were again invited to purchase multiple shares at $10 each.

3. The Commission on Congregational Development is proposing the establishment of the John Wesley Endowment for New Church Development in Low Income Communities. The purpose is to provide start-up, promotional, and sustaining funds for new churches established in low income communities within the bounds of the NC Conference. The goal of the Endowment is to raise the equivalent of $5 per church member, for a total of approximately $1,100,000 by the 2000 Annual Conference session.

II. Redevelopment

- A. On average, about 100 churches are assisted each year by the Office of Congregational Development with workshops, consultations, and small grants.
- B. In 1997 - 1998, eight urban Wilmington churches are engaged in a pilot "Re-Visioning" project aimed at clarifying their future roles and missions in the community.

III. Churches of Small Membership

- A. The Office of Congregational Development assists small membership churches and cooperative parish ministries each year.
- B. Three additional members have been added to the Commission who have experience and expertise in the area of assisting Churches of Small Membership. They are: Reverend Jeff Arthurs; Dr. William Lawrence; Ms. Julie Hilton Steele.

In March of 1997, the Commission at its regularly scheduled meeting discussed and affirmed the concept of realigning the Office of Congregational Development from the Conference Council on Ministries, to relate directly to the Bishop and Cabinet. We support the CCOM in its proposal of the same. It is believed that this change will be beneficial to the Bishop and Cabinet in their work of establishing new congregations and assisting those with redevelopment needs as stated in The Book of Discipline, ¶ 263.

The work of the Commission on Congregational Development is to support communities of faith across our Conference whose core commitment is to welcome new persons into the Church of Jesus Christ and equip them to become mature disciples. We are grateful to participate in this sacred ministry.

To advance the work of Congregational development, the following recommendations for Conference Policy are made:

1. The minimum number of full members required for the initiation of a Constituting Conference (¶ 263) and organization of a local UM church in The NC Conference shall be one hundred and one (101) persons.
2. When a first site for a new church is proposed to be purchased, a report of concurrence or nonconcurrence is to be presented prior to its approval to the District Board of Church Location and Building for the district in which the site is located from the Site Selection Committee of the Commission on Congregational Development. The Site Selection Committee shall consist of the director of the Office of Congregational Development and two members of the Commission on Congregational Development appointed by the chairperson of the Commission. The report of the committee is to be advisory and non-binding upon the District Board of Church Location and Building.
3. Each district of The NC Conference is encouraged to have a Board of Church Extension whose purpose shall be to provide partial or full funding for the purchase of land and/or facilities for emerging or prospective new churches within the district. If incorporated, the Board may purchase sites and/or facilities for new church development and may obtain loans for that purpose, in keeping with all provisions and requirements of The Book of Discipline of The UMC fulfilled. If incorporated, the Board may accept gifts of land and buildings. Sites and facilities purchased or donated for the purpose of establishing a meeting place for a new church shall be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building in which the site is located which shall first receive an advisory report of concurrence or nonconcurrence from the Site Selection Committee of the Commission on Congregational Development.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

First, a new title for our previously named "Prison Ministry and Prison Reform Committee." The 1997 General Conference continued its emphasis and support for this area of ministry. With that came a recommendation that all Annual Conferences use "Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries" as the title for this ministry, thus the new name.

Our committee has sought this year to continue to fulfill and help our Annual Conference more faithfully respond to the challenging arena of criminal justice. Spurred on by a serious reading of The New Testament and an awareness of the precedent set by John and Charles Wesley at Newgate Prison, we have continued our efforts.

As in years past, we have used a part of our limited financial resources to offer support and encouragement to a number of Criminal Justice ministries within our Annual Conference. These include Yokefellow Prison Ministry of NC, Kairos Prison Ministry of NC, MATCH, the Angel Tree Project of Prison Fellowship as well as a grant to support jail ministry. Through these grants, we have sought to strengthen "hands-on" ministry to those incarcerated in our local prisons and jails.

Conscious of the fact that the Bible contains the spiritual resources so many people in prison need to experience a change in attitude and actions, your CJAMM Committee, within the year, has taken steps to encourage the offering of Disciple Bible Study within our prisons. A one-day workshop, held within the year, sought to lay the foundation for the offering of these widely acclaimed studies for those behind bars and fences.

Finally, in an effort to move closer to our various congregations and the potential for ministry offered by prisons and jails in our various districts, we are challenging each district to develop a CJAMM committee to help explore, develop, encourage, and resource prison and jail ministries within their districts. Assistance for districts and local congregations can be obtained by calling The Methodist Building and asking the assistance of Ms. Linda Harris or Dr. Jimmy Cummings.

Through it all your CJAMM Committee seeks to be faithful to the challenge of the writer of Hebrews, who bids us to "remember those in prison as though in prison with them."

DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

Picking up the pieces and rebuilding people's lives has been the main goal of the Disaster Response Committee this year. It has been a challenging year as we worked to clean up and rebuild the homes from Hurricanes Bertha and Fran. Volunteer Work teams of youth and adults came from across our nation to help us rebuild. In January, we closed down our last Disaster office in the Wilmington area. We know that the work is not completed, but there are others who will come and help.

This has been a year for rebuilding our Disaster Committee. In June, there was a major turn over of the committee members and much of the year was spent on training new committee members in Disaster Preparedness and Response. Training sessions were held in Kenansville and Farmville. The committee presented to the Bishop and Cabinet a newly designed Disaster Plan for our Conference. The Committee is setting up training events for the new Disaster Coordinators in local churches.

Part of the new plan called for District Disaster Teams to prepare districts for disasters and to lead districts during disasters. Another support that developed this year is the Counter Team, who will work with UMCOR in disasters. Through UMCOR, the DRC has developed a ministry team with Children in collaboration with the Methodist Home for Children Family life services. The Committee works through UM Volunteers in Missions and the United Methodist Men to develop work teams who will be prepared to respond to disaster in our Conference and other conferences. The teams came to us, and we need to develop teams to send to them.

The committee is now on a computer line daily with the NC Department of Emergency Management, The American Red Cross, The UM Committee on Relief, and National Volunteer Agencies on Disasters. In return for all the information that is received, reports of small Disasters within the Districts are sent to District Disaster Coordinators and District Superintendents. Info on major disasters across the US, are forwarded to the Conference Offices so that the Conference Staff dealing with Missions, Volunteer Work Teams, and others agencies can have the most updated information. The Committee encourages that all churches make use of this information and not just plan to respond to a disaster on their own.

The committee encourages all churches throughout the year to take up a special offering for Disaster Response. This year we have seen snow and ice in the North East, rains and mud slides in California, tornados and rains in Florida, snows in the Western Conference and rains and floods in Eastern NC. Many of our farmers are having a disaster with their crops because of the rains. Your committee wants to be there to respond.

The Committee wishes to thank all of the people who helped us respond to Bertha and Fran over the last two years. It shows that the people of NC will rally to help rebuild. With the help, prayers and support of many persons, we hope to be ready you serve our Conference in any time of disaster response.

EDUCATION, COMMISSION ON

Spanning a kaleidoscope of spiritual needs from birth through all of life's passages, Christian nurturing for our NC Conference has included interactive instructive models of workshops, as well as, consultants for one-on-one consultation with local churches. Highlights of diverse ministries include:

- Successful initial professional training event for child care workers.
- Future retreat planned for directors of child care ministries.
- Increased local church involvement with preschool, before/after care and day care.
- Bishops' "Children's Initiative" class addition for January Workshops.
- Increased participation in NCC youth council sponsored ministries.
- Modeling forthcoming welfare reform workshop in four locations.
- Older Adult Ministries including day apart, "Academy for Older Adult Ministries;" and collaboration with Duke Divinity School curriculum planners.
- Responsive District Directors of Christian Education involved with providing direct local church resourcing in curriculum development/interpretation, equipping for faith formers, enabling goal setting and exploration of ministries to meet needs.
- Clusters of Christian educators networking to provide district-wide resourcing.
- Collaboration with community leaders exploring responsive models of ministries for local church members and networking resources to meet the needs identified in the Bishops' Initiative.

As we bound into the future, we rejoice that we have been entrusted with vision and resources to meet a variety of emerging needs within congregational life and beyond our four walls into the shadows of our churches. The commission seeks to provide models for Christian discipleship to equip and resource our local church leadership while providing guidance for professional development of those involved in transforming ministries within our Annual Conference.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

Our first step in dealing with the Comprehensive Plan and its Mission Statement has been that one of writing the theological and biblical affirmations and offer these in a document that can be used by all the churches in the NC Conference as an affirmation of faith. These theological and biblical affirmations will strengthen the idea that the Church is One in Him who is the Head.

The following step was to go through the Key Elements in the Comprehensive Plan.

One of the recommendations is that an assessment of Inclusiveness should be carried out in the NC Conference. Nevertheless, we love to observe that both race and demographics play important roles in this assessment.

Another question we bring before the NC Conference is if all the districts within the Conference are moving toward Inclusiveness.

Further, research indicates there is a shift/move among the five Ethnic Groups (Asian, African American, Hispanic, Native American, and Pacific Islander) represented in the NC Conference during the years 1996-1997 conference reporting.

Compared to the past history of the NC Conference, the year 2000 should experience a greatest shift/move, especially for the five groups listed above.

A document was produced and distributed to the Bishop, Cabinet, and members of the ELCC Committee indicating the need for keener awareness by both clergy and lay Persons regarding inclusiveness within the Conference. Four of the districts show an increase compared to eight districts with a loss. Why? Indicators which should be considered are Race, Identity, Social, Economics, shift from rural or urban communities, and other factors. How can these needs be met? Do we see the NC Conference prepping itself to meet all these needs? If so, how? Who is visible?

One other very particular issue was raised during this year: the growth of the Hispanic Population to almost 25% by the end of this century while the African-American population will be that of 17%. We approve very strongly the work of the Hispanic Task Force and we feel the need for the NC Conference to act prophetic in this regard.

A discussion has been given looking into the composition of at best four of our committees: Religion and Race, Ethnic Local Church Concerns, Status and Role of Women, and Native American Ministries. An interagency Strategy Planning Session was held and the recommendation is that these groups should come together under one umbrella - less people, less meetings, avoid overlapping, but keeping their own identity and functions. The Committee could be very well named Advocacy Outreach and Justice.

We have been using several materials to enrich our discussions and to orient our biblical and theological thinking. We highly recommend the members of the NC Conference to read the following: Jesus Weeps by Recinos; US Hispanic/Latino Theology: Context and Challenge-several authors; Workshop Materials for Small Membership Churches Forging Creative Leadership for the Future; Resources and Contacts for Ethnic Local Church Concerns, Strengthening The Black Church Toward the Year 2000; The Native American Comprehensive Plan; The Hispanic Comprehensive Plan and The Korean Church.

Our deep gratitude to God our Creator, to Bishop Marion Edwards, to the Reverend Ruth Harper Stevens who has been with us in all our works as well as to Dr. Jimmy Cummings, staff member, whose inputs have helped us to come all this way.

Luis F. Reinoso, Chairperson

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

For the conference year 1997-98, the Commission on Evangelism submits this report. Because we take seriously the command given by Jesus Christ to "Go ye, therefore and make disciples," we consider it our most compelling mandate to use the human and material resources available to us to share the Good News message of Christ.

The Commission on Evangelism congratulates all the churches who have worked so diligently in this area. Once again the NC Conference has experienced an increase in membership. This year we had a net increase of 887. We give God the glory for the blessing of our endeavors.

The Commission is proud to have recognized and presented an Evangelism award to the Outstanding Church of the District in each of the 12 districts. We appreciate the assistance of all the District Directors and District Superintendents in identifying the recipients. The Evangelism award for the Outstanding Church of the Conference will be presented at Annual Conference.

Training in the area of Evangelism at the district and local church level continues to be a high priority of the Commission. Evangelism teams have been trained by members of the General Board of Evangelism to offer workshops on a variety of topics. These topics include faith sharing, assimilating new members, evangelism in the small church, and several others. The training is offered at no expense to the local church. The workshops may be scheduled by contacting Bruce Stanley in the Conference Office of Evangelism.

Eleven people were representatives of the NC Conference at the Congress on Evangelism in Kansas City Missouri in January 1998.

The Commission on Evangelism was pleased to give financial assistance to the New Bern District to start a Hispanic Service at Trinity UMC in Jacksonville.

We, the members of the Commission on Evangelism, pledge ourselves to assist any church in its efforts to reach the unchurched.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, COMMISSION ON

At the visitor entrance of a Raleigh hospital there stands a beautiful, sensitive, life-size statue of Jesus. Robed, flowing hair, bearded, eyes full of compassion, our Lord's open hands are outstretched in an act of healing. This sculpture of "Jesus the Healer," is appropriate for a center of care giving and healing. Yet, it is an appropriate symbol for one of the most significant ministries of the church today, the ministry of healing. For as those through whom Jesus would continue his ministry today, like our Lord, we are called upon to "proclaim liberty to the captives and the recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed and to announce that the time has come when the Lord will save his people" (Luke 4:19-20).

It is this biblical mandate which provides both the rationale and impetus for the health and human service ministries of our NC Conference. We as a Commission believe that physical and spiritual health are interconnected and cannot be separated. God has created us to be physical and spiritual beings. The ministry of the church is to the entire person body and spirit. Ours is a ministry of holistic health.

Under the outstanding leadership of Dr. Reginald Ponder, his staff and the Board of Trustees, The Methodist Retirement Home has experienced a year of "significant struggle." In addition to Personnel changes within the top levels of administration, significant progress has been made at all facilities. The Commission is especially grateful for the positive progress on the Croasdaile Village project. With the issuance of bonds, marketing, the completion of architectural plans and the signing of a contract with Can-Do Construction the anticipation is that work on the project will be resumed in early 1998. Facilities at Cypress Glen and Quail Village are also undergoing positive transitions.

As Ponder's reports note, the corporate finances are sound and the settlement of a protracted law suit will now allow the Board to focus on the primary mission of the Home. In this regard, it is especially significant that the Home is now in the process of negotiating a memorandum of understanding to become affiliated with Duke University Health Services. This is a far-reaching and creative step to ensure the strengthening and continuing ministry of the UMRH for the next century. The Commission is deeply appreciative of the tireless and visionary leadership of Dr. Ponder.

With the retirement of Dr. Rufus Stark, The Methodist Home for Children, is now under the leadership of Reverend Michael Safley. Early in his tenure, the Board of Directors and Staff went on a retreat to cast a vision of ministry for the 21st century. The new mission statement focuses on an holistic building up of the strengths and affirming the worth of children, youth and families. Safley's report includes a setting forth of additional enhancements envisioned for this ministry. These include an emphasis on prevention services designed to help reduce the growing numbers of children, youth and families that are hurting; a continued regionalization of services and a comprehensive client care/response system. For UM churches, one of the most exciting and innovative services of the MHC is the readiness to serve as a consultant for congregations interested in starting day care centers. The Commission and Directors already appreciate the energy and vision Safley has brought to our ministries for children and their families.

Another exciting ministry under the Commission is the Asbury Homes. Under the leadership of Tom Walden and its Board of Directors, this ministry for the mentally handicapped presently operates a home for five adults at Tabor City called Goremont now managed by Lisa Hayes and her staff. Although the Asbury Homes does not receive direct funding from either the NC Conference or through Advance specials, the Commission adopted a resolution that the 1999 budget include a $4000 funding. There are approximately 200,000 handicapped persons of all ages in our state. With the Asbury Homes, the Commission shares the vision that as UMs we should broaden and grow this important ministry.

Many congregations are beginning to realize the pastoral value of the Parish Nurse Ministries. We applaud the vision and leadership of Sue Kirkkluk, R.N. for guiding this ministry. Currently the following local churches have parish nurse ministries in place. These are Zebulon; University, Chapel Hill; Union Grove, Hillsborough; Pine Valley, Wilmington; and Fuquay Varina. A workshop for other interested churches is planned this fall.

The Duke Chaplaincy under the direction of the Reverend Jim Rawlings Jr. provides pastoral care for UM patients at Duke Medical Center. A new ministry development, "Partners in Caring," seeks to provide ministerial support and resources for individuals living with AIDS and their families. Funded by the Duke Endowment, the ministry is working with churches in several Eastern counties as they seek to develop such a fundamental ministry of Christian compassion and concern.

The Commission continues to be grateful to the Reverend Richard C. Vaughan who heads up the Golden Cross Ministry. Golden Cross seeks to help laity having difficulty in facing excessive medical expenses by providing appropriate financial grants. During the past year, 22 families from 10 districts were helped with total grants amounting to just under $20,000. Starting 1/1/98, maximum yearly assistance grants will be increased to $2,000.

The Commission continues to encourage congregations to celebrate Disability Awareness Sunday. As in previous years, congregations have received a special mailing that includes an appropriate worship resource as well as awareness information. Many congregations have become more aware of the need to provide handicap access as well as a sensitivity to those who are visually and aurally impaired. As at previous Annual Conferences, the Commission will again sponsor the popular health screening service.

We are grateful for the support and assistance of Hope Morgan Ward and Linda Harris of the Conference staff. We also wish our previous chair, Rick Hanse, godspeed as he takes an appointment with the NY Conference. His depth of spirituality, compassion and vision for the ministry of healing will be sorely missed. The new chair is also profoundly grateful to all on the Commission for their continuing passion for this fundamental ministry.

Brian G. Gentle, Chairperson

The Asbury Homes, Inc.

The Asbury Homes, Inc., operates a home for five mentally handicapped adults at Tabor City, NC. The home, called Goremont, is leased from the Methodist Retirement Homes. This five-bedroom facility offers residential living in a Christian atmosphere for three ladies and two men.

The manager of the home, Lisa Hayes, and her staff supervise the activities of the residents. Lisa is doing a great job as manager of the home. The residents are involved in a day program in Whiteville and are transported in the van owned by the Asbury Homes.

This home received no money from the conference or through Advanced specials. All funding is from the money received from mental health and from donations directly to the home by board members and friends. Support from St. Paul UMC in Tabor City has been great. A Sunday School class is provided for the residents as well as parties for special occasions.

The state of North Carolina has approximately 200,000 persons of all ages with mental retardation. The goal of Asbury Homes is to meet the needs of those adults that require residential alternatives. The agency is looking at areas to establish additional homes for this population. Funding for homes through governmental agencies is being drastically cut and support will fall on the communities and local churches for this financial support.

Churches and individuals with an interest in assisting this ministry should contact Tom Walden at 1-919-554-1284 or Robert Pitzer at SEMAR at 1-800-527-3627.

Asbury Homes Inc., is grateful for the support and assistance from Dr. Reginald Ponder of the Methodist Retirement Homes, and Dr. Robert Pitzer of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Agency. SEMAR assists agencies in the jurisdiction in establishing homes such as the one Asbury Homes operates. By the end of 1998 there will be about 55 homes with a value in buildings and equipment of about 14 million dollars. These homes are located throughout the jurisdiction.

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to the laity in our Conference who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of great emotional stress and financial need.

1997 was another good year for Golden Cross. During 1997, we assisted 22 families from 10 of the 12 Districts in our Conference. We had $27,799.00 budgeted for 1997, and we "promised" $19,376.11. In fact, for the second time in several years we did not exhaust our funds! Therefore, starting January 1, 1998, we have decided to improve the maximum yearly assistance to $2,000.00 per family per year. (It was formally $1,000.00) By the way, if your church chooses to take a special offering for Golden Cross, please send it to Golden Cross, c/o Caroline Buckland, POBox 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.

In closing, please remember that as you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses that Golden Cross is a special ministry. Encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form. With God's help, and your generosity, we will meet every eligible request with the funds we have. In the past, we United Methodists in the NC Annual Conference have been most gracious in making these funds available to all United Methodists.

The church and its members are grateful for your support in times of extreme need. God bless you.

Methodist Home for Children Child & Family Services

Transition - The twentieth century is rapidly coming to a close. During this century of technological advances and rapid change the Methodist Home for Children (MHC) has been a valuable partner with The United Methodist Church and government in providing quality, relevant care to children, youth and families.

As we look back over this past year and to the future, we can see how change is an integral part of the agency, a part that provides impetus and challenge. In the past year the agency underwent a significant transition. Reverend Rufus H. Stark II retired after 14 years as President/CEO of the agency. During his distinguished tenure, the agency developed from a campus-based group home program in Raleigh to a community-based multi-service agency serving the 56-county area comprising the NC Annual Conference of The UMC. The magnitude of this growth is evident by the fact that, during this period, the agency's annual operating budget grew significantly. An important part of the agency's development has been its partnerships with state and local service agencies. Through these partnerships we have been able to promote our service ministry and provide a range of needed services to children, youth and families.

During the 1996/97 fiscal year, it was, again, our purpose to have a positive and significant impact on our clients and on the communities in which we provide services. The outcome stories featured in this report are representative of our success in meeting this goal.

As we move toward the new century MHC will continue to offer quality care in family life counseling, foster care, group homes and juvenile multipurpose homes. Through our programs broken children and families move toward wholeness.

New Mission and Vision Statement - In the course of the Fall '97, the Board of Directors and Staff of the Methodist Home for Children met and developed a new Mission and Vision Statement that will lead us into the New Century.

Mission Statement - In Service to God Our Mission is to build upon the social, physical, emotional, and spiritual strengths of children, youth, and families and to affirm their worth.

Our Vision - The MHC moves into its second century of service with a clear understanding of its mission and with a resolve to meet the challenges ahead.

The Methodist Home for Children's Board of Directors, staff, and client families are committed to a shared vision of offering quality, accessible services to children, youth, families, churches, and communities. Our vision is rooted in a historical commitment to a faith that recognizes the worth of individuals, insists on love for our fellow human beings, and honors the important role of families. Our vision is guided by a holistic understanding of human behavior that draws upon the best research, human talents, and training resources available in order to meet the diverse needs of our clients. We are driven by our desire to help each child, youth, or family we serve achieve meaningful and sustainable change in their life. To nourish this vision, MHC will maximize its human, capital, and financial resources for the benefit of the children, youth, families, churches, and communities we serve.

The MHC sets forth the following enhancements to its already successful program:

I. Focus attention on the importance of prevention in all of our treatment services and collaborative community efforts. MHC will provide resources to support advocacy, education, training and treatment in order to help reduce the growing numbers of children, youth, and families that are hurting.

II. Regionalize the administrative and support structures surrounding MHCs delivery of services, bringing decision-making authority and resource management closer to the communities where services are provided.

III. Develop a comprehensive client response/client care system to ensure that every MHC client receives the care and treatment that is most appropriate for their circumstance. This system must give MHC significant autonomy in assessing clients and determining treatment plans. In addition, the system should provide for comprehensive case management (review, oversight, tracking, and after care) for each client.

IV. Ensure a comprehensive, seamless continuum of services that can be accessed by any MHC client. These services should address a broad spectrum of needs for children, youth, and families in crisis and should be compatible in association with other MHC services. Clients must be able to move between services or access multiple services simultaneously. Transition and overlapping use of services must occur without disruption to the client's overall care plan.

V. Through on-going assessment of our outcomes, we will challenge ourselves and our partners to focus on what is best for each client, family, and community. We will use this assessment as a guide for adjusting services, re-directing resources, and ensuring total quality in our program.

MHC's Board of Directors and staff will continually evaluate its vision, leadership, and the impact we are having on the individuals and communities we serve.

Outcome Stories:

Youth Homes - Paul's Story -

Paul was admitted to the youth home after a long history of involvement in the court system. On paper, he was considered "unmanageable" by the many adults who had worked with him. He had numerous assault charges against him. These instances of physical aggression were directed towards peers, his mother, and his two-year-old nephew. Additional charges of damage to property, violation of probation, disruptive behavior at school, and verbal assault rounded out his file. Admission to the youth home was Paul's only option to training school. He was accepted for 90 days with the goal to return to live with his mother.

At the time of admission, Paul's mother was fearful of him. Typically when Paul became upset over her rules or limits, he would become aggressive towards her. During the three months Paul lived at the youth home, the staff worked diligently with the family to teach them more positive ways to communicate. Through parent training, Paul's mother learned how to set reasonable limits and expectations for Paul. Appropriate consequences were put into place that she could enforce and that Paul had input into. During this time, changes in their relationship became apparent as well. They laughed and joked more frequently, and demonstrated warmth towards each other. They began using words that reflected their love and appreciation of each other.

Paul learned how to establish friendships and treat others with respect. He developed problem-solving skills and the ability to talk with others calmly, even when he disagreed with them. Paul became a natural leader in the youth home and this carried over into his school performance, where he found a new acceptance and realization of success. He received numerous calls each night from friends, assisted his teachers with projects, and was able to have the opportunity to continue in this school, even after his discharge from the youth home, to complete the school year.

Paul's success continues. He is considered a role model in his community high school and has many friends. He is off probation. Paul frequently comes by the youth home to say hello and visit with the Teaching-Parents. When he arrives, you can see him striding up the walk, laughing with his mother, and carrying his nephew on his shoulders.

Foster Care - Elizabeth's Story -

Elizabeth was born into a family where she faced violence and racism every day. She found the inner strength and determination to speak out against the violence that was commonplace within her household. Subsequently, she and her siblings were removed from the home and placed into foster care.

While in foster care, Elizabeth was faced with another challenge. Although her siblings, mother and stepfather are white, she soon learned that the world saw her as black. Her self-esteem suffered because she was tossed into a situation that few adults could handle. Elizabeth's first out-of-home placement tried diligently to help her fit into their community. Their attempts proved futile. Then Elizabeth was placed in a foster home with MHC.

Elizabeth was fortunate enough to be placed in a home where love, spirituality and mutual respect are everyday words. Just like a flower that has suddenly been exposed to sunlight, she started to blossom. Through encouragement and acceptance, Elizabeth has discovered many things about herself to like. She has remained in the same foster home for almost a year.

Elizabeth is doing well in school and she recently had the opportunity to participate in a three year, college-prep summer program that is geared toward students that have shown academic potential. In addition to advanced math, language arts and history, Elizabeth learned about African American history. As a result of this program, she has gained insight into her own identity and will now say proudly that, she is 'the best of both cultures.'

Armed with a new attitude and a willingness to trust those around her, Elizabeth has made some positive choices in her life. She rediscovered the young woman that boldly stood up and declared that neither she nor her siblings deserved to live in an abusive and neglectful environment. Elizabeth decided to join church and participate in the youth choir. Through her work with the choir, she discovered her natural musical talent. Recently she started taking piano lessons and hopes to play for her Sunday School in the near future. All of her talents have been nurtured and cultivated by her foster mother who has shown her, by example, that respect and acceptance most come from within.

During the past few months, Elizabeth has emerged as a role model for her foster brother and friends, as well as a shining example of what determination, personal awareness and love can achieve.

Child and Family Enrichment Centers - Traditionally, the MHC has responded appropriately to the continuing social, political, and economic changes in our society. Today, we are being challenged to consider how to improve the quality of care to the 62% of North Carolina's children whose mothers work. We believe that all children have a right to develop to their maximum abilities and that well-trained and caring teachers are the most important components in this development.

It is with great excitement that plans are underway to develop a Child and Family Enrichment Center that will not only provide developmentally appropriate care to 100+ children in the downtown Raleigh working community, but will also address the need for well-trained staff throughout Eastern NC. A training component will provide "best practices" education through opportunities for observation and laboratory experiences at the Center, as well as through training and consultation in UM Churches throughout the Conference. We want to make a difference in the lives of children, and we want to help parents and church families make a difference, too!

Centennial Celebration - The MHC will celebrate one hundred years of service to children, youth and families in 1999. A special committee has been appointed by Bryce Younts, Chairman of the Board of Directors to plan activities around the centennial. Methodist Home staff members, members of the Board of Directors and prominent church and community leaders will serve on this task force. We hope you will choose to participate in the planned events. Formal announcements of special events and initiatives will be made this fall and winter. As partners in ministry to children and families in crisis we should celebrate our accomplishments and visions for the future.

Special Appreciation - The Board of Directors, staff, children, youth and families of MHC want to thank the NC Conference and all of you for your continued love and support as together we work diligently to serve children and families and need.

The United Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

Last year was characterized as "the year of significant struggle." It was that! 1997, however, may well be termed as the year of transition and transformation for The United Methodist Retirement Homes. Many important and far-reaching changes have occurred during this past year that have enhanced our ability to serve our residents and the senior adults of eastern NC.

The Board of Trustees has been a source of strength and light as it has guided us through the time of struggle and this year of growth and change. Their wisdom and support have been an invaluable asset. We are indebted to the support of the NC Conference of The UMC for our ministry. We share with the annual conference a relationship of faith and a commitment to serve.

As I outline the transitions that have taken place within the corporation during the year, I start with significant personnel changes. On May 1 George D. Paulson became Vice President for Operations and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Paulson comes to UMRH with 25 years of experience in the retirement living/long term care field. He has brought vigor and vision to his task. He has a customer-centered orientation, and has assisted the Administrators of each of our facilities to grasp this orientation, too. George is a tireless worker and is committed to the ministry of The UMRH.

The second major personnel change took place on September 1 when Hunter W. Wagstaff became Vice President for Finance and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Wagstaff came to our employ after having served for eleven years as a financial officer for the University of NC Hospitals. He has a wide range of experiences in the health care industry, is a CPA, and serves on the Healthcare Committee of the NC Association of Certified Public Accountants. As with George Paulson, Hunter Wagstaff possesses great energy and skill for his work. As a UM layman, he is excited about being a part of the ministry of UMRH.

The third major personnel change was the addition of Marvin L. Horton as the Director of Development. Marvin has had approximately twenty years experience in the field of Planned Giving. He has worked previously with an Episcopal retirement community in California. He is committed to the concept of long-term care insurance, and has developed a creative program emphasizing long term care insurance in conjunction with planned giving.

In addition, we have secured the services of three gifted professionals to serve as Administrators for three of our facilities. Roger W. Parry became the Administrator of Wesley Pines effective March 1. He succeeded Paul Bunn who had provided excellent leadership for the facility and brought it to a strong financial position. Mr. Parry has been well accepted and has continued the fine management of the facility. He is particularly well liked by the residents and the members of the Local Committee.

Patricia Underwood became the Administrator of the Coble Health Care Center in Durham on August 1. She had served prior to this appointment as the Director of Nursing for Coble. Pat has been well accepted by staff, residents, and family members of the residents. She has been aggressive in addressing several management issues at the Health Care Center. The census has been very strong during Pat's tenure. She has reduced the facility's dependence upon agency staff, and she has focused upon strengthening the nursing supervisors' management skills.

Myron Dice became the Administrator at Quail Haven Village on September 15. He previously served as an Administrator for facilities in Georgia. He was very active in the Georgia Association of Homes for the Aging. Myron has displayed his outstanding management skills in several areas since arriving at Quail Haven. He, too, is viewed very favorably by both residents and staff at the facility. I am confident that our leadership is very strong as we prepare to move into the next century.

In addition to these major personnel changes, the year of transition has included significant progress on the Crossdaile Village project. On Friday, January 9, the marketing team reached the pre-sales goal required by the Medical Care Commission for the issuance of bonds. The architectural plans have been completed and a guaranteed maximum price contract has been signed with Can-Do Construction Co. It is anticipated that work will resume on the project early in 1998.

Construction on the new 30-unit apartment building for Cypress Glen began in May 1997 and is scheduled for completion in March of 1998. This construction will complete Phase II of the expansion project for Cypress Glen. We had the challenge of marketing these units in just a few months. Spectrum Marketing of Gastonia is assisting the marketing staff at Cypress Glen with the marketing effort.

Another major transition has been the movement toward the acquisition of Quail Haven Village. All of the parties involved have agreed on the nature and terms of the transfer of the ownership to a UMRH-controlled Board of Directors, but the final legal terms have not been drafted. Quail Haven Village has made significant progress in occupancy rates during the year. In 1998, plans are underway to convert the assisted living (adult care) facility to a skilled nursing facility. The Certificate of Need for this conversion has already been awarded.

The financial reports and audit indicate that the corporation is in a sound financial position. There are, however, areas of concern that management is addressing that should strengthen our financial position considerably by the end of fiscal year 1998. The operations at the UMRH facilities have shown improvement during this year. Cypress Glen has experienced a difficult year with the bringing on line of the new facilities and less than projected occupancy. We are anticipating significant progress during 1998.

A major achievement of 1997 has been the settlement of a lawsuit that attracted unfavorable publicity directed at our corporation and one of our facilities. The satisfactory resolution of this legal action allows us to focus completely upon our major purpose, which is to provide quality care for the residents in our respective facilities.

A significant amount of time has been devoted to conversations with the Duke University Health System over the past four months. These conversations are the result of many years of positive relationships between DUHS and UMRH. There are many issues yet to be considered in these discussions in the future. The Boards of Trustees of The UMRH, Inc. and Duke University, respectively, have approved a Memorandum of Understanding.

I sincerely believe that it is in the best interest of UMRH and DUHS to effect an affiliation that will strengthen our ability to serve now and into the twenty-first century.

It is my prayer and my goal to lead our corporation in 1998 into new and better paths of service to our residents in the name of our Servant-Savior, Jesus Christ.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

Ministries in education have always been an important part of Methodist outreach. This year we are especially mindful of this rich heritage as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of the establishment of the Kingswood School, the first Methodist educational institution. From the earliest days of Methodism, our heritage is steeped in a tradition of close connections between the church and its schools, colleges, universities, seminaries, and campus ministries.

Methodist education ministries began in North America in 1784 when members of the Christmas Conference, American Methodism's founding event, decided to build a college. That early emphasis on education has been maintained through the years, leading our denomination to establish more than 1,200 schools, colleges, and universities - of which 124 remain today. Additionally, we have approximately 700 campus ministers and college/university chaplains engaged in ministries on our behalf.

The NC Annual Conference shares in this historic commitment to ministries in higher education. Presently, we are in a supportive relationship with three colleges (Louisburg, Methodist, and NC Wesleyan); with the Divinity School at Duke; and with Wesley Foundations, and ecumenical campus ministries at various campuses throughout the state. The work of United Methodist campus ministry in NC is shared between the two annual conferences in the state, through the State Commission on Campus Ministry.

The Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry is the church's representative in the ongoing interaction between the church and its educational ministries. We seek to help the institutions claim their uniquely Christian character. Likewise, we work to encourage the church to claim these institutions as valid extension ministries and to support them at the appropriate level.

In recent months, the Commission has worked closely with other annual conference agencies to provide direction and support to Louisburg College at a critical time in its life. When financial support was needed desperately, the Annual Conference made a one-time gift to Louisburg College as a Supplemental Appropriation. In the future, the best support we can provide to our institutions of higher learning will come in the form of students we send their way.

On behalf of all the campus ministry units in NC, the colleges and the divinity school, I express appreciation to the Annual Conference for its support.

Raegan V. May, Chairperson

Campus Ministry, State Commission on

The State Commission on Campus Ministry oversees the work of United Methodist campus ministry in 16 campus settings throughout the state of NC. Most of these ministries are UM Wesley Foundations; several are organized cooperatively in ecumenical settings. UM campus ministries are located in public, church-related, and private institutions.

The Commission, comprised of representatives from the NC and WNC Conferences, meets twice a year to give guidance to campus ministries across our state. In addition, the finance committee meets to recommend the annual budget and the executive committee meets as necessary. The total Commission budget is funded through the two conferences, with 40% from the NC Conference and 60% from the WNC Conference. The Commission budget is used largely for salary support for campus ministers. In the past year, the Commission also made grants for capital facility needs at East Carolina, Western Carolina, Raleigh, and A&T Wesley Foundations. Commission funding is supplemented by local boards for local program and ministry.

A review process has been established to assist local campus ministries in self-evaluation and planning for the future. Two campus ministries are reviewed annually. To date, a review team has completed the review process at Duke University.

The Handbook for North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry serves as a guide to local campus ministry committees, to campus ministers, and to the Commission. Vacancies in campus ministry positions at Duke, Winston-Salem, Western Carolina University, UNC at Chapel Hill, and East Carolina University led to search processes for new campus ministers in each of these settings. The search processes provided occasion for better definition of the process by which local boards select campus ministers.

Impressive and exciting things are happening in campus ministry. Many students are participating in local mission and in international and national workteams during school breaks. Students participate in music ministry, tutoring, Bible study, covenant groups, and other activities. Many students attend state, regional, national, and ecumenical meetings. Campus ministries offer the setting for development of student leaders, exchange of ideas, and growth in faith. Campus ministry alumni leave the campus, prepared to serve Christ in the world. Many alumni are preparing for ordained ministry and careers of loving service.

Candler School of Theology

Candler School of Theology continues to value its relationship with church and its mission to educate faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries. Our reputation for excellence draws a diverse range of students among the 555 enrolled this past fall. We are grateful for our students and for the prayers and support of the churches.

To fulfill Candler's mission better, the faculty this year has completed a revision of the school's program in contextual education, which includes student work in clinical and ecclesial settings. This major endeavor, begun on the heels of changes to our foundation curriculum, likewise draws on conversation with clergy and laity in the conferences. Throughout the curriculum, students are challenged not merely with information, but with ways to apply knowledge helpfully in ministry. This revision places the church's life and practices at the very center of our curriculum.

We are committed, when filling faculty positions, to bring only those people whose academic excellence is matched by a commitment to preparation for ministry and a passion for the church. In the fall of 1997, Elizabeth M. Bounds, associate professor of Christian ethics, joined us with insights into global ministries. Jonathan Strom, assistant professor of church history, is a Reformation scholar and expert in the role of clergy. Walter T. Wilson, assistant professor of New Testament, has helped lead an inner-city ministry. Lyndon Reynolds, assistant professor of historical theology, has returned to the Candler faculty and remains director of the Aquinas Center of Theology, Emory's center for Catholic studies.

In addition, Barbara Day Miller has joined Candler as the Susan H. Marcy Assistant Dean of Worship and Lecturer in Liturgical Practices, a new position reflecting Candler's resolve to shape strong, creative worship leaders. This new position was made possible by a generous gift from the Susan H. Marcy Foundation of Winter Park, FL. Dean Miller is a deacon in full connection in the N.G.A. Annual Conference.

Cynthia S. Meyer, Assistant Dean of Student Programming, brings pastoral and campus ministry background to the work of enriching students' education in ways ranging from writing assistance to spiritual life retreats. She is an elder in the Kansas East Annual Conference. Helen R. Pearson has shifted roles and is now acting director of the Program for Women in Theology and Ministry, strengthening that program as its first full-time leader. Beth Luton Cook, Director of Church Ministries Education, is guiding continuing education, certification studies, and the Course of Study School. She brings a strong record from local churches and conference and jurisdictional leadership. She is a deacon in full connection in the N.G.A. Annual Conference.

Candler's professors speak and teach frequently at churches, other seminaries, and conferences both domestic and international. Their service, however, also includes listening to what the churches need. While on campus, they can hone those insights using Pitts Theology Library, the second-largest theological library in North America with more than 480,000 volumes, including over 90,000 items in the library's Special Collections.

In the summer of 1998, Candler will be host of the Hispanic Summer Program, a national school aimed at building up leadership among Hispanic Christians. Candler is the home of Hispanic Theological Initiative, a separate but related project.

The bond of school and church remains a great and treasured asset at Candler, for we share a life of nurture, outreach, and witness. We ask for your continued prayers, as we hold you in our prayers. Be assured that when you provide financial support, individually and through the Ministerial Education Fund, your gift is received thankfully. Your support gives students excellent preparation for a ministry not crushed by undue debt, but free to serve, uplift, and praise.

R. Kevin LaGree, Dean and Professor of Divinity

The Divinity School of Duke University

The Rev. Dr. L. Gregory Jones was installed by Duke University President Nannerl O. Keohane on October 3, 1997 as the 11th dean of Duke Divinity School. Dean Jones is a graduate of the University of Denver (B.A., M.P.A.) and Duke University (M.Div., Ph.D.), and comes to the Divinity School from Loyola College of Baltimore, where he was chair of the theology department. In his response to the installation address by Professor David Ford, Regius Professor of Divinity, Cambridge, England, Jones commended the work of his predecessors: "I stand on their shoulders, and we are all the beneficiaries of their faithful service." Dennis M. Campbell, who was Jones's immediate predecessor, served as dean of the Divinity School for 15 years, and has accepted the position of headmaster at Woodberry Forest School in Madison County, VA.

The Divinity School community was saddened by the death of noted church historian and professor emeritus Stuart Henry on June 28, 1997. Dr. Henry, who joined the faculty after 12 years as a Presbyterian pastor, taught for 35 years before his retirement in 1985.

Duke President Keohane has made the following appointments to the Divinity School Board of Visitors: Robert W. Bailey of Birmingham, AL, Bishop Marion M. Edwards of Raleigh, Paul R. Ervin, Jr. of Lake Junaluska, William J. Fowler of Knoxville, TN, James W. Harbison, Jr. of New York, NY, Calvin Hill of Great Falls, VA, Bishop Charlene P. Kammerer of Charlotte, Sarah Sloan Kreutziger of New Orleans, LA, James C. Lee of Goldsboro, and James D. Warren of McLean, VA.

The broad base of financial support for the Divinity School was particularly evident this past year with a total of $4,234,553 received from individuals, foundations, churches and corporations. The Ministerial Education Fund of The UMC and the Charlotte-based Duke Endowment continued as the principal sources for underwriting current operations while individual contributions, especially for scholarship endowments, further strengthened the program. The Divinity School continues its mission to prepare out-standing leadership for the church.

LAITY, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Laity has the responsibility of helping to prepare and empower the laity in the North Carolina Conference to be in ministry. Our focus must be on the mission of The United Methodist Church and that is, "To Make Disciples to Jesus Christ." We have attempted to accomplish this in various ways.

The January Workshops were held in the districts in order to provide training for the laity in leadership positions in the local church. The basic classes were offered with each district having the option of offering additional classes based on local needs. The training was well attended by the laity and the evaluations indicate excellent training that was practical and relevant was offered. The training will be available again for those chosen for leadership positions in 1999.

Training was also conducted for our district lay leaders by two former conference lay leaders, Gwen Henderson, and Bob Frazier. This was beneficial for the new district lay leaders and was an excellent refresher for the others.

The Lay Speaking program under the leadership of our Conference Director of Lay Speaking, Tom Walden, has continued to grow. Many lay speakers in our conference share their gifts and are very active in leadership positions in our local churches and communities. This program allows some of our churches to have worship service every Sunday as well as churches to have a worship service when the pastor has to be absent. Many lay speakers will have the opportunity to fill the pulpit this year during this session of Annual Conference since it will end on Sunday.

District Lay Rallies were celebrated throughout our conference this year with a variety of themes. Some districts focused on children ministries with an emphasis on the Council of Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty. There was celebration and recognition of the ministry of the laity and many were challenged and inspired by dynamic speakers. Our district lay leaders continue to provide outstanding leadership in the rallies as well as other opportunities to help prepare laity to be in ministry.

The Commission has been blessed by the leadership of Carol D. Hayes, Associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, as the staff representative. She has served as an excellent resource person and been very supportive of the ministry of the laity.

New opportunities and ways of the laity being in ministry are before us in a world that is constantly changing. We trust that the gifts of the laity and clergy in our conference will be shared in a way that we are partners in ministry both at home and around the world in our connectional church.

Robby Lowry, Conference Lay Leader

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate continues to offer more than 13,000 pastors and laity NC United Methodist-related news twice a month. The paper is funded through a combination of subscriptions, endowments, and contributions from both UM conferences in the state. The publication currently presents readers a blend of national, state, district and local church UM news that stresses denominational connectionalism. Through news, editorials, commentaries, reviews, poetry, alternating columns by both bishops, and regular columns by Harold Bales, Hope Morgan Ward, Ken Carter, Bob Baldrige, Paul Stallsworth, Sillar Smith, Elizabeth Holbrooks, Janet Hitch, Ruth Lucier, Robert Dodd, Carolyn Strader and others, the paper attempts to explore and cover virtually every area of church life.

We have made significant developments during the past year, including: expansion from 12 to 16 pages; a four-color front page; creation of a Web site; and a shift to one unified NC edition rather than separate NCC and WNCC editions every issue.

The Advocate is the voice of United Methodism in NC, in all its facets. This past year, many of our writers, as well as many of the stories, have concentrated on the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty. This focus, covered from every perspective, has helped define a united missional and ministerial initiative for both conference.

In the planning stages for the remainder of 1998 is: a continued concentration on highlighting significant ministry that tells the church's story; a focus on particular districts; interviews with both bishops; and expanded annual conference coverage.

The Advocate is an outreach ministry that continues to report how the church, at every level, is changing lives.

R. Kevin Rippin, NC Christian Advocate, Editor/Business Manager

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Missions and Outreach continued to function as the front line mission and service provider for our Annual Conference with direct aid to hurting persons. The scope of our includes 1) support for international mission, 2) support for mission enterprises within the NC Annual Conference, 3) education and cultivation of mission, especially through the promotion of the Rainbow Covenant, and 4) providing direct experience in mission for NC United Methodists with the Volunteers in Mission Program. In addition to these program activities we operate as the Board of Missions, Inc., and through that institution provide loans for repair and new construction for churches in our Conference.

Support for International Missions: The NC Conference operates a "mini world division," with ministries all around the world. Where many Annual Conferences have no international Conference program, or only support one, we are directly involved in three major international initiatives.

Armenia: 1997 was a year of transition for Project AGAPE, Inc., Reverend Charles Davis retired, and Nara Melkonyan, an Armenian national assumed leadership of the Project. We sent four containers of food, clothing, and medicine. We also facilitated a container of dehydrated potato products from the Society of St. Andrew. Our Bishop visited the ministry and had lent great support and hope to the people of Armenia.

Liberia: The year was spent in preparation for Herbert and Mary Zigbuo to return to their homeland as United Methodist missionaries. They left for Liberia in April 1998. Bishop Kulah visited from Liberia, and we supported the mission of the Ganta School with $13,000 in direct relief.

Peru: Working with the Peru Covenant Task Force, four volunteer teams went to Peru during the Conference year.

Support for Local Mission: The Commission continued to be the backbone funding for the Robeson County Church and Community Center and the Siler City Hispanic Ministry, with a commitment of over $65,000 to these ministries. Examples of mission initiatives supported by the Commission are: Pineview UMC for a multicultural children's program, Centenary UMC for an innovative child care program, Obras de Wesley, the translation of Wesley's Works into Spanish, and Candor UMC for an outreach program to children.

Education and Cultivation: Under the leadership of Jeanne Rouse, we continued the Rainbow Covenant program which encourages churches to give to all five lanes of the Advance. Mission Saturation Events were held in Greenville, Wilmington, and Goldsboro.

Volunteers in Mission: Over 30 teams worked locally and internationally over the year. Teams helped build a local church in Jamaica, a parsonage in Columbia, and worked in Costa Rica. Volunteers also continued Hurricane Fran clean up throughout the Conference.

Board of Missions, Inc.: The Board of Missions, Inc. supervised over $500,000 in loans on behalf of the Annual Conference. We are a partner in new church development with a commitment of $50,000 in low-interest loans to each of five new congregations planted. Through the Board of Missions, Inc., we supervise the Conference Construction Project whereby two full-time construction supervisors oversee building done by local church people. We estimate this program saves over $160,000 per year in construction costs to local congregations.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

1997 was an excellent year for churches giving to the Native American Awareness Sunday Offering. Our goal was $12,000. Total contributions were $11,550.22. This was a 35.3% increase over 1996.

Six (6) ministries were enriched by our Conference's generosity. They were: 1) Sandy Plains UMC started the first Native American nursery in the General UMC Church. 2) First UMC (Pembroke) completed the first year in the Disciples Bible Study. 3) Prospect UMC hosted an Estate Planning and Gift Giving Workshop for all the Native American Churches in the Conference. 4) A Native American pastor received a grant for the Emmaus Walk. 5) Two youths from Pleasant Grove UMC were funded to attend ACS. 6) A Native American pastor received a scholarship to attend the Ministerial Course of Study.

The Conference Council on Ministries approved that every District Council on Ministries have a Native American representative who will become a member of the Committee on Native American Ministry in the year 2000.

Financial goals for the next three years on Native American Awareness Sunday are:

1998 - $15,000

2000 - $27,000

Three districts (Greenville, Rockingham, and Wilmington) held missional workshops where Native American resources were shared. Also, Native American clergy/laity have been trained to speak on Native American Awareness Sunday events.

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES, TASK FORCE ON

Our Mission Statement is as follows: The Task Force on Older Adult Ministries shall be organized to enable and empower the districts and the local churches of the NC Annual Conference for ministry and mission by, for, and with older adults.

We have two goals:

(1) To assist districts and local churches to be more sensitive to the varying issues and needs of older adults.

(2) To promote and provide resources to initiate ministries to, for, and with older adults.

Several things have been done to fulfill our mission:

(1) We have developed a lesson plan relating to Older Adult Ministries for use in Leadership Development Workshops/January Workshops in districts or local churches. The lesson plan is designed with ideas and resources so that someone in the local area can take the plan and lead the workshop. Copies can be secured from Carol Hayes at The Methodist Building.

(2) Held a One-Day Conference on April 26, 1997, at Highland Church in Raleigh on the theme Faith and Health in Older Adulthood. Dr. Harold G. Koenig of Duke Medical School was the keynote speaker. The Reverend James Rawlings, Assistant Director of Pastoral Service, Duke Medical Center, led a workshop, along with Dr. Koenig. This conference was designed for older adults and for persons who work with older adults in local churches.

(3) Begun exploratory discussions with Bishop Edwards and with the Duke Divinity School about ways to help empower ministers and laypersons to be better equipped to develop relevant ministries for the growing number of older persons in American society.

We feel very fortunate that the Secretary of our Task Force, The Reverend Philip S. Brown, Executive Director of Penick Village Retirement Community, is serving as the President of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Older Adults. Phil has been in this capacity for several years and is giving key leadership in planning the SEJ Older Adult Conference. This year's conference will be held at Lake Junaluska, August 10-13, 1998. Representatives go each year from various churches in the NC Conference. Plan on taking a group from your local church.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

This year marks the fiftieth year of outdoor, camping and retreat ministries with United Methodists of eastern NC. It was 50 years ago that Camp Don Lee was born. We celebrate the Jubilee of camping ministries this year! One of the good news moments of Annual Conference will give celebration to this Jubilee and a special offering will be taken for camp facilities needs. Our year of Jubilee celebration will also be a part of Annual Conference in other fun and exciting ways. As part of this celebration of our fifty years of ministry we want to hear from our camp alumni - whether as a camper or staff person - with names and current addresses and the special memories you share.

Four different camping locations across the NC Conference area are provided for campers of all ages so that the young and the old alike, may come and enjoy family time, opportunities to learn about themselves, their relationships with each other and most importantly their growing relationship with God. Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish are open year-round. Kerr Lake is open on weekends in the spring and fall and all week between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

Outdoor, camping and retreat ministries is not just about summer camp anymore! Weekend retreats, environmental education and cooperative learning for school groups, and group meeting facilities are offered throughout the year at Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish. These camps offer a variety of accommodations with facilities to meet the needs of groups from 6 to 250 providing programming for retreats, specializing in spiritual growth, individual growth, group building and cooperation, and environmental education. Camp Kerr Lake located north of Henderson has 24 waterfront water and electric hook-up camp sites, six A-frame cabins, two bathhouses, a pavilion and Conference room which offer both groups and individuals a place to get away from the hectic pace of everyday life.

Each of the camps this year has continued to grow with new programs centering around the outreach of year-round programming, including school groups, day camps, special needs camping, retreats for all ages, and camping experiences for campers in the year-round school programs. Plans are underway (either envisioned and still being worked out or actually under construction) for growth, expansion and new facilities at each of our camps: Chestnut Ridge with a bathhouse, Don Lee with a sewage system, Kerr Lake with a road for expanded campsites, and Rockfish with an adult retreat center. We have seen a growth in utilization, in programming and our service to God through outdoor ministries. We are thankful for the leadership of each of our manager/directors: Bill Howington, John Farmer, Dennis Tawney in addition to their support staffs. We are also thankful for the hard work and dedication of each camp's local committee and the endless hours of service that they have given. We are most thankful for the leadership offered from the Board of Directors of the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, INC. The ministry of outdoor, camping and retreats in our four facilities has grown so large that the time has come for a full-time Executive Director. The spring of 1998 has been a time of taking applications and conducting interviews for this position. We hope to have an executive director on board in the summer of 1998.

As our camps grow in ministry each one continues to have very real needs which local UM churches can help meet. Aging facilities stand in need of significant repair and in some cases rebuilding altogether. Financial resources are needed to do this as well as volunteer labor. Wish lists exist for each camp as to items needed to be donated for furthering their ministry. Support of our camping ministry by local churches having retreats, group meetings and outings at our camping facilities will be a blessing to all. Encouragement of children and youth to come to summer camps, promoting the camps as a place of summer employment for dedicated college students and youth adults can support our camping ministry. Local Church groups can also support camping ministries through participation in spring or fall work days at camps or by financial contributions through the Advance Special or the Campership Fund and contribution to the Jubilee offering. We look to the faithful and dedicated support of the NC Annual Conference for camping ministry.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered nor come into mind..... The wolf and the lamb shall feed together; and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock and dust shall be the serpent's meat. Isaiah 65: 17-25

The ministry of the Commission on Religion and Race is to remind the North Carolina Conference to create a new earth, a new community of faith. In this community, there will be no weeping due to the sin of racism, there will be no calling for help because of the exclusiveness of our churches. Churches will not close because of the members' refusal to become inclusive communities of faith. Churches with racial diversity in their membership and leadership will be our standard and not the exception. The Commission on Religion and Race labors vigorously for this new earth. Our labor shall not be in vain.

The Commission on Religion and Race met in October at the Methodist Building. Connie Barnes of the General Commission on Religion and Race attended our meeting. At this meeting, the commission completed a review and study of the book, The Wolf Shall Dwell With The Lamb, by Eric Law. This book carefully addresses concepts of working across racial and cultural lines. It stresses the importance of understanding and appreciating cultural differences. The Commission also planned and scheduled a workshop for February. The workshop was later rescheduled for October.

At our February meeting, the Commission reviewed the District Inclusive Reports from Charge Conferences. The Commission identified a small number of places to celebrate the vision of Isaiah. There are communities of faith in our Conference where racially diverse membership and leadership exist. There are communities of faith in our Conference that have inclusive Bible schools, inclusive daycare centers, and inclusive mission projects. The Commission applauds those churches who have opened the door to inclusiveness in these peripheral services. The Commission longs for the day when the 11 o'clock hour is more open. However, the number of churches who have no plans to achieve inclusiveness ranged from 49% to 71%.

The Conference Plan of Inclusiveness required that a Design of Inclusiveness be a part of the 1998 Annual Conference. The Commission on Religion and Race developed the Inclusive Design for the 1998 Annual Conference at its February meeting. This design provides opportunity for celebrations and disappointments as well as an opportunity for the cabinet to restate the vision of the Conference Plan of Inclusiveness.

The vision of a new earth as stated in the first paragraph is possible. For when we truly believe in the one fatherhood of God, and in the one brotherhood/sisterhood of humankind, all things will be possible.

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline of The UMC, Section XV-2102 (1996), page 599, outlines - The Primary purpose of the General Commission on the Status and role of Women shall be to challenge The UMC including its general agencies, institutions, and connectional structures to a continuing commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church, sharing fully in the power and in the policy-making at all levels of the Church's life.

Such commitment will confirm a new recognition of the fact that The UMC is part of the universal church, rooted in the liberating message of Jesus Christ, that recognizes every person, woman or man, as a full and equal part of God's human family.

Three key words have come to signify the major areas of work of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women: Advocate, Catalyst, Monitor. As Advocate with and on behalf of women individually and collectively within The UMC; as a Catalyst for the initiation of creative methods to redress inequities of the past and to prevent further inequities against women within The UMC; and as a Monitor to ensure inclusiveness in the programmatic and administrative functioning of The UMC.

Our Commission has begun to focus on these eight goals set before us for 1997 - 2000:

1. Support the Conference effort on implementation of the Plan on Inclusiveness by assisting women in attending enrichment conferences and through sensitizing local congregations in areas of race and gender relations.
2. Become familiar with sexual harassment guidelines and monitor use of guidelines in local churches, districts, and conference.
3. Provide an event to help healing of victims of clergy sexual harassment.
4. Advocate for "clergywomen in the pulpit emphasis" in the spring of each year 1997 - 2000.
5. Monitor the availability of child care services at district and conference meetings.
6. Advocate the hope, healing, and wholeness of families with emphasis on children and elderly.
7. Prepare publicity pertaining to COSROW for the back page of the Christian Advocate, July/August, each year, 1997 - 2000.
8. Monitor the NC Annual Conference.

For the first time the NC Annual Conference was monitored in 1997. There were more than 200 comments made during the plenary session - 20% of the comments were made by women and 80% by men; of the total number of worship participants, 28% were women, 72% were men. Included in these totals: 11% minority participation and 6% youth and young adults. The goal of this ministry is to build and strengthen inclusive participation in decision making at our Annual Conference sessions.

COSROW will sponsor an Empowerment Seminar on September 12, 1998 at Saint Paul UMC in Goldsboro. The theme for this event is "Who Will Hear Their Cry?" More information on the seminar is forthcoming through Connectings and other church media.

The Commission will continue to stand with and share the pain and joy as women grow.

STEWARDSHIP, COMMISSION ON

It sure is good to see a plan come together. In January of 1997 a plan the Commission on Stewardship had been working on for over two years came together in good fashion. Some two years ago we began dreaming of a seminar for new pastors to train them in sound concepts of stewardship. We realize that most pastors come to their first appointments with little or no training specifically in stewardship. And yet they are called upon to lead their congregations in that area. We wanted to do something to address that need. So we brought together several persons to speak to the various facets of stewardship. We invited all pastors who were in their first appointment in this conference and in a relaxed, retreat setting we shared a wealth of material with them. In addition to new pastors we also had pastors who had been in the ministry for many years. The response was overwhelmingly positive. As a result we plan to offer this seminar again in 1998 and possibly for many years to come. We think we are sewing seeds that will produce a good harvest for many years to come.

In addition to the seminar for new pastors we are also working on a conference wide event for all pastors. We haven't set the date but expect this to become a reality in 1999.

The members of the Commission on Stewardship offer ourselves as resource persons for January Workshops, Lay Speaker training courses, and as resources for local church seminars. We have a number of persons available to assist any local church who requests help with stewardship matters. We consider our commission to be a leading source of resource persons in the field of stewardship for the annual conference.

We also offer information on the newest and best printed materials on stewardship. Bill Norton, our staff stewardship contact, keeps us supplied with new, as well as tried and true, programs on funding the ministry of the local church. A call to Bill's office in the United Methodist Building (1-800-849-4433) can put us in touch with the latest materials on the market.

The Reverend Douglas Byrd, Executive Director of the United Methodist Foundation, is a key person to help churches with information on gifts and wills. He can help answer the complicated and often difficult questions about estate planning.

In short, the Commission on Stewardship is prepared to offer innovative and experienced leadership. We have sound, proven programs available to meet the various needs of our local churches. We are willing and eager to help.

WORSHIP, COMMISSION ON

Over the last three years the Conference Commission on Worship has enjoyed great success working under its new format. In 1994 the commission adopted a policy of consumer-based planning, seeking to be as responsive to the needs of our annual conference as possible. Included in this new mode of operation was a decision to use zero-based budgeting, and an examination of those programs which were poorly attended.

As a result of this examination, the budget request of the commission was essentially cut in half, resulting in considerable savings to the annual conference. Despite this budget cut, however, no essential services to the annual conference or to our churches were curtailed.

The major mission for the commission has emerged as the task of planning and executing the worship services for the annual conference session each June. At the annual conference session in June, 1997, participants reported a high degree of satisfaction with the worship services. This satisfaction was reflected in an unprecedented number of participants staying all the way through to an unusually joyous Love Feast occurring near the end of the annual conference proceedings. Many participants reported that they felt the Lord's presence in a special way in all of the 1997 conference worship services.

The Commission on Worship has assumed a major role in the planning and execution of the annual conference session. The commission has converted its four annual meetings (two of which were overnight retreats) into two very intense work sessions. Following guidelines set by the Annual Conference Planning Group, it devises liturgies, plans music, secures musicians and instruments, deploys audio-visual equipment and enlists speakers and liturgists to make the annual conference worship services a reality. The Chairperson of the Commission on Worship also has overall responsibility as the stage manager for all sessions of the annual conference, including worship, business, and drama settings.

A proposal from the Commission on Worship to shorten the annual conference session from four days to three was seriously discussed by the Annual Conference Planning Group, but was eventually rejected as the format for the 1997 annual conference session. The commission may make a similar proposal in the future as a source of further savings to the conference.

While focusing on worship at annual conference, the commission members retain their traditional functions of serving as liturgical resource persons for their respective districts. With God's help, they stand ready to meet all of the worship needs of the people called Methodists in this episcopal area.

CONFERENCE STRUCTURE, TASK FORCE ON

The Task Force on Conference Structure seeks your participation in the Invitational Phase of a three-year process of study and self-assessment toward structural proposal. All agency chairs were trained on May 19 to lead their commission, committees, and boards in self-assessment. Through this process, all persons serving on commissions, committees, and boards will be directly involved in discussion around the issue of conference structure. These eight questions will be used for discussion in each agency, with responses requested back to the Task Force by October 9, 1998.

1. What is your mission, as you see and understand it, in 1998 and beyond?
2. How is your mission aligned with the central task of making disciples, of strengthening local churches, and of providing a connection for ministry?
3. How is your present structure helpful? What is essential? What is unnecessary?
4. What adjustments, mergers, realignments might be helpful?
5. Is there a clear and compelling need for your group in its present configuration in 1998 and beyond? Why or why not?
6. If your group disappeared tomorrow, who would notice?
If your group disappeared tomorrow, who would be affected?
7. If your group disappeared tomorrow, what would rise up?
8. What other thoughts and ideas would you like to offer?

In addition to this process through commissions, committees, and boards, the Task Force on Conference Structure invites broad participation of the annual conference. You are invited to communicate your insights and ideas to Robby Lowry, conference lay leader and chair of the Task Force, at 2056 NC Highway 710 South, Rowland, NC 28383. The Task Force has adopted this time line toward proposals to the 1999 Annual Conference.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

"One Mission-Many Ministries" might sum up our composite report. Increasingly, the Cabinet is becoming more focused on our one mission which is to "win souls for Jesus Christ." Yet at the same time, there is growing creativity about how this mission might be accomplished through our many ministries. Diversity in approaches creates unique expressions of our calling, giving vitality to the 12 districts which comprise the NC Conference.

Our goal is to reach our neighbors both near and far. In fact, the SA District is taking the step of calling upon each church to receive at least one person each year on Profession of Faith.

Congregational development is one way we minister with and to our near neighbors. In high growth areas, new churches were planted this year (RA: New Life and Christ Community, DU: Reconciliation). In areas with poor populations, faith communities have been organized (NB: Jacksonville Hispanic, DU: Durham Hispanic, SA: La Trinidad and El Camina, EC: All God's Children).

These new communities of faith are "breaking down the dividing wall of hostility" that has held us apart racially. Reconciliation Church is an intentionally multi-ethnic congregation begun with the appointment of two pastors, one African American and the other Caucasian. All God's Children is comprised of two-thirds African American and one-third Caucasian participants. The Durham Hispanic Ministry meets every Wednesday evening for worship with Asbury Temple UMC, countering the stereotype that African American and Hispanic communities are in conflict with one another. Clark Street Ministry (RM) continues to develop and grow in its outreach and influence.

Plans are being discussed to open some of our closed churches in order to minister to the rising Hispanic population in eastern NC. The Lay Missioner program will provide new leadership enabling the reopening of churches such as EC: Evans UMC and GR: Grimesland UMC. Thanks to two churches in the BU District where a community-wide Hispanic Vacation Bible School was held. We applaud the efforts being made by pastors and lay persons who are learning other languages in order to communicate with their near neighbors. The DU District has 18 pastors enrolled in Spanish language classes.

Often what is needed is not the establishment of another new church or even a new faith community, but the strengthening of what already exists. For this reason, the Cabinet has made a major commitment to the small membership church. The GR District received their first full-time district DCE this year enabling small churches to achieve strong leadership in the area of Christian Education. The RM District held a workshop using the leadership of Rose Sims, author of New Life For Dying Churches.

Often our near neighbors bear no physical or cultural resemblance to us. Consequently, if we are to reach them with the Gospel of Christ, our churches must change. The sins of racism and prejudice have no place in the Body of Christ. We in the Cabinet confess that we live with the reality that each church is not where it ought to be in its acceptance of all God's people. Yet we see signs of hope through the growing number of cross-racial appointments that are enthusiastically received by local churches and are bearing much fruit.

We are discovering wonderful mission fields within our communities. Through the Bishop's Initiative on Children and Poverty, our eyes are being opened to the needs of the poor. As a result, many creative outreach ministries are being planned.

The FA District, for example, is scheduling a Day Camp to which each church will send one church family. This family will adopt an impoverished unchurched family and bring them as well. A church in the BU District added a new infant care outreach in their community. The WI District has begun the Wilmington Area Rebuilding Ministry (WARM). This new outreach will repair the substandard housing which was identified during the aftermath of Hurricane Fran. The EC District has joined hands with Albemarle Hospital and area churches to form Wesley Hospitality House, a place of refuge for families who have loved ones receiving treatment at the hospital. The FA, NB and RO Districts are building Habitat Houses, and the RO District is cooperating with the Robeson County Church and Community Center to build a Jubilee House near Pembroke. The GO District is ministering to those affected by HIV/AIDS through the Goldsboro AIDS Interfaith Network. GAAIN recruits teams from local churches to minister to those with HIV/AIDS.

At the same time that we are embracing our near neighbors, we are reaching our arms around the world to our far neighbors. In some cases our ministry involves going to them, and in some cases, bringing them to us. Two churches in the RO District sent Youth Mission Work Teams to Appalachia. The EC, GO and DU Districts sent working teams to Jamaica to take medical, technical and spiritual aid. Several persons from the RO District participated in Mission Work Teams to Bolivia and Honduras. The WI District has called all churches to "Get on the Bus." As a result, a used school bus and two 20-foot containers filled with school supplies have been shipped to Liberia.

We are also bringing our neighbors to us. The WI District has received one Russian refugee clergy family who has been adopted by one of the churches and 12 Russian youth will be hosted by two churches this summer. The GO District received three new Bosnian families this past year and the BU District helped to settle a Burmese refugee family.

As we attempt to reach both near and far neighbors, we are noticing an increased desire on the part of pastors and church members to become personally strengthened. Knowing the necessity for a strong spiritual foundation to sustain continued ministries, much attention has been given to nurturing deeper spiritual roots. The rising numbers enrolled in Disciple Bible Study and registered for The Emmaus Walk are clear indicators that our people are gearing up for the challenges God is placing on them. We are also seeing a resurgence of prayer. For example, the GR District held three major Sub-District Prayer Breakfasts, and Spiritual Life Retreats were held in the DU, GR and WI Districts.

Church leaders are turning out in large numbers to be trained. Witness the 117 persons who attended this year's RO District Lay Speaker Training, the 828 who attended the NB District Lay Rally and the 50 laypersons and clergy from the BU District who attended the Church Growth Seminar! The 46th consecutive Annual Christian Enrichment Event was held in the BU District as well, and January Workshops continue to draw large crowds. This year's Mission Saturation Weekends increased our awareness of our far neighbors as they were held in the GR and WI Districts. DU is planning one for 1999.

Beyond individually examining our readiness for ministry, churches and districts have looked collectively at how we might better fulfill our one mission. The downtown churches in the WI District entered into a two-year commitment through the Office of Congregational Development. This pilot project called "Revision" has enabled eight churches to consider their future, not as individual congregations but as United Methodists in Wilmington. The Cabinet has also looked across district lines to discover how we might best organize for ministry. In order to achieve better balance, redistricting will take place at Annual Conference involving five districts: BU, DU, GR, RA and RM.

It goes without saying that we need the appropriate physical facilities to allow all this ministry to take place. Building projects too numerous to name have taken place across our Conference. It is our ardent hope that these facilities will be used to their fullest for the promotion of "One Mission-Many Ministries."

Perhaps the most notable sign of our Conference's growth in its understanding what it means to reach out both near and far is the increased level of acceptance and payment of "Our Mission and Service Giving." We completed this year three points ahead of last year. Praises go to the SA District which once again set the example for all to follow by raising over 100% of their askings.

We would be remiss if we did not mention the faithful extension ministries that are performed by our clergy appointed to various mission fields. Thank you to all who serve as hospital and military chaplains, teachers, counselors, camp directors, college presidents and administrators, evangelists, campus ministers, missionaries, directors and associate directors of our many extension ministries. Without you, our reach would be truncated.

Finally, it must be said that as a Cabinet we feel the pain of a denomination that is fragmented. We recognize that "a house divided against itself cannot stand." We covenant with one another to engage in prayerful dialogue around the issues that separate us, and call upon each of you to do likewise. May we be filled with the gentle love of Jesus, receiving one another as He has received us.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

On behalf of the Duke Endowment, let me express our appreciation for the life and ministry of rural UM churches in NC. The Duke Endowment recognizes rural UM churches as beneficiaries of The Duke Endowment. since 1924 the Endowment has made grants to assist rural churches in building projects, to support programs and outreach ministries of these churches, to assist rural churches in building projects, to support programs and outreach ministries of these churches, to assist Superannuated Preachers, and to aid certain agencies and programs in their work with rural churches. In particular that has meant support of Duke Divinity School in both its Field Education and Continuing Education programs.

Please let me report to you some of the specific expenditures that the Endowment made in 1997.

- * Building Grants. The Duke Endowment assisted 65 rural churches in building projects, making expenditures of $1,688,000. This represents an increase of 15 churches and $220,000 in grants compared to 196. We are seeing more rural churches with confidence in the economy, a desire to grow, and a willingness to reach out to their communities in ministry. I anticipate more requests for building grants in 1999, and I want to alert churches that such building grants are likely to be even more competitive than in the past. The Duke Endowment wants to assist churches that need our help, show promise for ministry, and are actively involved in ministry and outreach in their communities.
- * Child Care and Elder Care Programs. The Duke Endowment made grants of $256,250 to churches engaging in child care and/or elder care ministries. There is a shortage of quality, affordable and accessible child car in rural North Carolina. We note that through child care programs many rural churches experience both the richness of ministry to children and families while also enjoying higher visibility in their communities. Similarly, the needs of an aging population in rural NC mean that churches have a great opportunity to offer programs to help serve that growing population. The Duke Endowment wants to challenge rural churches to offer quality child car and elder care ministries. Please contact the rural church office for details about requirements and expectations for such grants.
- * Superannuated Preachers. The Duke Endowment appreciates the labors of Superannuated preachers. These men and women have sacrificed much to be in service to the church. I am pleased to say that the Trustees of the Endowment have increased support for clergy who served prior to the adoption of the denomination-wide pension program. These retired clergy don't enjoy as generous a pension, and the Endowment wants to help reduce that gap.
- * Duke Divinity School. The Endowment has made grants of $790,150 in support of Summer and Winter Assistance pastors and Student Pastors. This Summer 77 Duke Divinity School students are working in rural UM churches across the State. These students offer a wonderful service to the churches, and in return they gain valuable experience and training in the rural church. Grants totaling $65,000 went to continuing education programs at Duke. These grants help rural clergy renew their spirits while also gaining new skills and knowledge for effective ministry.

The staff of The Duke Endowment wants to help clergy and laity of our rural churches provide leadership for service and mission in NC. Please call and tell us about your rural church's outreach program or your dreams for mission in your community. The Rural Church Office is located in Durham at 3329 Durham-Chapel Hill Blvd., Durham,, NC 27717-1307, telephone 919-489-3359, FAX 919-489-3350, EMail jmann@tde.org. Val Rosenquist, Barbara Hilliard, Shelby Wallen, and I hope to hear from you and see how we might be of assistance to you as you engage in ministry in your rural community.

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

Bishop Edwards, Members and Friends of the North Carolina Annual Conference: It is a distinct privilege for me to report to you as chair of the Committee on Episcopacy, whose representatives serve as a liaison between the Bishop and the Conference.

In 1994, I was privileged to serve as one of the two official representatives of The United Methodist Church's General Conference to the British Conference meeting at Leeds, England. I got to see firsthand the workings of British Methodism, which as you know does not have bishops. It has always been a curiosity for me that Mr. Wesley in his understanding of the primitive church was convinced that his orders were at the same status as those of a bishop. He ordained ministers, but he resisted institutionalizing this in Great Britain. In fact, there is a famous letter from Wesley to Coke and Asbury, the first two Bishops of American Methodism, dated September 20, 1788, in which he stated he could be called a knave or a fool but never a bishop.

Wesley may not have understood our needs in America as well as Asbury did. I came away from that experience in Leeds with a sincere appreciation for the genius of our form of church government. The UMC is unique in setting apart those we trust for specialized ministry.

From the days of Asbury and Coke we have invested the work of supervision and direction of our church to those elected and consecrated to this office. Marion Edwards is the 566th person to be set apart and given this sacred trust.

We are grateful for Bishop Edwards and his supervision of the temporal and spiritual affairs of our church. He is a person of prayer and devotion. He is a person of abiding love for all those in his care. He and his wife, Linda, have shown us the meaning of effective and caring leadership. Who can ever forget the image of this bishop standing beside the road offering water to those who thirsted following hurricane Fran? Who could ever forget his sensitivity and concern in addressing the needs of one of our historic colleges in this conference which has faced difficult times?

For church leaders across America, his contribution to the final document at the Special Consultation on Theological Diversity was masterful. For us in this Conference there is the knowledge that countless pastors and lay persons have turned to him for wise counsel, encouragement, consultation and prayer. Many of us have had a note or a call when we really needed it, at a time of loss, pain or hurt.

Our committee has met twice since last Annual Conference. We have brought with us this day our very best wishes for Bishop Edwards and his wife, Linda. The time and attention he devotes to the responsibilities of his office ensure effective and commanding leadership. There are virtually no Sundays when he is not preaching in one of the pulpits of this conference. For all of this we are grateful.

I call on you to open your hearts and minds to the vision of ministry that Marion Edwards brings. We know him as far more than an administrator - he is first and foremost a pastor. We believe we can trust the direction he is taking us as a conference. As the chair of this committee, I report to you that we are blessed and privileged to have the Edwards family among us. Thank God for the spiritual presence and ministry of Marion and Linda Edwards.

Bishop Edwards, I would consider it a privilege to offer a prayer for you. And as I do, I ask the members of this Conference to stand and join hands as we pledge ourselves anew to God and ask for his guidance.

O God, shepherd of our souls, savior and redeemer, thank you for your servant Marion and his helpmate Linda.

Ungird and strengthen them we pray. Especially, in the course of this conference and in the months before us, give to our Bishop health and strength, wisdom and courage for all the tasks that are his. Give him the ability to call upon you and seek your guidance and to leave the burdens of his office in your hands. Enlarge his understanding and renew his vision by your grace, that your servant Marion may lead us into a new day with new hope and renewed mission.

May the blessings you bestow redound to your glory always through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HISPANIC MINISTRIES, TASK FORCE ON

January 1997 - April 1998

Ciertamente la cosecha es mucha, pero los trabajadores son pocos. ("The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.") Matthew 9:35

In 1996 there were an estimated 258,000 Hispanics residing within NC, and the number continues to grow daily. Perhaps two-thirds of these reside within the bounds of the NC Conference. In 1998, the NC Conference was blessed to have two pastors working diligently to establish and continue existing Hispanic ministry in three geographic areas: Reverend Hector Millan, pastor of Chatham-Lee Hispanic Ministries, with mission churches El Camino in Siler City and La Trinidad in Sanford. Reverend Edgardo Colón-Emeric was appointed in July 1997 in the Durham District.

Local Hispanic ministries continue to emerge throughout the Conference: at University UMC in Chapel Hill through their collaboration with El Camino in Siler City, in the Burlington District with the Hispanic Vacation Bible School offered during the summer of 1997, Fuquay-Varina UMC's outreach with Iglesia Cristiana in Fuquay-Varina, and in Jacksonville at Trinity UMC with their Hispanic worship service which began in the fall of 1997.

National Plan for Hispanic Ministries Lay Missioner-Pastor Mentor Training

But much more opportunity for ministry with Hispanics exists in the NC Conference. To prepare the "laborers" for the harvest, the Hispanic Ministries Task Force, first convened by Bishop Edwards in January 1997, has sought to increase the number of "laborers" by offering Lay Missioner/Pastor-Mentor Training for Module I of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries. Four nationally recognized trainers were brought in during January and February 1998 to provide training. We are grateful for a grant from the Duke Endowment and for funding from Duke Divinity School Continuing Theological Education which has allowed us so far to train 40 participants from both the Western NC and NC Conferences. An additional Module I training is planned in August-September 1998, and a Module II training is scheduled for October 1998, for lay missioners and pastor-mentors who have completed six months of service in establishing faith communities.

Consultant for Implementation of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries

After the Task Force submitted a preliminary proposal for funds from the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry in November 1997, Dr. Aida Irizarry-Fernandez, an elder in the Northern New Jersey Conference, was appointed as our consultant for implementation of the National Plan and grant application preparation. During site visits in February and March 1998, Dr. Irizarry-Fernandez recommended the Task Force commit to the following:

1. Take steps for representation on the Conference Council on Ministries and seek greater funding for implementation of the National Plan for Hispanic ministry in the NC Conference.
2. Provide training in the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries to all members of the Cabinet.
3. Consider how the Conference might establish and fund a Coordinator of Hispanic Ministries for the Conference.

We pray that the Lord of the Harvest will continue to send out laborers into the harvest which continues to grow daily in NC.

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

The award for the Annual Conference Lay Person of the Year is very important in that it represents the many types of ministry by laity in our local churches, communities, districts, annual conference, and throughout the world. It is always exciting to read the nominations when the executive committee of the Commission on laity meets to select the person from the district lay persons of the year. I would like to introduce our district lay persons of the year and ask that they stand as their name is called and please give them a warm round of applause after all are standing:

Burlington: Sue Hartnett Harvin is a member of Carrboro UMC. She is recognized as the District Lay Person because of her endless energy toward missions. The "hands of Christ" extend far and wide through her involvement in Habitat, Disability Awareness, and the settlement of refugees. She lives out her faith within the community.

Durham: Mark Galloway is a District Judge and member of Long Memorial UMC. One of his accomplishments is the founding of a Mentor Program for troubled youth in Person and Caswell counties. With the church's ministry emphasis on children and youth, his witness is exemplary. He is a person who "lets his light shine"

Elizabeth City: A member of Plymouth UMC, Eunice Britton Carraway is a faithful and active church member. She is a warm and compassionate Christian who prepares food for others, works at the food pantry, and is a leader and teacher locally, within the District, and Conference. She is loved by her church and community.

Goldsboro: JoAnn Stroud is a member of Sarecta UMC. She spends hours of time lovingly caring for the elderly in her community. She cooks, chauffeurs, and is a spiritual companion while being a humble and consistent church member. As a pillar of the church, she quietly and effectively organizes ministry within the life of the church.

Greenville: W. Dwight Waters is a dedicated person of God who is a member of Asbury UMC. He serves his church as a certified lay speaker, helping in worship services, and leads their "First Response" evangelism team. He responds faithfully and carefully as a called Christian, and his spirit of enthusiasm and support encourages others. He claims and lives out his calling to serve Christ through his service to the church.

New Bern: As a member of Trinity UMC in New Bern, Betty Shields teaches, plans, and leads in many different areas of church life. Her commitment to Christ is lived out in concrete service to her local church, community, and Conference. She is involved in outreach projects such as prison ministries and ministries to the homeless. Her tireless efforts are an inspiration to all.

Raleigh: Helen Little is a member of Horne Memorial UMC. If one word could be used to describe her, that word would be "passionate". She has a deep love for Christ and the church. This is demonstrated by her involvement in ministries such as teaching, mission trips, Heifer project, and prison ministry. She lives her life in service to God.

Rockingham: Wade Hunt is an active member of Prospect UMC. He is a people person, serving others with the spirit of Christ. He helps distribute food to the needy in the community. He is a certified lay speaker, a volunteer in mission trips, a leader in Native American ministries. He founded a popular ecumenical annual Youth Rally. Mr. Hunt serves God with vision and enthusiasm.

Rocky Mount: Dennis Sherrod's leadership is one of the most exciting aspects of ministry at Bailey UMC. He is a visionary and catalyst. The church has made tremendous leaps of faith under his leadership. He has served on many church committees and been involved in the community. He loves Christ and lives out Christ's mission with contagious enthusiasm

Sanford: Maxine Jones is a true servant of God and the church. As a member of Pittsboro UMC, she is a trusted helper, willing worship assistant, and primary prayer supporter. She is involved in District Mission activities and activities of the Annual Conference. As a church leader she is faithful, loyal, and committed.

Wilmington: Becky Kirtley generously uses her gifts to the glory of God through Camp UMC, generously using her gifts to the glory of God. She coordinates the new Sunbeam Care Ministry to the sick, lonely, and home-bound. She participates in outreach programs through the District and Conference connection. She is the "heartbeat" of this church's community. Her faith is gentle, enduring, unpretentious, and charitable to all.

Our Conference Lay Person of the Year is one who is always seeking ways to help others. In the local church he is a member of the Staff/pastor relations Committee, the Administrative Council, Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, active in United Methodist Men and is a certified lay speaker who provides well prepared sermons in the church. He envisioned and was instrumental in the birth of Youth rally in the local church and it is now an annual event that is also ecumenical. At the last event there was over 600 in attendance with 15 youth making a profession of faith. He serves as a church usher, is a teacher in the youth division of the Sunday School, and assists with the tape ministry to those physically unable to attend church.

He is a member of the District Commission on Missions and Conference Board of Missions. he participated in work missions to native people of Bolivia and has given presentations to churches in the district and at Lake Junaluska. Upon his return from the bolivia mission he helped to initiate additional fund raising for the projects where he worked.

He is the site coordinator for the Communities in Schools Program (a program that helps at-risk children), is a member of the county recreation commission and he serves as a public announcer for the sports events in the local schools where the children have deep admiration and respect for him. He retired from the public school system as a school principal.

Having come to the saving grace of God through his profession of faith in Jesus Christ four years ago, he is working tirelessly to "make up the time." He researched and developed a workshop of United Methodist Heritage for the native American Cooperative Ministry. He was invited to share this in other churches and with the District UMM.

The scripture states, "Let this mind be in you that was also in Christ Jesus." Jesus was always thinking of and helping others. Our Conference Lay Person of the Year is one who works diligently at having the mind of Christ. He is a "people person," who seeks to serve others. Our Conference Lay Person of the Year is Wade C. Hunt, a member of the largest Native American UMC in our denomination.

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS

It is my pleasure at this time to share with you some informal and largely extemporaneous words that will reflect, in some fashion, my sense and understanding of some of the important dimensions of the state of our church in the NC Annual Conference.

Linda and I have been traveling across the NC Annual Conference for nearly two years, come September, and I'm pleased to report to you that NC is now in my blood. In fact, the other day, I had a check up at the doctor's office and when they stuck that needle in my finger, the results came back: "This blood contains particles of Spivey's Corner, I-95, and the Great Dismal Swamp." Twenty-one months have passed since Linda and I left Georgia and traveled to NC, into the very winds of the storm Fran, and I must confess to you as we were trying to hide in discreet places that night in the episcopal residence, we were humming "Georgia on My Mind." But I want to say to you now that when we go back down to Georgia on our visits, I often find myself singing "North Carolina on My Mind." I can even now pronounce some of your names - for example, there's "Chocowinity" (did I say it right?) - Let me put my glasses on for this one now - there's "Conetoe." There's "Pasquotank," and now after being vividly reminded by one of the gracious ladies of NC, I no longer say "North Car-lina." I'm trying to remember to say "North Car-O-lina." Belton Joyner tells me when I have finished all of the local church commitments on my calendar, and that's into the year 2000, I will have been in over 250 local churches of this Annual Conference.

What really delights Linda and me as we cross from Alamance to Currituck and Warren to Brunswick counties is this: It is those very delightful little blue signs that you have erected pointing people to the location of our UM churches. You've seen them, haven't you? Some of them need painting, sometimes they've got a little steeple roof on them, and sometimes they are rectangular; but somewhere on that sign, there is the name of a UM church along with some words of direction - one mile in this direction or that, three blocks, turn left. I love these little blue signs because the little blue signs tell me over and over again that UM people of eastern NC have had, in the near and distant past, a heart for evangelism and outreach. They have sought in thousands of different ways to make visible, over and over again, the presence of Jesus Christ in the Wesleyan tradition in countless communities across our eastern NC world.

These little blue signs tell us about that heart for evangelism and outreach into our world. However, I come today to tell you that I have a dream. I am dreaming of a day when there will be a new generation of those little blue signs. Some of those new generation signs will be repainted signs of long-established UM churches that reflect a revitalized ministry taking place in those church ministries that are finding ways of pushing out the walls and claiming the missionary territories around their churches and in their communities.

Then I hope there'll be a whole new generation of absolutely new little blue signs to remind us that we walk in the tradition of a man who declared that "the world is my parish," and that there will be emerging new blue signs that will break from our normal comfort zones to find ways to be the church in new communities among unchurched, among boomers, busters, Generation Xers, and what I now understand is called the "millennium generation." I want to see these little blue signs in unusual places, in unexpected communities, among the poor, among the ethnic groupings of our Annual Conference, among the poor in spirit as well as the poor in goods. I want to see those little signs send a signal that we are recovering the mission of some congregations that thought they were going to die. I want to see those little signs make the expanding presence of those who claim God's powerful grace in eastern NC. I want to see those blue signs pointing to emerging ministries among children at risk, not just our children, but all children at risk. I want to see emerging signs in predominately African American communities and among Hispanics. I want to see those new signs among small churches, re-focused congregations. I'd like to see us surround our college campuses and universities, where there is a spiritual hunger among young people and college students today, unknown in this century, with that little blue sign as we claim our college campuses as a mission field, where we have lots of students who have never been to church before they got to college. I dream of the day in this emerging 21st century, when pastors and laity have a new vision for winning people to Jesus Christ and His church.

I have discovered something as we have been driving across NC. I've seen with new eyes things that I never saw as the pastor of a local church quite like I see it now. I believe that there is not a church in the NC Annual Conference that cannot grow numerically if we drop some of our barriers. I'm talking about those non-verbal barriers that we hang all around our churches, inside and on the grounds outside, that communicate in various ways that "You are really not welcomed here." I hope we can drop the racism barrier. I hope we can drop the economic barrier. I hope we can drop the social barrier. And if we will drop those barriers, folks, there is not a church in NC that cannot report on the pastor's Annual Conference report net gains in membership because we have reached out with hearts full of compassion to people not like us. Always, every church can grow. If we drop those barriers, that means that every pastor and every local congregation and its laity can develop a new heart for people.

I remember one of the mentors of my ministry, Vernon Robertson, when I was youth director at Fort Valley Church. I learned more from him about how to run a church and be a pastor than I did anywhere else, including college and seminary. He would take me out on Saturday afternoons and we would knock on doors among the unchurched and he would say, "I'll be by for you on Sunday morning 20 minutes before Sunday School." Then he'd go out with three or four runs in his own car, and he would bring in carloads full of people for Sunday School and church. I've never forgotten that model. It's called a heart for people, a concern for folks. The time will come in this Annual Conference, when every pastor will walk around with a working prospect list in their pocket, either in their coat or in their open shirt, and it's a working prospect list of people that you have discovered and named and are praying for. You're working. They're either front burner prospects or they are back burner prospects, but you are praying over them, and you are working. You know what I think I'm going to do everywhere I go. I think I'll ask each pastor to show me your working prospect list. If we drop those barriers, my friends, there should be no barren churches in the NC Annual Conference.

I think I know a way to start that journey that I'm envisioning and dreaming about for our conference. I think I know a way, from the Cabinet's perspective, we can help to raise those little blue signs in new and distinctive places. I would like to call for a realignment and an expanding definition for the Office of Congregational Development in our Annual Conference. I've been your bishop now for two cycles of appointment-making and as I have visited with pastor-parish relation committees in every district in many churches, it's become very clear to me that the bishop and the Cabinet have a far greater responsibility than just to appoint new pastors to churches, and churches to receive new pastors. As I have listened to pastor-parish relations committees and as pastors talk with me, I have discovered that many of the problems our churches are facing cannot be solved by receiving a new pastor. Their problems are deeper, systemic, and have been there, in some cases, for years and generations. I've said to a number of staff-parish relations committees, "I would like to suggest that you bring the director of our Office of Congregational Development into your church for study and reflection of your situation, and to help you understand what the issues are and what the needs and challenges of your congregation are." It suddenly has dawned upon me after nearly two years, that the work of the Congregational Development Office is at the heart of my ministry as your bishop in this area. The Office of Congregational Development must take seriously the multicultural character of the population of the 56 counties of this Annual Conference as we expand our work, especially among the poor. Congregational Development in all sectors must be a priority of my ministry and the work of the Cabinet, and I need the Office of Congregational Development directly related and answerable to me in this capacity. I would like to request, therefore, the realignment of this Office of Development to an office relating to the bishop and the Cabinet. The realignment would remove the Office of Congregational Development from the Conference Council on Ministries. It would give that office a single focus with no responsibility for programming in other areas of the conference and it would work directly under our supervision. This realignment is in the spirit of ¶263 of the Book of Discipline, which links the work of Congregational Development primarily with the bishop, and secondarily, with missions and evangelism. This sort of an alignment with the episcopal office is already taking place across the church, especially in places like North Georgia and Florida and the Holston conferences, who have already preceded us in this kind of alignment. I ask you to give careful consideration to this.

Another factor that calls for this is the need to work closely with the redevelopment of small-membership churches and charges. There's a desperate need to deploy pastors in small-membership churches in a way that does not break the economic back of that church, but enables them to have finances for larger needs, missions and ministries of that church. We've already turned over this responsibility to the Office of Congregational Development and a small task force in our Cabinet headed by Dr. Sid Huggins. This will be an important part of our ongoing relationship with that office.

I propose that the director of the Office of Congregational Development be appointed annually by the bishop and the Cabinet. This director would not be a member of the Cabinet but would meet with the Cabinet when requested for consultation. The realignment would not entail the adding of any new funds. The salary of the director would be the current salary that is being paid to an associate director of the CCOM. The funds would simply be shifted in the adoption of the Annual Conference budget from the CCOM to this new office. The tenure of the director would be an annual appointment rather than tenured for a specific period of time. When a change is made in this staff position, and it will be, as all UM appointments change, we will search nationally for the person to fill that position, starting in our own Annual Conference, looking to engage a person who has the expertise and the specialty skills that the Office demands. It is not a position to be filled by a generalist. Later in this session, there will be a motion and request brought from the Dean of our Cabinet to implement this recommendation in our conference. I sincerely pray that you will give this matter serious consideration. It is a place where I think we can begin as a Cabinet to more frequently raise those little blue signs across NC.

Let's focus on another dimension for awhile. As I've been traveling across this conference, not only have I been dreaming of those little blue signs, but I've been observing and listening to what must happen if we are truly to build the body of Christ in this Annual Conference beyond where it already is today.

First of all, I want to report to you that I have observed the movement of the Holy Spirit at work in this Annual Conference. I have a rare privilege that few of you have. I am charged to travel the connection. I see it wholistically where many of you see it only from your local church and your own position. I want to report to you that the Holy Spirit is at work in this Annual Conference in exciting ways. I see it among the new churches that we've started. We are the model for the whole church in many ways. Our Office of Congregational Development, our goal of starting five new churches every year - sometimes we reach it, sometimes we don't - is the envy of many, many other annual conferences, and research has shown that most of the net gain of 800 plus members in 1997 came through those new churches we've established. God is at work in phenomenal ways.

Recently, I worshiped at Seaside church down in the Wilmington district and I came away singing, "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow." As we see one of our new churches, 10 years old now, maturing and coming into a life of its own and this year, they bring to this Annual Conference 100% of the request we have made for a fund to establish faith communities in small-membership faith communities.

I want to tell you that something is happening in children's ministry in this conference. In response to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty, wonderful things are happening. Even with the racism that still lingers among us, significant things are happening in cross-racial appointments and in heightening the sensitivity of people to the issues surrounding our multicultural world. There are breakthroughs in congregations where 10 years ago, it would have been impossible and would not occur, but it's happening now. Wonderful things are happening in evangelism. Eight hundred plus (net) new members - it really ought to be 8,000 - for 1997, but do you know that we are one of the few annual conferences in the connection where we've had a net growth in membership, a net growth in the number of new churches, a net growth in worship attendance, a net growth in Sunday School attendance, all in the bounds of the NC Annual Conference. Something is going right.

Often I get a letter from a disgruntled person (can you believe that Bishop Norris?) and sometimes they'll say, "No wonder the UM Church is losing members." I want to write back and say to them, "You must understand that you are not talking about The UMC of North Carolina." We're growing, and I think we are going to do far better in the days and years that are ahead in this area. I believe that we are dropping in significant places those "Not Welcomed" signs that we have hung in earlier years. There's evidence of it as we move around.

I've been listening as I've traveled across this conference. My list of interesting things is almost as long as the list that the bishop read about the pastor's duties from the Discipline. Let me just tell you about a few of the people I've been sitting at table with, listening to, in these nearly two years. I've been listening to small-membership pastors and laity. I've been listening to Native American pastors and laity. I've been listening to local pastors who often feel ostracized, and I believe a new day is ahead for their ministry. I've been listening to Anglo pastors and laity, the majority community in this Annual Conference. I've been listening to African American pastors and laity. I've been twice to the youth Pilgrimage, where thousands of young people have gathered in this place and in civic centers across this conference. I've been twice now to the Bishop's Confirmation Day with children. I've been listening to Hispanics, to clergy women, to college presidents and chaplains, to reconciling groups, to UMW, and to UMM. I'm sitting on boards of our institutions. I've been to Peru, to Armenia, and to Lithuania. I have been listening to the people of this Annual Conference.

Also, I've been listening in another way. Believe me, I've been listening in this way. It's through my mail. I see Sandy Smith smiling. Every time I go out of town for a few weeks, she sings, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow. There'll be no more dictation!" Folks, I have received a thousand, 1,500, 2,000 letters, more than that if we added them up between the time I arrived, and now, in this Annual Conference. It used to be my wife and my children that kept me humble but, today, my mail keeps me humble. I'll read one letter and I'm the best thing since sliced bread. I read the next letter and I'm the devil incarnate. I've been listening through my mail and it's been revealing. Sometimes they've written me things I needed to hear because I've been wrong. Sometimes, I just need to hear what people are thinking, and I've been listening. In more recent months, since January, I've been listening concerning the theological and social diversity around the question of homosexuality, and I have spoken very clearly on what I understand the position of the church to be on this issue. I still stand there. I am, as a bishop, required to interpret the church on this position as it is. I've stood there with that position, not because the Discipline says it alone, but out of some very careful and agonizing theological and biblical study. It is indeed my personal position, and I don't apologize for it. It is where I am and who I am. But I want to say to you that there are some people whom I deeply respect, who read the Bible and who read the Gospels, and who do not interpret the Scripture the way I do. I want you to know that I think we must respect one another, find ways of talking to one another, and learning to listen and share.

This has happened to me in the last year through a very personal experience. I was invited to be one of four bishops to serve on a dialogue of theological diversity created with 23 people from across our UMC. It was brought together by our General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns to help deal with divisive issues emerging in our church. It was a very revealing experience as persons of various theological and social perspectives sat at table. It was a struggle. We met twice extensively, and finally, I think only by the grace of God, we emerged from our last meeting to issue a paper entitled, "In Search of Unity," which we have given to the whole denomination. That paper diagnoses and gives some very positive recommendations about how our church needs to move into the future in the midst of our great diversity. I happen to believe that this document, at the center of it, has a special word for us in NC. It calls us to live out in each of our annual conferences a similar dialogue as we modeled for the whole church when we met in Nashville and Dallas. We had an outside facilitator that came in to direct us through some very controversial and touchy issues and to keep us on target, and I would recommend that we engage in this conference in a similar kind of dialogue. Before I put some arms and legs on this, I want to talk to you a little bit from my own personal experience of pastoral ministry and ministry as a bishop - some of the convictions I have about why we need to stay in conversation with one another around the table, not asking anyone to give up their own very, very important convictions, but at least to stay at the table.

First of all, we need to do it because Jesus made it clear that He wanted us to remain in unity, and that we need to pay the price for whatever it may take to try to achieve that unity. Secondly, because our theological forefather, John Wesley, in more than one of his sermons, called the people of Methodism to be in unity. So I believe that we need to talk, not about division, but we need to find a way to come together at the table, holding close our convictions, but willing to listen and hear those who differ with us.

A third reason I feel we need to be in conversation is because Jesus has taught us, in that wonderful scene with the woman caught in adultery, two very clear things. He has said to us that we're to be accountable. Sin is sin. Right is right. Wrong is wrong and we're to sin no more. But He also said to us that not only is that a law, but there is a law of grace. We are not to throw stones. That's the message - those who have convictions have a right to stand by them when they are based on biblical, doctrinal grounds. But whichever side you're on in this issue, we in this church are not in the rock-throwing business.

One more reason why I think we need to be in conversation is because our Discipline clearly takes its stand on the question of homosexuality, but quickly reminds us that "All persons are of sacred worth and are welcome in the family of faith." If they are welcome, we need to be in conversation with them and hear them.

Another reason I think we need to be at the table together is my own personal pastoral journey across the years of my ministry. Numerous times, I have struggled with persons of homosexual orientation about their faith. Numerous times, I have sat with mothers and fathers who have persons of homosexual orientation as children. At times, several in particular as I remember it, I have worked with persons who were dying of AIDS. One of them died in my arms. My pastoral ministry tells me that we must find ways of talking and listening, even though we profoundly differ on what we understand the Gospel to be.

Another reason why I think we must talk to one another is that there are some people I disagree with, but love and respect, and who evidence the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and they differ with me on this issue. I would be very self-righteous if I would not be willing to talk and to hear and to share. I do not have God in a box. I do not know that I understand Jesus's parable of the wheat and the tares. I've been struggling. Earlier this week, I spent several hours in my study after Linda had gone to bed, looking at all the exegesis I could find on that parable of the wheat and the tares. I don't understand it altogether. Some of you probably understand it better than I, but one thing I do believe that parable tells us is that there are some things we need to leave to God's judgment and not ours. Now that does not mean that I back up or soft-pedal what I think is the position of the church, but it does mean some things I will submit to God as we continue to talk.

I'd like a word of counsel to be offered to the two audiences on this subject. First of all, to those who uphold the position of the church as I do. Beware of how you throw stones. Beware of your rhetoric. Make sure that in defending Christ, you do not deny Christ with your attitude and your spirit. To those who believe that our church's stand is in error, may I remind you that not everyone who disagrees with you is homophobic. There are some of us who struggle with breaking hearts and have to come out at the position where we have come out. I hope you will respect the fact that earnest, sincere people disagree, and they are not in their disagreements, homophobics. We have a lot of homophobics out there. That's people who are simply not willing to talk about it, but a word of counsel to both sides of this issue.

So as bishop of the church, I support our church's position, and I'd like to call for several things in NC. I'd like to call our church to a season of dialogue around our diversity, and I want that dialogue to be around more than the question of homosexuality. I want it to be a theological dialogue. I want it to be a cultural, multicultural, racial dialogue that brings together people in our conference from a beautiful rainbow, where we find ways to sit together - Anglo, African American, Hispanic, Asian American, and then those who disagree on the subject of homosexuality. Let us enter into a season of conversation together, respecting one another's journeys and commitments. Let's use the document produced by the dialogue session that I participated in called, "In Search of Unity," as a basic resource.

I am asking our Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, through a selected group, to join with our Cabinet to develop a plan for conference dialogue in NC. I would like to ask that group to report ultimately to the Cabinet, and then from the Cabinet to local churches, pastors, and laity alike as to what our plan of action will be. Perhaps it will take more than one year to accomplish this and we will report on our progress at the Bishop's Day Apart for clergy order on November 9, if you will mark your calendar. That will be one of the agenda items that we will share when we come together at that time. This plan will be designed by both laity and clergy in this conversation, and it will be a way to open conversation on all fronts, not only the homosexual question, but the wonderful rainbow of multicultural communities within our annual conference.

In conclusion, there's a wonderful story which came out of the recent Pentecost Sunday. It was time in one local church for the annual Pentecost procession to begin, and the little children were all prepared. They had Holy Spirit wands in their hand and the wands were made of wooden dowels with bright crepe paper streamers, red and yellow and orange, the colors of fire. The children had rehearsed the movements of the streamers - gentle circles, ovals, figure eights. As they walked into the sanctuary and down the aisles, they were supposed to beautifully orchestrate those movements. But as always, there were two particular little children who began to play with their Holy Spirit wands. They began to poke each other and tap each other on the head. It spread from two to three to four until suddenly as the procession went down the aisle, the adults had lost complete control. The Holy Spirit procession was out of control. There may be a message here for us. We are Pentecost people. The Spirit is poured out upon us. The Spirit is the gift promised by Jesus himself. "I will go," he said, "and my Spirit will come." The victory is complete and the battle has been won by Jesus Christ through his death and resurrection, his ascension, and the coming of the Holy Spirit. But it may not always be beautifully, evenly orchestrated. Sometimes, the Holy Spirit may be working in the midst of our diversity, in our difference of opinion; and what we think may be great turmoil, may be the winds of the Spirit moving among us. So what is the state of the church in NC - God only knows.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. entered its 43rd year of stewardship ministry for United Methodism in the NC Conference on January 1, 1998 with assets of $61,229,359. This represents an increase in assets of approximately $11,000,000 during 1997, the largest annual increase in assets since the Foundation was established in 1955. The year 1997 was also a record-breaking year in the number of new accounts opened (81 new accounts) as well as the largest total investment return (over $8,600,000) in the Foundation's history.

The growth of UMF has paralleled an increasing awareness of the importance of long-range planning and long-term funding of causes of the Church as well as the value of prudent gift and estate planning on the part of individuals and families. Twenty one (21) new endowments, six (6) new charitable gift annuities, four (4) new charitable remainder trusts, and fifty (50) new revocable investment accounts were established in 1997. All of these statistics point to significant increases of financial support for varied mission and ministry causes of the Church.

In 1997 the net income credited to or paid out to unit-holders was $1,448,470 while the net realized and unrealized gains on investments amounted to $7,186,032 for a total investment return of 15.81%. Annual average rates of return on investments for the Foundation have been: 3 years - 15.66% per year; 5 years - 11.68% per year; 10 years - 10.97% per year.

Since 1996 The Consulting Group of Salomon Smith Barney has been the investment consultant for the Foundation. The present asset allocation model which provides for wide diversification of investments consists of 60% equities and 40% fixed income investments. The equity investments managers are: Oppenheimer Capital (Large Cap Value), Montag & Caldwell (Large Cap Growth), Furman Selz (Small Cap), and Brandes Investment Partners (International). The fixed income managers are Invesco (Intermediate Term Securities) and Oxford Mortgage Corporation (Mortgage Loans).

The nearly 500 accounts which make up the Foundation's portfolio provide strong financial support across a spectrum as wide as the mission and ministry of the Church. Each account consists of gifts made by donors in support of causes of the Church and prudently managed and invested by the Foundation as custodian and/or trustee.

The Foundation office continues to provide a continuum of planned giving resources and services which assist donors in making gifts and establishing gift plans in support of their local church and other causes of the Church. Planned Giving Handbook for Churches of the North Carolina Conference, a resource published by UMF and given to each charge, has been a vital tool for local churches establishing planned giving and endowment programs. (The 1998 revised edition was distributed in the spring of 1998 to every charge.) Supporting consultation, resources, and hands-on assistance have been provided for every church which has requested the Foundation's assistance in making planned giving and endowments a part of their total stewardship program.

Through the distribution of stewardship education information and materials, through leadership in estate and gift planning workshops, and through other planned giving presentations the Foundation has taken this wider and deeper dimension of Christian stewardship into every local church where invited. A significant impact is being seen in churches which include long-range planning and funding in their total stewardship program.

With approval given by the 1997 Annual Conference, the Board of Directors of the Foundation approved a revised and restated Charter of Incorporation and new Bylaws. The new Board of Directors (15 directors) met and officially organized on December 9, 1997, and continues to meet quarterly. During 1997 a 10-year goal of making UMF financially self-supporting was completed. Therefore, the Foundation no longer receives financial support from the NC Conference.

[On January 5, 1998 the Foundation offices were moved to the West Wing of the UM Building in Raleigh. The physical address is 1307 Glenwood Avenue / Suite 153, Raleigh, NC 27605. The new phone numbers are (800) 555-4718 (toll free) and (919) 836-0029. The FAX number remains the same - (919) 834-7989. The mailing address remains the same - POBox 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.]

We welcome calls and visits to the Foundation office, and we welcome opportunities to assist persons who want to make gifts to benefit their local church and/or causes of the Church. We welcome continuing opportunities to assist local churches organize and develop strong stewardship programs which include the components of planned giving and endowments. The Foundation is also pleased to continue providing assistance and support services for any and all causes of the Church when requested.

The Board of Directors and staff of UMF extends to the NC Conference its deep appreciation for the faithful and generous support given to this stewardship ministry through the years, and we also express our sincere gratitude to the many donors whom we have been privileged to assist in their gift planning in response to the blessings which God has entrusted with them.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

As of January, 1998, there were 216 active nationally chartered United Methodist Men's fellowships in the NC Conference, representing a decrease of 30 over the preceding year. Although this was a decrease of almost 12%, there are still almost three-fourths of the charges in the conference that have no chartered men's organization.

Founded on evangelism, mission and spiritual life, UMM seek to build a Christian community among themselves and witness to the world their faith in our Lord and Savior. We work both to serve the congregations of which we are a part, and to do God's work in the larger society that surrounds us. We share with others the Good News of God's Grace, we respond to the cries of the needy where possible, and through fellowship with each other, we nurture the Holy Spirit within each of us.

Conference officers for 1998 are Guy Tilley, president; Bruce Keyser, vice-president; Mack Parker, secretary; and Frank Cox, treasurer. District presidents are Robert W. Self, Burlington; Mike Askew, Elizabeth City; Jessie Callahan, Fayetteville; Steve Walker, Goldsboro; George Avery, Greenville; Kenneth Lymaster, New Bern; Bill Moon, Raleigh; Donald Rainer, Rockingham; B. D. Rabil, Rocky Mount; Gary Frick, Sanford; and Valton Ray, Wilmington. At the time of this report, the Durham district is without a district president.

Priority conference goals for this year are:

1. To increase the number of active chartered fellowships in each district. Charter fees are $50.00.
2. To increase participation in district and conference events and projects.
3. To increase EMS memberships. EMS members are men who support connexional UMM programs through annual membership fees of $25.00, which include a subscription to the national UMM publication "Men's News".
4. To further underwrite the Meals for Millions project of the Society of Saint Andrew. This is a program to provide low cost potato meals to hungry people across the United States, which is being accomplished at an amazing one cent per serving. Local UMM groups are being asked to accept a challenge fellowship of $10.00 per member per year and to distribute Meals For Millions lapel pins throughout their congregations and elsewhere in exchange for a small donation. In addition, they are asked to participate in the Society's Gleaning Network and Mile of Pennies program.
5. To support the work of the Upper Room Prayer Center in Nashville both through financial contributions and participation in the national telephone prayer ministry. The UMM will man the prayer lines at the Annual Conference in June and at the fall meeting in November. The men of the conference gave $1000.00 to this ministry.
6. To continue and increase our support of the scouting movement through sponsorship of Boy Scout and Cub Scout Units. Twelve (12) Bishops Awards of Excellence were presented at Annual Conference.
7. To support the disaster response and repair program in the conference.

We look forward to the UMM continuing to be a vital organization within the United Methodist Church, and invite men of all ages to join us in our work and fellowship.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The 1997-2000 Quadrennial Theme for United Methodist Women in the NC Conference is "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry." The focus for 1997 was "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry Through Loving." The focus for 1998 is "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry Through Living." 1997 marked the 25th Birthday of UMW. We have been women in mission since 1869 but have only been called UMW since 1972. There were many celebrations in 1997 as we remembered our rich heritage in missions and our call by Christ to "go into all the world!"

In January, newly elected Conference Officers were trained at the Leaders In Training Event in Chicago. The Conference Executive Committee, Program Committee and District President's met at NC Wesleyan College to make plans for the year. Also in January, the District Officers began to train local officers with emphasis on the Visitation Workbook and the new Membership Campaign to seek to involve Teens, College and University Women, Women 19-39, and Newly Retired Women. In 1997, two new Teen Circles started at Chestnut Street UMC in Lumberton and Philadelphia UMC in Rockingham. The Rev. Carrie Parish, Chaplain at Methodist College in Fayetteville, inquired about starting a unit of College Women at Methodist College. The Local Presidents' reports indicated that we had a increase of 1,237 members in 1997. The total membership reported in the NC Conference was 24,570 and there were 72 units that did not report!

The 1997, Conference 39 and Under Event held February 28-March 1 at Methodist College was led by Linda Harris and had 225 in attendance. The 1998, Conference 39 and Under Event will be held at Haymount UMC in Fayetteville on February 20-21, 1998. In March, we supported and promoted the Food Lion Community Ways Days for the MHC and helped in raising nearly $26,000 for our Children's Homes. Our goal for 1998 is to raise $35,000!

April 6-8, 1997 some of the Conference Officers and representatives from the Districts participated in a Mission Education Event/Work Team to the Bethlehem Center/Wilson Inn in Richmond, VA. We got to see "first hand" where some of our pledge money goes and actually worked in the projects for two days. These projects provide child day care (serving 120 children), senior services, emergency outreach services, youth outreach services (serving 410 youth), and community outreach services. The Wilson Inn provides affordable housing and supportive services for women-at-risk. This was an experience we will never forget. We were truly "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry Through Loving" as we worked with and for His children served by these projects. Another event is planned for 1998 to involve more women in local units.

Two hundred and eighty-three took time apart for spiritual renewal when they attended the 1997 Conference Spiritual Enrichment Retreat led by Bonnie Jones Gehweiler at Louisburg College on May 16-17. The Rev. Judi Smith will lead the 1998 Spiritual Enrichment Retreat. The Scholarship Committee met in May and awarded $5,650 in scholarships to 14 applicants who were attending Methodist colleges or who planned to enter religious occupations.

In June the 11 elected Conference Officers attended the South Atlantic Regional School at Greensboro College where every officer had devotional time, officer update, and 10 hours of study in one of the three Church-wide Mission Studies for 1998.

"Visioning Justice and Hope" was the theme for the second Conference School of Christian Mission sponsored by UMW held at Methodist College July 31-August 2, 1997. The UMW and clergy persons who attended had the opportunity to take all three of the 1998 Mission Studies as well as take advantage of an outstanding Learning Resource Center provided by our District Presidents. The school also offered focus groups and leadership development. We hope the attendance will be even better at the 1998 Conference School of Christian Mission which will be July 30-August 1, 1998 at Methodist College.

The Mother/Child Retreats held at Camp Chestnut Ridge on September 12-13 and Camp Don Lee and Camp Rockfish on September 19-21, 1997 were filled to capacity again. The 1998 Mother/Child Retreats will be September 11-13 at Don Lee and Chestnut Ridge, and September 18-20 at Camp Rockfish.

Attendance was up again at our second one-day Annual Meeting held at Methodist College on October 11. Children and children's mission projects were the focus of the meeting. The President's message was a video to celebrate the 25th Birthday of UMW, "Mission Alive @ 25." The video featured pictures at conference and district events, themes, and other data over the last 25 years in mission. Mission moments were shared about projects that we help support in Brazil and other countries.

In 1997, our Conference Pledge to Mission was $405,000. We exceeded that pledge by $41,000 having sent over $446,000 in undesignated giving to mission. We are "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry" here at home and in mission projects that we help support in over 100 countries all around the world!

In 1998 and beyond, we can be "Linked with Christ in Mission and Ministry Through Living" our lives according to his teachings. In Matthew 17:20, Jesus said, "...For truly, I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you." If we have faith and keep Him at the center of all that we do; we can move the mountains of poverty, the mountains of world hunger, homelessness, and more. We can do this one mission dollar at a time! To God be the Glory!!

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"Celebration!" is the theme for the 1997-1998 year of Conference youth ministry. There is much over which to celebrate and give thanks to God in youth ministry within eastern NC. This theme calls to mind a year of local church youth ministry with a variety of faces and programs and service projects; a year with several districts becoming more active in offering opportunities for youth; a year with just about 4500 youth and adults involved in Conference youth events; and an Episcopal Initiative that calls the church to reach out and meet the needs of young people.

We celebrate the participation of youth from across the Conference in seven events over the year: Global Vision, Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, ACS-Annual Conference Session for Youth, Youth Mission Workteam and Pilgrimage. Global Vision included a visit to New York City and a seminar to explore issues of the possibility of peace. Rally Day was a rainy spring afternoon that still celebrated the place of youth within the life of the church. The Appalachian Trail Hike proved to be a mountaintop experience of God for those involved. Summer Breakaway and ACS offered times of worship and sharing experiences of fellowship and faith in small and large groups. Our youth mission workteam to Costa Rica provided an avenue for Christian service. Pilgrimage (with 3000 in attendance-more than the space could hold) with moving messages of invitation to Christian discipleship from Rev. Chris Hughes and music by Say-So will be a Pilgrimage not soon forgotten. For the first time an event was scheduled for youth that related faith and various art expressions - this event called Renaissance was not held due to low registration.

In addition to these events, youth ministry extended across the Conference through YES! Ministries - Youth Empowered by the Savior! Four YES! Ministries Weekends were held in local churches in the Conference year 1997-1998. On these weekends youth are in leadership of a weekend designed for group building and faith sharing among the youth of a local church youth ministry.

Youth Service Fund continues to be an avenue of mission for UMY. Grants to such ministries with youth as the Highland Service Project, Conduit Day Camp, the Society of St Andrew, Covenant House, Confrontation Point, Asbury Basketball Camp, Base Christian Communities Network in Nicaragua, SEJANAM, Russia Youth Peace Camp, Positive Attitude Youth Center in Burlington, Durham Interfaith Hospitality Network and many other worthy ministries are possible only in as much as local churches support and contribute to Youth Service Fund. Youth Service Fund is money raised by youth and spent by youth to benefit youth. While the contributions to YSF at Conference youth events is very good, more support from local churches is needed to reach our goal of $15000 a year.

We celebrate all that local church youth ministries are doing in areas of mission, service, study, outreach, fellowship and spiritual growth. We celebrate and give thanks to the Annual Conference and all the people within local churches giving support and encouragement to youth ministry.

We pray for God's guidance and blessing as we move forward in celebration as disciples of Jesus Christ.

*A Litany for the Faithful Departed:

Leader: This day revive in us memories of loved ones who are no more. What happiness we shared when they walked among us. What joy when, loving and being loved, we lived our lives together.

People: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Leader: Months or years have passed, and still we feel near to them. Our hearts yearn for them. Though the bitter grief has softened, a duller pain abides; for the place where they stood is empty now. The links of life are broken, but the links of love and longing cannot break.

People: Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

Leader: We see them now with the eyes of memory, their faults forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So does goodness live, and weakness fade from sight. We remember them today with gratitude, and bless their names.

People: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Leader: And we remember as well the members who but yesterday were part of our Annual Conference. To all who cared for us, labored for all people, we pay tribute. May we prove worthy of carrying on the traditions of our faith, for now the task is ours.

People: They are alive forevermore.

At a district conference in Spud, FL on June 24, 1924, Forrest was licensed to preach. He began his distinguished ministry in the North Carolina Conference in 1931 when he was appointed to the South Camden Charge. He pastored St. Andrews-Duke Chapel, 1934; Duke's Chapel, 1935; Raleigh: Epworth, 1936; Louisburg, 1940; Dunn: Divine Street. 1944; and Lumberton: Chestnut St., 1948. He also served as Associate Pastor at Edenton Street, 1937-40.

On June 22, 1932, Forrest married Elizabeth Barker Phillips. She passed away on January 23, 1980.

In 1952, Forrest was appointed Superintendent of the Methodist Home for Children. He immediately became known as "Pop" to the 250 children in the home. Then in 1956, he accepted an appointment to the Board of Global Ministries, Office of Finance and Field Service. Recognized for his leadership ability, he was elected to the Office of Executive Secretary. Forrest guided churches and conferences to successful stewardship campaigns in over 40 states.

Forrest retired from the Office of Executive Secretary and from the NC Conference in 1970. However, he continued working on special projects with the Board of Global Ministries until 1977. At that time, he came to North Carolina and served Wesley Church at Riegelwood in the Wilmington District. He was serving as the beloved Minister Emeritus at Pine Valley UMC in Wilmington when he passed away on June 24, 1997. At the time of his death, Forrest had the longest record of service in the North Carolina Conference.

His funeral service was held at Pine Valley UMC with the Reverends Eckie Lancaster, Marty Duffell, and Frank Daniels officiating. Burial was in Oleander Memorial Gardens in Wilmington.

Reverend Hedden is survived by his wife, Jean Shirley Middleton Hedden; a daughter, Beth Pancoe, and her husband, Walter; two sons, Edward Hedden and Forrest Hedden, Jr., all of Wilmington. Forrest also is survived by three sisters and four grandchildren.

Forrest was a committed follower of our Lord Jesus Christ. His life bore the fruit of the Holy Spirit which dwelt within him. His abiding love for God was evidenced through his love for his fellow person. He was loved and respected by all who knew him and is greatly missed.

Bill Ruth was born on December 15, 1936, in Cary, the son of Tulice Van and Cora Alice Gillespie Ruth. During his "growing up" years in Cary, he was very active in Scouting, attaining the rank of Eagle. He worked many happy hours as a "soda jerk" in the local drug store; as a telegraph operator with Southern Railroad; and, most especially, as a tiller-of-the-soil, plowing up his neighbors' gardens with his $5 mule. He played the saxophone in his high school band and endured nine years of piano lessons, for which those of us who were blessed by his piano playing are grateful. It was in fifth grade at a nearby Christian camp that Bill asked Jesus into his life as Lord and Savior and first felt the call to the ministry. In the years that followed, Bill walked away from both the call and his personal walk with the Lord; but God was faithful to keep His hand on Bill's life and draw him back to Himself, giving him an appreciation for God's grace that became foundational to his ministry.

Following his years at Cary High School, Bill was graduated from UNC-CH with an English major. His service in the US Army included teaching telegraphy at West Point Military Academy. In 1964 he received his BD degree from Duke Divinity School and, in 1965, his ThM degree.

Bill faithfully served in the NC Conference for over 31 years, beginning with the Love Joy-Macedonia Charge near Troy in 1967. Then followed appointments to Lake Waccamaw, Mt. Hermon in Graham, the Outer Banks Parish, Duck, Millbrook in Raleigh, and Elizabeth City: First.

While serving at Lake Waccamaw he met his wife, Robyn Timberlake. The story of how the Lord brought them together was always one of Bill's favorites to tell. They were married July 28, 1974 in a ceremony officiated by the Reverend Eckie Lancaster. Their daughters Vicki and Christy were born while Bill and Robyn were serving Mt. Hermon. On the Sundays following their births, that special twinkle in Bill's eyes was extra bright as he stood in the church foyer, proudly handing out Baby Ruth candy bars instead of the traditional cigars.

The impact of Bill's life and ministry lives on in the lives of his family and of all those who were blessed to know him as pastor and friend. He was truly a man of God with a multi-faceted calling. He had the heart of a pastor, lovingly tending the sheep of his flock, feeding them the Word of God and ministering to their wounds and hurts. At the same time, he had the heart of a prophet, always challenging them to come up higher in their walk with the Lord. He had the heart of a worshiper, playing the piano and singing with a gusto that would have made John Wesley proud, always desiring through praise and worship, to lead his flock into the very Presence of Almighty God. He had the heart of a "Paul," always striving to help his many "Timothys" to mature in their own faith-walks. And, perhaps greatest of all, he had the heart of a missionary/evangelist with a passion to bring lost souls into the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Whether it was in the jungles of Central America, the streets of Haiti or Spain, or just around the corner in the dark places of his own city, Bill loved ministering to those who were hurting. How appropriate that the last words he spoke on this earth were to one of the homeless men of his city, words that witnessed of the Savior's redeeming love and saving grace.

Bill's cardiac arrest came unexpectedly in mid-June 1997. Twelve days later, on June 25, he slipped away peacefully to join for all eternity his Master whom he had served so well. A service celebrating his life was held on June 28 at First UMC in Elizabeth City, conducted by Bishop Marion Edwards; the Reverend William Presnell, Elizabeth City District Superintendent; Pastor Lee Porter of the Camden Vineyard Christian Fellowship; and South African Evangelist Gil Howard-Browne. The dome of the church was filled with lively praise as the congregation sang some of Bill's favorite hymns and choruses, magnificently accompanied by pianist Ray Meiggs and organist Rodney Trueblood. Interment was at Hillcrest Cemetery in Cary. On Bill's tombstone are inscribed five words from a hymn which aptly describe his ministry: "Redeeming love has been my theme..."

Bill is survived by his wife Robyn, his two daughters Vicki and Christy, his brother Charles of Cary, as well as by many nieces and nephews. Robyn and Christy are now living in Virginia Beach, VA, where Robyn has begun working toward a MDiv degree at Regent University. Christy is a rising high school senior, and Vicki is a fourth-year student at Elon College.

Bill was a man who lived life to the fullest. He will be remembered for his fervent love for his family, his wonderful stories, his enveloping bear-hugs, and for his deep belly-laughs that warmed the hearts of those around him. There was a precious transparency about him, an openness and honesty that made him and the God he served so real and approachable. All who truly knew him and touched his spirit also touched the very Spirit of God. Truly, he ran his race well and rejoiced to hear the words spoken from the lips of his Savior and Friend, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant....Enter into the joy of your Lord."

PAUL WESLEY EVANS

1925 - 1997

The Reverend Paul Wesley Evans, 72, died on July 2, 1997. Born on June 18, 1925 in Watertown, PA, he was the son of Wesley John and Dortha Mabel Clark Evans.

Paul was a member of American Legion Post 58. He was retired from the US Navy and was a retired clergy of the NC Conference of The UMC.

He received his License to Preach in 1958 at Charleston, SC, was ordained a deacon in 1969, and became an Associate Member of the NC Conference in 1970.

Paul married Pauline Prentice Bardin on August 19, 1950. After faithfully serving his country in the military, Paul then concentrated on serving his Lord as pastor. In the NC Conference, he and Pauline served several months at Swansboro in 1964, then Midway-Bethlehem from 1964 until 1969, then Rocky Mount: St. Paul from 1969 until 1972.

Debilitating health from heart disease with angina required Paul to go on disability leave in 1972. Never recovering from poor health enough to serve as pastor again, he took retirement in 1990.

For most of Paul's retirement years, he was considered the "Santa Claus" of Rocky Mount. He fit the part in all ways, including his own white hair and beard. He achieved a certain amount of fame for this, and was recognized everywhere by area children since he appeared on local TV, at many community affairs, as well as in his own church.

Paul is survived by his wife, Pauline, to whom he was very devoted and for whom he cared through her own major health problems; two daughters and a son-in-law, Kathie and Jim Yelverton of Fremont, and Melissa Ann Haddock of Rocky Mount; two sons and daughters-in-law, Bernie and Debbie Evans of Beaufort, SC, Tom and Nancy Daugherty of Rocky Mount; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; his mother of Reading, PA; one brother, Clayton H. Evans of Reading, PA; two sisters, Bluma Maderia and Ruth Ann Evans, both of Reading, PA.

Graveside services were held at 10:00 am on July 4, 1997, at Rocky Mount Memorial Park, with the Reverend Bill Snotherly officiating.

Found among his papers, Paul himself had written, "Eternal life is the coming paradise where those who have accepted and received Christ will live with the Father and the Son forever."

WILLIE JAMES EVANS

1923 - 1997

"Bill" was born September 21, 1923 to the late J. Roy and Ouida McDaniel Evans in Lake City, SC. He was the oldest child and was raised by godly parents, learning the scriptures from an early age.

He served in World War II and was wounded, nearly losing a leg, but with numerous prayers and surgeries and three years of hospitalizations, his leg was saved. During this time the 23rd Psalm became especially meaningful to him.

Bill attended the University of SC and did seminary work at Duke and Emory Universities. He received his license to preach at Scranton UMC in Scranton, SC. He served several churches in South Carolina, and he was ordained Deacon in 1957 and Elder in 1960 in the SC Conference. In 1963 he transferred to the NC Conference. He served the following appointments: Kinnakeet, 1963; Stumpy Point, 1967; Ocracoke, 1971; Hawkins-Tabor, 1973; Harrellsville, 1975; took Disability Leave, 1976; and Asbury-Pineview near Lumberton, 1981.

Bill developed health problems which caused him to retire in 1982. During his years as a pastor he was involved in a number of building programs, but his main love was sharing the gospel with his people. He dearly loved the children in his churches, and their love was returned to him.

He also loved missions and made short-term trips to Haiti, Bolivia, and India. As a result of these mission trips, this bachelor preacher met a lady who would become his wife. On April 14, 1972, he married Mary Frances Ham of Flint, MI, and they shared 25 wonderful years together.

During his retirement he spent a lot of time working outdoors with his camellias and other flowers.

On Good Friday, 1997, he told his wife that he was ready for Glory - during that afternoon he developed severe pain. All tests indicated gallstones, but upon surgery they found cancer in the gall bladder and liver. In the following months, God was good to him; he did not have severe pain. His condition began to deteriorate in late August requiring hospitalization. The last few days he lived he showed some improvement and seemed comfortable. His face and eyes had a glow about them. He told his sister-in-law he was ready to go home. She told him, "Fran is going to take you home when you are stronger." His reply was that he was talking about his heavenly home.

Every night before his passing, Bill and Fran recited the 23rd Psalm before he went to sleep. On the evening before his death, Fran made a mistake in the 23rd Psalm. He stopped her and made her start over because it had to be right. Bill's spirit crossed over into heaven on September 11, 1997.

The funeral service was conducted at Brockington Funeral Home Chapel by the Reverend Steve Hughes. During the service, Steve expressed the feeling of all who knew Bill, that he had a sweet, sweet spirit, and was loved by all. He was buried in the Scranton UMC Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife Fran, one sister, four brothers, several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by one brother.

After retiring from the Air Force, Virgil entered the ministry and attended Pfeiffer College in Misenheimer, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religion-Philosophy in 1978. He was ordained Deacon in 1974, and in 1981 was admitted to the NC Conference as an Associate Member. He served the following pastorates: Kipling-Cokesbury, 1971; Fayetteville-Calvary, 1972; Pekin, 1975; Chowan, 1979; Eureka-Yelverton, 1982; Havelock: Cherry Point, 1985; and North Gates, 1987. Over 19 years serving in active ministry passed before Virgil was forced to take disability leave in 1990. He and Doris settled in Pollocksville.

His health deteriorating, Virgil retired in 1995, but continued to preach and sing on occasion in the Pollocksville Church until his death on November 21, 1997. Funeral services were held at Pollocksville UMC with Pastor Jeff Severt and Reverend Jim Hicks officiating. Interment was in the Pollocksville Cemetery.

Former parishioners and friends will remember Virgil's passion for the gospel of Jesus Christ, his love for his family, and his devotion to God. He loved people and enjoyed visiting and talking with friends and strangers. His work in various churches was in itself a labor of love. He was a builder of churches and a strengthener of souls, and his work in The United Methodist Church reflected his great love and devotion. Virgil Free will be deeply missed by family and friends.

FRANK WAHAB FORTESCUE

Frank Wahab Fortescue was born June 30, 1909 in Sladesville, the son of Zachariah Thomas and Lucy Davis Perry Fortescue. He grew up on the family farm in Hyde County with his siblings: Hugh Perry Fortescue, John Elliott Fortescue, Mary Elizabeth F. Credle, Zachariah Thomas Fortescue, Jr., Dr. William Nicholas Fortescue, and Lucy Davis F. Greene, who preceded him in death. During his childhood he was very ill with pneumonia and almost died. He survived and committed himself to live the best life he could for God and to take care of his mother and father until they died. Thus, while his siblings left Hyde County to go to college, he remained to tend the farm and take care of his parents.

After graduating from Sladesville High School, Frank took care of the family farm. While farming, he educated himself by reading the textbooks that his siblings brought home from college. He also met his future bride, Sallye Cornelia Swindell. During their courtship he saved 10 cents at a time to purchase an engagement ring for her. After their marriage on December 29, 1929, they lived with his parents in their family home and had four children. Their home was a haven for the eight of them and for all who visited with them. They were happily married for more than 50 years, until Sallye's death on July 5, 1981.

In 1948 Frank Fortescue became postmaster of the post office in Scranton. He also spearheaded the effort to bring electricity to Hyde County as an active member of the Board of the Rural Electric Association. In addition, he served his church, Epworth UMC, in many ways including as a Sunday School teacher and Superintendent of the Sunday School. The week before her death, he began teaching the Sunday School Class his mother had taught for many years.

After his parents died, Frank Fortescue, while in his mid-forties, was ordained a Methodist deacon in 1960 and elder in 1962. He also attended Chowan College and Duke University.

As a Methodist minister, he served the following charges: Chowan, 1957; Oriental, 1961; Currituck, 1963; Hopewell-Mt. Moriah, 1966; Morehead City: St. Peter's, 1970; Pilmoor Memorial, 1972; and then retired in 1974. He faithfully served his parishioners with a heart full of love for them and for God.

Throughout his life Reverend Fortescue was a pillar of strength for his family and friends. In the twilight of his life he continued to have a substantial garden, and he gave generously to others from that which he reaped. Like his father before him, Frank always wore a white dress shirt and tie while gardening.

In all that he did, Frank Fortescue placed God, his family, and his friends above himself. He died November 21, 1997 at Washington County Hospital at Plymouth. He is survived by his sons, Frank W. Fortescue, Jr. of Sladesville; William Windley of Winston-Salem; and James Massenburg of Washington; his daughter, Elizabeth Ann F. Davis of Raleigh; 10 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. His widow, Delora Williams Holland, whom he married November 24, 1992, also survived him.

Funeral services were conducted on November 23 at Epworth UMC, Sladesville, with Dr. Sidney Huggins III and Reverend Chris Humphreys officiating. His granddaughter, Amy M. Fortescue sang, and a grandson, Rodney Eugene Davis, Jr., presented the eulogy. Burial was in the Epworth UMC Cemetery.

EVERETTE ERVIN BRYAN

1929 - 1997

Everette Ervin Bryan went home to be with our Lord quietly at his home in Goldsboro on December 13, 1997. On December 16, 1997, Reverend Terry Huffines officiated at Everette's funeral at Pine Forest UMC, where he had placed his charge conference membership. Following the church service, interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery near Goldsboro.

Everette Bryan was born on April 16, 1929 to Grad H. and Mary Lena Johnson Bryan in Bladen County. He was the oldest of seven children.

The Free Will Baptist Church licensed Everette to preach at the age of 17. Shortly thereafter, however, he began a three-year enlistment in the US Navy.

Following his service to his country, Everette completed his BA degree from the Free Will Baptist College at Nashville, TN. While in college he met Christine Hooks of Kenly, and they were married on June 19, 1954. They have two daughters and sons-in-law: Marilyn B. and Johnnie E. Draughton of Virginia Beach, VA, and Glenda B. and Giffin H. Bowen of Kinston. They also have a granddaughter, Faith Abigail Bowen.

Reverend Bryan served in the Free Will Baptist Church until June of 1965. Feeling God's strong guidance, he became a member of the NC Methodist Conference and continued his education at Atlantic Christian College (now Barton College) in Wilson and Duke University.

Everette served NC Conference pastorates for 29 years until his health necessitated his retirement. He had battled cancer and cancer complications from 1978 until the time of his retirement in 1994. Throughout his ministry, he served his pastorates with the same determination in which he lived. He believed in setting and actively striving to meet goals with God's guidance through prayer. Everette always stressed the importance of family. By his every example he displayed what dedication to family and God's service means.

During his years with the NC Conference, he served 26 churches, including the following appointments: Clinton Ct.; Asbury near Washington; Institute Charge; Gatesville Charge; Magnolia Charge; Marshallberg-Smyrna Charge; Gaston Charge; Middleburg Charge, Ronces Chapel near Mount Olive; and the Aurora Charge.

SAMUEL STREET MOORE

Samuel Street Moore was born June 16, 1918, the seventh of 11 children of the late Judge and Mrs. Leonidas John Moore. He graduated from New Bern High School in 1937. He served in the National Guard, the 113th Field Artillery, Battery D. On September 16, 1939, the National Guard was mobilized and sent to Ft. Jackson at Columbia, SC.

On December 25, 1940, Sam married Glenmore Mallard of Jones County. They had four children: Dr. Marlene Moore Corbett of Matthews; Samuel Street Moore, Jr. of Kitty Hawk and Greenville; Mary Moore Lownes of Spartanburg, SC; and Martha Moore Gore of Greenville. He had five grandchildren.

Sam felt the call into the Methodist ministry in 1954. He had taken the morning radio devotional time for Trinity UMC, which at that time was worshipping in a meeting hall above Stallings Gas Company (now Cotton Funeral Home) in New Bern. District Superintendent Hiram King heard the week of devotions and called Sam to say that he belonged in the ministry. He asked if he would consider serving a church in Morehead City that was currently without a preacher. He talked this over with Glenmore and after praying about it decided that if Reverend King called a second time, that would mean that the Lord was guiding him into the Lord's work. The second call came, and on the first Sunday in May, 1954, Sam went to Morehead City, where he preached the sermon that marked his entry into 33 years in the ministry.

During the six years he served at Franklin Memorial Church in Morehead City, he graduated from Louisburg College and Duke University's Pastors' School. He was named Morehead City's Father of the Year in recognition of his accomplishments.

In 1957, Sam was ordained a deacon, then an elder in 1959. He served the following appointments: Morehead City: Franklin Memorial, Raleigh: Cokesbury, Erwin, Goshen-Keener in Sampson County, Wendell, Bailey-Pleasant Grove, then retired in 1985.

He served in Raleigh by beginning Cokesbury as a new church. He walked door to door in the Worthdale neighborhood to locate potential members. The first meeting was a communion service held at the home of John Mobley on King Richard Road. After that, church services were held in a concrete barn with a dirt floor, and an oil drum draped with a rug for a pulpit. Folding chairs, hymnals, and a piano were donated by Edenton Street UMC. The barn was owned by a Mr. Anton of St. George Street, who graciously allowed the church to use it until arrangements were made to meet at Clarence Poe School. One hundred eight charter members came into the church at the organizational meeting. Sam eventually saw the completion of the sanctuary and fellowship. He was honored for his work by having the new street that led from Poole Road to the church named for him: Samuel Street.

While in Raleigh Sam began to write and publish The Crackerbarrel. One side had news of the church and some humor; the other side had a very meaningful spiritual message. The Crackerbarrel provided a way to keep in touch with the church members, and the mailing list grew as he moved from church to church. Hundreds of people looked forward to receiving each publication, as their letters to Sam attested. He had a love of words, and he crafted them to delight and inspire.

His greatest joy was preaching and he did it well. He had a contagious smile and never lost his sense of humor. He loved people and people loved him. He especially enjoyed after-dinner speaking engagements because he knew that laughter is good for the soul.

Sam fell at home on November 22, 1997, and broke his left hip. He developed pneumonia and a kidney infection. He died December 23, 1997, just two days before he and Glenmore would have celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary.

The celebration of his life was held on December 27, 1997, at Pollock, Wells and Best Funeral Chapel, with the Reverends Leonard Doucette and Neal Salter officiating. Interment was in Greenleaf Memorial Park in New Bern.

He is greatly missed.

CLEO WADE GOLDSTON

1910 - 1998

The Reverend Cleo Wade Goldston died on January 4, 1998 at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham after a brief illness. He was 87 years old.

Wade Goldston was born December 20, 1910 in Goldston, the son of the late Valli Gilmore and Walter Goldston. Wade was the 11th of 12 children, all of whom preceded him in death.

Wade and Ruth Melton Goldston of Rocky Mount were married November 14, 1939, when Wade was serving as her pastor at the Battleboro Methodist Church in Battleboro. She preceded him in death on August 31, 1994.

Wade is survived by his daughter, Bonnie Bryan Goldston Carr of Spartanburg, SC; his son, Dr. Joseph Wade Goldston of Lumberton; four grandchildren; and six great grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at Saint Paul UMC in Rocky Mount on January 9, 1998, where Wade was Minister Emeritus. Dr. John Check, pastor of the church; Dr. Cecil W. Robbins of Oxford, former President of Louisburg College; Dr. Sidney Stafford of Louisburg; District Superintendent Tom Loftis of Rocky Mount; and the Reverend Ralph Hill of Stantonsburg; conducted the services. Interment was later at Battleboro Cemetery in Battleboro.

Wade was called to the ministry at age 16. He graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill with honors at the age of 19, then graduated from Duke Divinity School and Yale University Divinity School.

Wade served churches at Rocky Mount: Clark Street, Battleboro, Red Oak, Stantonsburg, Wilson: Evansdale, Goldsboro: Daniels Memorial, Goldsboro: Pine Forest, Apex, Rocky Mount: St. Paul, and Pinetops (after retirement). He also served as Professor of Religion and Chaplain of Louisburg College. While at Louisburg College, he founded and led a program for students who were called to the ministry, but had not completed their degree. He helped guide and nurture them as they, many with families, returned to college so they could go on to seminary and become ordained ministers. He always considered this work one of the most rewarding experiences in his ministry.

Wade never sought special honors from his peers or others, although he received some. He sought always to serve the God that had spoken to him at age 16. He challenged himself and everyone he knew to listen for God's calling in their life, and to work diligently for the Lord Jesus no matter what their profession. His sense of fairness and justice for all people gave many hope and courage when the world around them was intolerant and unloving. He taught his students, his congregations, and his family that God is Love, Jesus is our friend, and the Holy Spirit can be in each one of us, if we only allow Him to be.

ATTICUS MORRIS WILLIAMS

Atticus Morris Williams was born May 6, 1901, in a rural home near the banks of lower Little River in the southern part of Harnett County (now known as the Linden community). His parents were Joseph Huske Williams and Henrietta Morris Williams. Morris was the youngest of five children. He joined his parents in attending both the Sardis Presbyterian Church and the Parker's Grove Methodist Church with which he united.

After graduating from NC State University in 1921 with a major in agriculture, he worked for a year in Mississippi as a milk tester with a dairy association. In 1923, Morris formed a partnership with his brother, Robert, to work the home farm.

That same year he also met Annabel Williams, who came to Linden as the first grade teacher. Ten years later on May 31, 1933, in Chester, SC, they were married.

While farming, Morris Williams was active in the local church and was encouraged by two pastors to enter the ministry. He received his local license to preach October 12, 1927 and was asked to fill the pulpit of Lane Methodist Church, a small church three miles from Linden. At the end of 1928 Morris left farming, and in January 1929 he began his studies at Duke Divinity School, where he graduated in 1932.

In November 1930 he was admitted into the NC Conference; he received his first appointment as associate minister to the Pittsboro Circuit 1931-34 (Brown's Chapel, Chatham, Mt. Zion, Hickory Mountain, Jones Chapel, Pleasant Hill, Moncure, and Pittsboro). In 1934, they moved to Youngsville where he served Bunn, Hill King Memorial, Piney Grove, Leah's Chapel, Shiloh, and Youngsville. Other appointments were: Milton, 1935-39 (Connally, Milton, New Hope, Purley, Semora); Whitakers, 1939-44 (Battleboro, McTyeire, Speights Chapel); Warsaw, 1944-48 (Carlton, Magnolia, Turkey, Trinity, Warsaw); Biscoe, 1948-52 (Biscoe, Candor, Star); Hillsborough, 1952-56 (Hillsborough, New Sharon); Person Circuit, 1956-60 (Concord, Lea's Chapel, Oak Grove, Warren's Grove); Fletcher's Chapel, 1960-65; and Ellis Chapel, 1965-68.

After his retirement in 1965, Morris made Duke Memorial Church in Durham his church home. Following the death in 1981 of his first wife, Annabel, he moved in 1983 to the Methodist Retirement Home community in Durham. On March 21, 1987, he married Katharine Mann Newton, whom he first met in 1931 when he served as pastor of Hickory Mountain Church, where she played the piano.

Morris died of pneumonia January 10, 1998, at Duke Medical Center in Durham. A memorial service was held at St. John's Chapel at the Methodist Retirement Home, with burial in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham. Both the graveside and memorial services were officiated by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr.

Reverend Williams is survived by his wife, Katharine; his son, A. Morris, Jr.; granddaughters, Susan Beltz and Joanne Markman; and three great-grandchildren, Kelsey Anna and James Atticus Beltz, and Ethan Morris Markman.

Atticus Morris Williams will be remembered for his love of God, his family, and all people. Morris was a gentle man with a quick smile and very few complaints. He loved all his congregations, and one of his great joys was receiving 513 individuals as new church members.

"Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." (John 11:25)

Walter Feltman served in the US Navy in the Pacific, 1944-46, with the Third Fleet and received the following medals: American, Asiatic-Pacific and 4 Stars, Philippine Liberation and 1 Star, and the Victory Medal.

After our father became a Christian, he dedicated his entire life to Christ and serving the Lord in every way. He and our mother trusted the Lord in everything they did. They also reared their children to trust in the Lord and follow in His footsteps. The most important things to our father and mother were God and their family.

Our father believed that "Jesus Christ is the answer to the world's needs. It is the responsibility of every Christian to proclaim His message and Person to the world. It is the task of the Church to relate His message to daily living and all of life's commitments. It is our purpose to lead men to a total commitment and surrender of their lives to Christ."

Wherever he went, all who wanted to know Christ were able to know Him through our Father. He would always leave the sign of the cross on the table when he and Mother dined out. He touched thousands of lives while he was on this earth. Those who knew him were much richer having known him.

Until the homecoming, may your and Mother's spirits soar in eternity. Thank you for being a wonderful Father, Grandfather and, above all, a Disciple of Christ.

FRANCES PRISCILLA SHARPE QUEEN

1910 - 1997

Frances Sharpe Queen died on August 11, 1997, at Mayview Convalescent Center in Raleigh after an extended illness. A Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Epworth UMC in Durham, with the Reverends Charles Morrison and Wilson Nesbitt officiating. She was buried beside her beloved husband, Vergil Queen, at Raleigh Memorial Park, with the Reverend Warren Petteway conducting the graveside service.

Surviving are a sister-in-law, Mrs. Lucy M. Sharpe of Raleigh; a niece, Peggy Sharpe Thomas of Portsmouth, VA; and a nephew, Dan M. Sharpe III of Raleigh.

After graduating from Greensboro College, she taught in the public schools in Roanoke Rapids. Frances and Vergil were married at "Pastors' School" in the Duke Chapel on June 7, 1940. Vergil was serving his first appointment in Carboro. They continued through the years to serve in Fayetteville, Elizabeth City, Durham, Southern Pines, and as Superintendent of the Sanford and Wilmington Districts.

Frances was the product of a Methodist parsonage, born on July 5, 1910, the daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Dan M. Sharpe, Sr. She presided over her own parsonages with grace and dignity, wisdom and insight, good humor, and hospitality. With a gentleness of spirit, she supplemented the needs of her visually handicapped husband so his role in ministry could be fulfilled.

She actively participated in each of the churches they served, working faithfully and diligently. She was a frequent organizer and leader of Christian education events in the North Carolina Conference and served as President of the Conference Ministers' Wives Association.

After Vergil's retirement in 1974, they lived in Durham and found a loving and supportive church family at Epworth UMC. Vergil died on August 26, 1993 and shortly afterward, Frances suffered a massive stroke. I moved her to Raleigh so that I could attend to her needs daily. It was a blessing to her, and to me, to have an outpouring of love and support from many church families during her last illness.

Frances served her Lord Jesus Christ as an educator of minds, young and old, and as a loyal and beloved partner in ministry in The United Methodist Church with her husband and friend, Vergil Queen.

"To the honor and glory of a compassionate God we celebrate the life of Frances Sharpe Queen, who, having served and suffered, has now gone forth to a triumphant partnership."

STELLA MAE HOLBROOK JONES

1914 - 1997

Stella M. Jones, widow of the Reverend Foster L. Jones, died September 3, 1997, at the age of 83. She had suffered from congestive heart failure and mini-strokes for several years, and spent the last 15 months of her life in the Convalescent Center of Sanford, after falling at her home in Fayetteville and breaking a hip.

She was born in the coal-mining village of Kayford, WV, on July 14, 1914, one of six children of Edward and Elizabeth Holbrook. She talked of climbing the apple tree in her back yard and seeing beautiful things in the clouds, and knew that there was a better life for her somewhere out there. Through many hard times during the Depression, she stuck to her goal and became the first person from all of Cabin Creek to graduate from high school.

When Reverend Job Jones was appointed to the Kayford Charge, his son, Reverend Foster L. Jones, caught her eye, and she caught his. They were married March 14, 1937, and had three sons: Foster Edward, high school band director in Woodbridge, VA; Russell Leroy, music professor in Pittsburg, KS; and David Job, music teacher in Harnett County. The Jones family moved to many churches in West Virginia, then in 1953, transferred to the NC Conference and moved to Riverside Church in New Bern. Other appointments included Cumberland-St. Andrews in Fayetteville, Cordova in Richmond County, Spring Lake, Stedman; Cokesbury, and Fayetteville: Calvary.

In New Bern, Stella taught herself to type after 2 typing lessons. She became a medical secretary and worked for several doctors in different towns. She also was a legal secretary, hospital office manager, minister's secretary, and administrative assistant at Hay St. UMC in Fayetteville. She was such a hard worker that it seemed every time we moved, about six months later, we heard from her former boss saying that it had taken two people to replace her!

Throughout Stella's life, she encouraged young people by saying, "You can do whatever you want to do." After her death, relatives from West Virginia told us that she had served as someone they all looked up to for many years. When they were down, they remembered something she had done or said, and it helped them to make it through. Growing up in Mother's home, I don't ever remember a time when I didn't KNOW I was going to college - "WHEN you go to college..." not "IF you go to college..." There was no question. She was always a positive thinker.

Stella loved to sing and sang in the choir in all the churches they served. After Dad died on December 1, 1965, she joined Hay St. UMC and sang in the choir for nearly 25 years. She was active in the Wesleyan Service Guild, was a regular Sunday School teacher for the choir, and was often asked to "guest teach" for other groups.

Her strong and positive beliefs remained with her throughout her illnesses. Some of her caregivers would ask her to pray for them because of her wonderful way with words and deep abiding faith in God. Her thoughtfulness and politeness were always in evidence, even after her memory was almost gone. Heaven surely brightened when my Mother arrived.

Margaret Louise Watkins Ward, wife of the Reverend Herman N. Ward, Sr., was born on August 4, 1918 in Whiteville, the daughter of Erasmus Calvin and Mary Long Watkins.

She married Herman on November 24, 1937. Together they served the following churches in the NC Conference: Bolton/Shiloh/Council Charge, Roanoke/New Hope Charge, and Wesley's Chapel in Elizabethtown, for a total of 21 years. They took early retirement due to Herman's health, and Margaret resided in Whiteville for 20 years. Margaret's last years were in the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham.

Margaret died, with the grace and dignity that she had lived her life, in the Retirement Home on October 22, 1997. Her funeral service was held in Hillsborough UMC by Reverend Ray Gooch, and the graveside service was conducted by her son, Herman, Jr., in Whiteville.

She is survived by her son, Herman N. Ward, Jr., of Hillsborough, and one granddaughter, Stephanie Louise Ward of San Antonio, TX.

This is a tribute to Mother Ward written by Herman's wife, Ann, whom she called her daughter.

Memories of Mother Ward

Forty-three years ago, a wonderful lady by the name of Margaret Ward came into my life. My first impressions were: A beautiful lady with much poise, a wonderful smile and laugh. A Christian woman totally devoted to God and to her family. A marvelous cook - ask any minister in her district!

As I became more involved in her life and then the rest of her functional life, the above three facts never changed. She remained true to her faith, her love for her family expanding to include me as a daughter, and then later, the granddaughter she adored, Stephanie. Her circle expanded when Matthew, Stephanie's husband, joined us. It saddened us that she was unable to verbalize what she felt for her wonderful great-grandchildren, Christopher and Lauren, but as they soon learned, she shared her love and talked her words with her beautiful blue eyes as she watched them with love. She was still connected to all of us and to Jesus Christ.

As a minister's wife, she implemented lay pastor, before it became "fashionable." Visitation was a very important part of her life. She and Daddy Ward visited together, and when he became physically incapacitated, she made many visits for him. They were truly a team working for our Lord. She loved the members of their churches, and they became her extended family. She knew they could not effectively minister without establishing a caring relationship. Her witness was the way she lived her life as she glorified and served her Lord.

In the early years she taught school, but throughout her life she continued to teach others as she worked with the youth, UMW, and other groups in the church. She enjoyed preparing wonderful spaghetti meals for the youth group, and she assisted teaching in many social graces.

After she came to live with us, she continued to extend her friendship ring in Hillsborough UMC. Parishioners knew what a wonderful lady she was. The youth experienced her love annually, for as they returned from the beach, she would have a meal (like you wouldn't believe) prepared for them. Would you like 26 hungry young people bound into your life?...fully wired?...but she loved it.

Every season was a delight at Mother Ward's, and she particularly enjoyed Thanksgiving and Christmas. She always volunteered to be hostess for the subdistrict dinner for the clergy and spouses at Thanksgiving. Everything was always decorated with a flair - and the food was awesome. At Christmastime, she remembered huge numbers of people with her gifts of bread, cookies, candies, treats. It was her joy to give.

Her day would begin early, and perfectly groomed. At the end of every day you would find her in devotion with her Bible and her God. Her example of life touched many with a positive message.

Her family at Coble Health Care was endearing. They gave her wonderful loving care, and as the result she was in incredible health for her disease process until three weeks before she died. We will always be grateful for their love and the way they touched not only her life, but our lives as well.

We thank God that He was so merciful to Mother Ward, and to us. By His grace and love, even with her memory disorder, she lived a life of dignity and peace until the very end. Praise be to God...He has given us strength, and He will sustain us during the loneliness that we now feel. We know she is safely at rest in our Father's arms. She and Daddy Ward are having a wonderful reunion. Thanks be to God!

My tribute to one I loved so dearly,
Ann Ward

BETTIE ANN WILKERSON COBB

1951 - 1997

Bettie Ann Wilkerson was born near Fort Benning, GA, on June 20, 1951. In 1970 she graduated from Bluestone High School, where she loved being a majorette and friend to many people, but the greatest joy of her life began when she gave birth to her first child, Brandi, followed by Tres, and the twins, Jordan and Jefri. Being a good mother to her children was the most important priority of her life.

On April 27, 1989, Bettie Ann married her best friend, the Reverend Arnold Gene Cobb. Along with the marriage came more mothering responsibilities, this time for John. Bettie Ann always believed in Christ, but now had come to a time in her life that led her to answer the higher calling of being a "pastor's wife."

Serving the Lord began immediately in the Rocky Mount Parish. Bettie Ann worked with children's choirs wherever there were children. She brought children into the church at Temperance Hall, McKendree, Marvin, Cedar Cliff, Christ, Mount Gilead, Zion and Winstead. Even as her children got older, she continued to work with children because of her belief that Christ would not be pleased until everyone came unto Him as little children.

In August of 1992, a sixth child was lost to us, but found of God. Now, Bettie Ann, who died October 27, 1997, begins her infinite journey in heaven where we have no doubt she is looking for another child to share her unique and special kind of motherly love.

Bishop Marion Edwards and Reverend Tom Loftis led the Service of Death and Resurrection at Winstead UMC on October 29, 1997. The Reverends Wayne Price, Stacey Graves, Dennis Draper, Chris Aydtlett, Caswell Shaw and Bob Morgan assisted in Holy Communion. Reverend A. G. Cobb, husband, shared the Naming and Witness. She was interred at Hawkins Chapel UMC Cemetery in Halifax County.

We who remain here are glad for the victory that she has obtained in the Church eternal. In our lives, we will miss her smile, her laugh, her sweet voice, her gentle touch, and all the things that made us love her so much. She lived according to the grace given to her, in the words of the love hymn, by bearing all things, believing all things, hoping all things and enduring all things.

Bettie Ann was an answer to a preacher's prayer and a joy to all who knew her. The lives of her family and friends are better today because she lived among us. We rejoice that the first Sunday she spent in heaven was appropriately, All Saints Sunday. The Bettie Ann Wilkerson Cobb Endowed Memorial Scholarship has been established at Louisburg College as a tribute to her love of God, the Church, her family, and the future happiness of children.

You see, the full picture is unrevealed to us until its season. God alone has seen it! As we met halfway, God does take us all the way and leads us to continue our lives through timeless love. We will always rejoice for her life and give thanks for the glimpse of the full picture when God gave us Bettie Ann.

EDNA MARION COGHILL WAY

Marion was the first child born on February 7, 1931 to proud parents, Jesse Mae Coghill and A. C. Coghill, Sr., a delicate and tiny baby with flaxen hair and bright blue eyes. As she grew, a gentle smile graced her lips almost constantly, a smile that became her trademark and sometimes was so wide that it almost forced her eyes to close. Later she became big sister to five surviving siblings - Betty, Clara, Joan, A. C., Jr., and Thomas. Her role as Mother Hen to Mama's and Papa's youngsters led to an abiding love for children.

She was a graduate of Aycok High School in Wayne County, Henderson Business College, and was employed as a secretary at Rose's Stores, Inc. for 18 years. Her religious training and faithful service in a little plank church, Brown's Baptist Church (Warren County), became a basis for her future role as a United Methodist minister's wife. She and Reverend Vance Way were married at Brown's Church on November 24, 1965, and they served in the NC Conference for 29 of their 32 years together.

Marion bore no children of her own but "adopted" a host of nieces and nephews. There were always money cards on birthdays, gifts under the Christmas trees, and an egg hunt contest at Eastertime. She adopted children in all of the churches served and was cherished by them.

She was a fine Christian Lady, not by gentility of birth, marriage, money, or material acquisitions, but by her gentle kindness, generosity, and a storehouse of faith in a good God, and in humanity.

The last 24 months of Marion's time here was punctuated by suffering and pain; but her smile remained for family, husband, and especially for the Woodland UMC, Junior UMYF members, Elizabeth City District, who visited her on good days and often sang for her. Finally, open heart surgery was imperative...but of no avail. During her last three days with us she had no knowledge of the tremendous efforts exerted by men, medicine, machines, and prayer to save her life. She was mercifully spared the memory of her final discomforts. She knew not that those who loved her most were near nor could she hear our cries. Our prayers were that she could somehow feel our love.

Our fine Christian Lady, Edna Marion Coghill Way, left us on October 31, 1997 - All Saints Eve. How fitting that one who loved and faithfully served her Lord from her youth should be borne into the company of heaven on that evening.

On November 3, 1997, District Superintendent William Presnell and Reverend Bobby Jordan officiated at the celebration of Marion's life on earth at Woodland UMC at Hertford. People attended from nearly every church she and Vance served, including many youth and children with their parents. Her mortal remains were placed in a tranquil resting place within sight of the graves of her grandparents in Brown's Baptist Church cemetery following a brief service in the church sanctuary. A host of friends and persons of the congregation were present.

Though her spirit and form have left us, though we rejoice that she is whole and happy with "my Jesus" as she anticipated, we shall never forget her. We will always miss her lovely smile and manner of living her witness to her Lord.

What an enormous comfort it is to one who loved her dearest of all on earth to know that he is not only waiting, but being waited for, by this fine Christian Lady - Edna Marion Coghill Way.

LINDA JOYCE HOWE PASCHAL

1942 - 1997

Linda Howe Paschal was born on January 24, 1942, in Lancaster, PA. When she was a young girl, her parents moved to Reading, PA, where Linda graduated from Governor Mifflin High School in Shillington, PA. She later graduated with an RN from Presbyterian School of Nursing in Philadelphia, PA. Following a year of study at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, IL, Linda took a position with the Duke Medical Center in Durham.

Linda married John Paschal on February 12, 1966, in the sanctuary of Trinity UMC in Sanford, where John was the pastor. Together they served churches in Sanford, Chapel Hill, Clinton, Southern Pines, Whiteville, Laurinburg, Rocky Mount and Goldsboro. A gifted alto, Linda sang in the choir of every church they served and was a member of the handbell choir of some of them. Most of her nursing career was spent in newborn nurseries, offering love to helpless babies and encouragement to frightened new mothers.

Linda died on November 3, 1997 following a courageous 14 month battle with brain cancer. During her illness, she was a source of inspiration to everyone around her. Her determination, hope, sense of humor and unwavering trust in God gave all who knew her a lesson in faith and courage.

A celebration of Linda's life and resurrection was conducted by District Superintendent James Lee, the Reverends Madison Hankal and Robert Bame, at Saint Paul UMC, Goldsboro, on Thursday, November 6, 1997. A graveside service was conducted the same day by Dr. Paul Leeland and Dr. Vernon C. Tyson at Buffalo Cemetery in Sanford. Linda is survived by her husband, John; mother, Evelyn Heiser of Goldsboro; father and stepmother, Ralph and Rita Howe of Bradenton, FL; son and daughter-in-law, Jonathan and Maureen of Lewisburg, PA; son and daughter-in-law, David and Amy of Monroe; grandsons, Christopher, Brendan, and Nathan.

As a partner in ministry with her husband, John, Linda gave witness daily to her love of the Lord Jesus Christ and her love for the Church. As a mother, she taught her sons to love the Lord and lived a godly life before them. She delighted in her grandsons, whom she loved and nurtured at every opportunity. As a friend, she possessed a level of warmth and genuine affection that few can ever hope to exceed.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His faithful ones."

DELORA WILLIAMS HOLLAND FORTESCUE

1918 - 1997

Delora Williams Holland Fortescue was born in Lowland, Pamlico County, on February 13, 1918, the daughter of Monroe and Eliza Williams.

Delora was a faithful member of Wharton Trinity UMC in Washington. She served her church as Sunday School teacher, MYF counselor, and held offices in the Woman's Society of Christian Service. At church functions members could always depend on Delora for cake and coffee.

On November 21, 1992, Delora and Frank Fortescue were married. They enjoyed five years of marriage, residing in Washington, and remaining faithful Christians.

Following an extended illness, Delora departed this life on November 30, 1997. Funeral services were conducted December 2, 1997 with Reverend David Harrington officiating. Burial was in Oakdale Cemetery in Washington.

Delora is survived by four children: Barbara Beddard of Williamston; Darrell Holland, Gary Holland, and Waverly Holland of Washington. Delora is also survived by seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

For those Delora left behind, it is a comfort to know she has become part of the great cloud of witnesses surrounding us. Because of her faith, our lives continue to grow richer and fuller. We will love and miss her until we pass from this life and join her at our Lord's side.

EULA ELIZABETH LEWIS FARMER

Eula Lewis Farmer, wife of the late Reverend William H. (Billy) Farmer, Sr., died December 18, 1997, at Medical Park Nursing Center in Mount Olive after several years of declining health. Her funeral service was held on December 21 from the chapel of Tyndall Funeral Home in Mount Olive, with her nephew, the Reverend Richard Farmer Lewis, officiating. Interment was in Wayne Memorial Park in Goldsboro.

In addition to her husband, who died December 29, 1991, Eula was preceded in death by her grandson, William Herbert Farmer III, and her brother, Herbert C. Lewis, Jr. She is survived by a son and daughter-in-law, William H., Jr., and Emily Farmer of Mount Olive; a daughter and son-in-law, Carolyn F. and Jerry Melton of Raleigh; and a daughter, Linda K. Farmer, of Powhatan, VA; three grandchildren: Beth Goodson of Selma, Scott Goodson of Gastonia, Carrie F. Talton of Mount Olive; a sister, Shirley L. Pate of Pikeville; and an aunt, Carrie Williams of Mount Olive.

Eula was born January 1, 1927, in Sneads Ferry on the shore of Peru Landing, to Bessie Williams Lewis and Herbert Carlyle Lewis, Sr. The family soon moved to her mother's home community, Williams Crossroads, near Mount Olive, where they raised their family and engaged in successful farming and business operations. Eula joined Rones Chapel UMC as a young child and actively served that church from her childhood until her husband, to whom she was married on June 16, 1943, entered the Methodist ministry in 1969. She was a Sunday School teacher, choir member, administrative board member, and a member of United Methodist Women at Rones Chapel. She also was quite active in the community and was very involved in her children's school functions.

With her husband's decision to enter the ministry, Eula faithfully served with Billy during his ministry at Airboro UMC in Goldsboro for 15 years, from 1969 until Billy's retirement in 1984. Eula took an active role in the Airboro Church, singing in the choir and actively participating in United Methodist Women. During the years at Airboro, Eula established many lifelong friendships from that congregation. Due to the proximity of Airboro to Williams Crossroads, Eula and Billy were able to continue their residence at their lifelong home throughout their ministry, and thus were able to maintain close contact and activity with their home community, friends, and family.

Eula held a great appreciation of nature and the outdoors. She was particularly fond of working in her flowers and enjoyed gardening as long as her health would allow. She was also a lover of the sea and enjoyed spending time at Topsail Island and Emerald Isle on the NC coast. But perhaps her greatest love was her family, as she took great pride in the accomplishments of her children and grandchildren, and enjoyed spending time with them. Their school and community functions were important to her and she always found time to attend their activities, for she was a master at balancing her role as mother, grandmother, and minister's wife. Although she greatly enjoyed serving in the church and her husband's ministry, her family seemed first and foremost in her heart, and took precedence in her life. She was the dedicated minister's wife, but more importantly, a dear mother and grandmother, who will be missed by those of us who love her.

"Precious is she who gave life her best by sharing her love."

MARGARET BECK REGAN BEAM

1910 - 1997

Margaret Beck Regan Beam of Richmond, VA, died December 20, 1997. The daughter of James Monroe Beck and Annie Mae Pennington Beck, she was born June 1, 1910 in Keysville, VA. She is survived by her devoted husband, Clarence F. Beam; her sister, Isabell Wehler; her niece Jean Powell, of Cocoa Beach, FL; and her nephew James Beck.

Margaret was previously married on September 17, 1935, to the late Reverend Austin Cleo Regan, a member of the NC Conference. Reverend Regan served a number of churches in the Conference, and she worked faithfully beside him until he passed away on August 7, 1965.

After moving to Richmond some years later, she met Clarence F. Beam, a dedicated Christian, whom she married on December 20, 1983. They were faithful members of Boulevard UMC and their Sunday School. Margaret and Clarence were a very happy and committed couple.

Several years after their marriage Margaret suffered her first heart attack, which was followed by open heart surgery. Although she continued to have cardiac problems for the remainder of her earthly life, she showed amazing improvement, and she lived several years longer than expected. There was a time when her physician told the family that she had only about three days to live. She not only lived two years longer but also was able to attend church services again. It is my belief that her life was lengthened due to prayer, her genuine faith, and her will to live in obedience to God's will. Margaret's earthly life ended and she arrived in her heavenly home 14 years after her marriage to Clarence.

Clarence describes her transition like this, "My dear friend, Margaret died suddenly and without warning while we were talking. She died on our 14th wedding anniversary." He speaks of his wife as "a saint - the best Christian I have ever known."

As one of Margaret's pastors, I saw her as an humble child of God who always wore a smile. She had a faith that was contagious. I saw her often when she was ill, and she always was inspiring because she possessed a beautiful spirit. It was a spiritual experience to pray with her and know that where two or three pray together, God makes His presence known.

Funeral services were conducted by Pastor Ray S. Brill, Jr. and Dr. Eugene B. Wright on December 24, 1997, at Bennett's Funeral Home, with interment later in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Margaret Beam could have given many beautiful testimonies, and one of them could have been, "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

WILHELMINA MILDRED POWELL MCCALLUM

1916 - 1998

One of God's faithful servants, Wilhelmina Powell McCallum, was the daughter of the late Will and Hattie Powell. She was born May 12, 1916 in Robeson County and departed this life on Thursday, January 1, 1998, at her home in Fayetteville. At an early age she accepted Christ and joined Greenville Baptist Church in Lumberton.

On December 21, 1994 she was married to the Reverend James Hector McCallum. She continued her ministry as the wife of a United Methodist minister, serving churches in North Carolina and Virginia. After he retired from active ministry in 1983, they returned to John Wesley UMC in Fayetteville. He died on April 27, 1984.

Mrs. McCallum was educated in the public schools of Robeson County, Fayetteville State University, and received the MA degree from North Carolina A&T State University. She was an educator and taught in the Robeson, Cumberland, and Wake County School systems. She also served as a supervisor in the Harnett County School system.

A servant of God, Mrs. McCallum gave unselfishly of herself, and she felt that ministry and mission should not only be the priority of the church, but the priority of every individual. Her ministry was lived out through her involvement with United Methodist Women, the XYZ Club (Extra Years of Zest, of which she was a founding member and president for many years), BMCR (Black Methodists for Church Renewal), Belle McCallum S. S. Class as well as the Administrative Board/Council on Ministries of John Wesley UMC.

The lives she touched have been made richer by her example of faith, courage, patience, and loving service. Her consecrated life was truly adorned with Christian virtues and grace.

She distinguished herself in the communities where she lived by serving. In Fayetteville she was involved with the Clergy Partners Association, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Links, Inc., and Greenlawn Garden Club.

The most fitting tribute that we can make to her memory would be to serve the Lord with grace and dignity, honor and loyalty, exemplifying the words of St. Paul: "...faith, hope, love...these three, but the greatest of these is love."

A service of death and resurrection was held January 5, 1998, at John Wesley UMC. Participating in the service were Dr. Jesse Brunson, Dr. James Ferree, Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., Dr. Lawrence E. Johnson, Dr. Albert Shuler, and the Reverends J. Thomas Smith, William Cummings, and Jimmy Cummings, and Mrs. Gwen Henderson. Interment was in Rockfish Memorial Park in Fayetteville.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Rachelle M. Young and Adele Young of Dover, DE; two sisters, Mrs. Fannie P. Dinkins of Wadesboro, and Mrs. Gladys P. Smith of Raleigh; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Helen McCallum of Denver, CO, and Mrs. Clara Powell of Morristown, NJ; several nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

BERTHA ELIZABETH RAINES MARTIN1905 - 1998

Elizabeth Raines Martin was born April 14, 1905, in Abbeville, SC. She was the daughter of James C. and Willie Raines.

A graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College in Boone, she taught elementary school in several North Carolina towns before coming to Clayton in 1948. She retired here after devoting many years to her young students.

Married on May 25, 1946, Elizabeth Martin and the late Reverend William Christian Martin were together for 22 years. He served the NC Conference 42 years, retiring in 1949. He died February 22, 1967, at age 85.

Mrs. Martin died January 12, 1998, at age 92, in Coble Health Center of the Methodist Retirement Community, Durham. She had been living in the Retirement Home three and one-half years. Her home she loved so dearly was in Clayton.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martin were held on January 15, 1998, at McLaurin Funeral Home Chapel in Clayton, with the Reverend Richard Stone officiating. Entombment was held in Pinecrest Memorial Gardens Mausoleum. Surviving are her sisters, Josephine Nichols of Abbeville, SC, and Mary Ann Fritts of Henderson, TN; and her half-sister, Cora Weir of Chester, SC.

Mrs. Martin was a thoughtful, caring, and giving person. She appreciated her students and offered guidance to them. Although she was not blessed with children of her own, she reached out to those around her, bringing them into her heart. She lived a life reflective of God. She was sensitive to the needs of others. After retiring from her teaching career, she devoted time to visiting in the hospitals and nursing homes, and she provided transportation for others, taking them to doctor's appointments or to the grocery store. She was a faithful steward of God.

Elizabeth Martin was reluctant to leave her home and friends to begin a new life at the age of 89, but she soon attracted new friends and found ways even to help those around her in the Retirement Community. In her last few months, declining health made it impossible to continue her outreach. She stated on several occasions that she was "ready to go be with her God."

Mrs. Martin was a persistent person, being honest with very strong and direct opinions. She loved her God, her church, and her country, and was very sincere and true to her beliefs. She supported Home Memorial UMC in Clayton, and spoke fondly of her pastor, Richard Stone. She enjoyed her devotionals from the Upper Room and Guidepost, along with her Bible. She marked passages throughout her Bible as she studied. James was her favorite book, especially this: "By his good life let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom," (James 3:13). I believe that is how Mrs. Martin strived to live.

She also loved Psalm 23. Her trust was in God and she knew He was her Shepherd.

ANNIE IRENE BROWN EDENS

1906 - 1998

There was one very special day of the week for my Mother and that was the Lord's Sabbath. How appropriate it was for family and friends to come together on the Lord's Sabbath, February 8, 1998, to celebrate the life of such a special lady.

Annie Irene Brown was born February 3, 1906 in Red Springs to William Angelo Brown and his wife, Margaret Helm Graham. She died on Friday, February 6, 1998. The second oldest of nine daughters, Mother attended Flora McDonald College in Red Springs and transferred to the Presbyterian Assembly Training School of Christian Education in Richmond, VA, where she graduated. During this time she met a young man by the name of Nelson P. Edens, who was a student at Trinity College in Durham (later to become Duke University). After Dad's graduation from the Divinity School at Duke, they were married on December 25, 1927, and they began their married life in Kenansville, which was Dad's first official appointment as a Methodist minister. They went on to serve together in pastorates at Hallsboro, Elizabethtown, Roseboro, Tabor City, Maysville, Garner, Kittrell, Parkton, Laurel Hill, Person Street in Fayetteville, and Institute. For 62 years Mother and Dad were not only soul partners but partners together doing the work of the Lord.

During these years, Mother assumed a very active part in the women's work of the NC Conference of The UMC. From 1941-46 she served as Wilmington District Secretary; as Conference Secretary of Supply Work, 1946-48; and as Conference Secretary of Missionary Education, 1948-54.

Only He can tell the record made! What faith, what dedication, and at times, what lonely roads Mother and Dad walked. None could know but He who walked beside them. Those were happy years, though, for work has its own reward. The two walked together, hand in hand, and each was a wall for the other's heart. They enjoyed life and they lived life.

Mother loved her peaceful and quiet moments, and during those moments she often composed poetry. The composition I share with you now is truly where my mother is and has been for sometime. In her own words:

"My chapel is built here, hid deep in these woods, a building not made with hands.
Nature surrounds me wherever I look, in a silence that understands.
As I cross the bridge to this chapel so fair, and learn to be loving and kind,
I feel I must guard it with infinite care, for others someday this chapel may find.

The steeple stands tall in the rustling trees, that speaks to me softly of God,
I tread silently here in this Holy place as I walk on the grass-covered sod.
The roof that covers this chapel of mine, is the blue of the sky above.
Lingering here as the sun goes down, I'm in the Presence of the Master of Love.

As I stand by the deep waters in this chapel of mine, and hear the birds singing, and the whisper of pine,

Only love in my heart is left to share, my cup runneth over, the Master is here.
As I leave this chapel, light-hearted and free, I can hear once again His call to me,
So someday soon I'll return to this place, where I'll meet my Master face to face."

A service of celebration was held February 8, 1998 at Crumpler-Honeycutt Funeral Home in Clinton with the Reverend Jimmy Miller of Kinston, former district superintendent of the Fayetteville District, and the Reverend Andy Wood, pastor of the Sampson Charge, officiating. Mother was laid to rest next to her beloved husband at Grandview Memorial Park in Clinton. Preceding her in death were her husband, the Reverend Nelson P. Edens, Sr.; a son, Nelson P. Edens, Jr.; and a son-in-law, J. William Pickard. Surviving family members include her daughter, Anne Edens Pickard, Raleigh; two granddaughters, Georganne Edens Pickard, Raleigh, and Jodi Pickard Duncan, Clayton.

Truly a virtuous woman, Mother achieved success because she lived well, she laughed often, and she loved much; she enjoyed the trust, respect, and love of young and old. She accomplished her task. She left the world better than she found it, whether it was by a beautiful flower, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul. She never lacked appreciation of Earth's beauty or failed to express it. She always looked for the best in others and gave them the best she had; her life was an inspiration; her memory a benediction.

ERMA ELIZABETH WILLIAMS GLOVER

1910 - 1998

Dr. Erma Elizabeth Williams Glover, 87, of Chapel Hill, died on February 10, 1998 in Greensboro. A Mass of Christian Burial was held at 2:00 pm on February 13, 1998 at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Chapel Hill. Burial was at a later time in the family cemetery in Duplin County.

"Far from this world of toil and strife, they're present with the Lord;

The labors of their mortal life end in a large reward." (Isaac Watts)

Erma was born October 2, 1910 in Kenansville, the daughter of Hampton Durant and Erma Isoline Williams. She was a graduate of St. Mary's College and Duke University. She received a PhD in English from UNC - Chapel Hill, became a school teacher, then later a professor of English at East Carolina University.

She married Dr. Murrell Kelso Glover on April 23, 1949. Erma's husband was an elder in the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church, and she was helpmate to him for over 26 years in his pastoral ministry, military chaplaincy, as well as his collegiate professorships before they retired in 1975.

Following their retirements, Erma and Murrell settled near Chapel Hill, their home until illness later brought them to Greensboro to be near their son.

Erma is survived by her husband, Murrell; a son, Durant M. Glover, and his wife, Carol, of Greensboro; and a granddaughter, Kathryn Glover.

MARY BLANCHE HARRIS STOKES MEASAMER

1902 - 1998

Mary Harris Stokes Measamer began her life on November 6, 1902, at Pinetops in Edgecombe County. She was the only girl to survive out of seven children of Ed and Patty Harris. She had one sister, who died shortly after birth, and five brothers, three of which died in their 20's and 30's, leaving Mary, Marvin, and Carl.

She was married to Benjamin R. Stokes in 1918. They had six children: Luther, Blanche, John Edward, Pat, Edna, and Jimmy. They lived most of their lives in Pinetops where Daddy owned a grocery store.

Besides being a very busy mother, she worked diligently for the Pinetops Methodist Church. When the doors of the church were open, she was usually there, and most of the time, was one of the last to leave. She was actively involved in all facets of the church: Sunday School, church, choir, UMW, social gatherings, and seeing to it that her children also took part. She held many offices in the UMW and helped wherever she was needed. Through the years, she became an expert at making those many, many pots of Brunswick stew to raise funds for the church.

In 1969 Daddy died, and for many years Mother lived alone, since the children were all married and lived in other places. She continued her work in the church.

Later on, Elwin H. Measamer and his wife came to the Pinetops Methodist Church to serve as pastor. He retired while there, bought a house in Pinetops and settled there, just a block from our home. Mother was a friend of the Measamers and tried to help them out as much as possible when Mrs. Measamer became ill. After his wife died, Elwin moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, but he returned many times to visit.

Elwin and Mother were married on September 28, 1980. They lived in Pinetops for several years, and then they moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. In time, Mother came to love it there. Elwin died in 1993, and Mother died February 11, 1998, at the ripe old age of 95. Funeral services were held at her beloved Pinetops UMC, with the pastor, Graham Royall, conducting the service. Although he never really knew my Mother, he did a wonderful job with the service.

Mother was preceded in death by her eldest son, Luther. Survivors include Luther's widow, Maudie Webb Stokes, Wilmington; Blanche H. (Arnold) Tyndall, Columbus, GA; John Edward and Virginia (Loflin) Stokes, Newport News, VA; Pat S. (Graham) Brown, New Bern; Edna S. (John) Joyner, Annandale, VA; Jimmy and Joyce (Purvis) Stokes, Sumter, SC. She also had a stepdaughter, Anne, who was Elwin's daughter. She and her husband, Ken Thompson, live in Chesapeake, VA. There are 13 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

By the world's standard, Mother would not have achieved any great fame, and her name may not be remembered by the world, but she loved the Lord and served Him by serving her family, the church, and the community of Pinetops. Those who knew her, loved her, and to them she was a great person and will long be remembered. Our Lord, and all those who knew her, would certainly say, "Well done, thy good and faithful servant."

MYRA ERCELL VADEN MORRIS

Myra Vaden was born May 9, 1914, in Danville, VA, the fourth of six children. She had a sweet disposition and was given the pet name, "Loving," by her family. She was valedictorian of her high school class and attended Averett College in Danville for two years. She had hoped to continue her education and go to medical school, but the Great Depression intervened. Although her father was a skilled brick mason whose services were normally in great demand, no one was building, and no money was available, so Myra went to work to support herself and her family. However, her great love for books and learning continued for the rest of her life. She was an avid reader and always seemed to be in the process of reading several books at any given time.

In 1937 a friend invited her to attend a revival meeting at a neighboring Methodist church. Clarence Poe Morris, a young divinity student from Duke University (later to become an elder in the NC Conference), preached that night. They struck up a conversation after the service. The conversation apparently went well, for they were married six months later on September 20, 1937.

C. P. graduated from divinity school, and they soon moved to Efland, near Graham. In 1939 their first son, Jerome, was born, followed by Joel in 1941. In 1943 they moved to Rockingham, where C. P. had a charge consisting of seven churches. His work occupied virtually all of his time, and Myra was left with the responsibility of the house and children. Their only daughter, Myra, was born in 1944. With the war in progress, meat was scarce for some people. C. P. and Myra kept chickens, and they soon discovered that some were missing. A chicken thief was obviously at work. For several nights the county sheriff hid under the back steps of their house in an attempt to catch the thief, but the thief failed to show. C. P. observed a distinctive footprint in the chicken yard and eventually identified the thief as his neighbor who had fallen on hard times. Myra and C. P. decided that this neighbor needed the chickens more than they did, and they took no further action. It was sometime later this neighbor asked C. P. to come to his house to pray for a dying child. Of course, C. P. did so, and the missing chickens were never mentioned.

In 1946, Myra, C. P. and the family moved to Troy. Myra would later remember those years as among the happiest in her life. She loved the town and the people, but things were not always easy for her. Although she was well liked and had many friends, she did not find the visible position of a minister's wife a comfortable one. She was naturally shy and found the constant scrutiny wearing, but every now and then she asserted her independence. She enjoyed simple pleasures like bike riding with her children. Then one Christmas her children received roller skates. That looked like such fun that she bought a pair for herself, and went skating with the children through the neighborhood. Some parishioners criticized her for engaging in such unseemly activities, but she shrugged, said that her children came first and that the parishioners would have to adjust. They did.

C. P. became Executive Secretary of the NC Conference Board of Education in 1950, and the family moved to Durham. Myra found that move extremely difficult. Although she made many close friends in Durham, she still missed Troy. Her last child, David, was born in 1952. She kept herself busy and adjusted. She cared for four children, worked as a secretary and bookkeeper for the Board of Education, and for a period of time, also cared for C. P.'s invalid mother. In the latter part of the decade, the family began spending summers at Camp Don Lee, where for almost 20 years Myra kept the books, ran the camp store, and generally served as friend, foster mother and confidante to campers, counselors, and staff. Affectionately referred to as "Ma Morris," she made countless friends.

In 1962 the family moved to Raleigh, where the Board of Education offices had been moved. Later, in the mid-70s, C. P. left that office and returned to the parish ministry. He and Myra lived full-time at Camp Don Lee for a couple of years, where he served several local churches until his retirement in 1976. In the early 1980s it became clear that C. P. was afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease. He was soon unable to take care of himself and became bedridden. Myra and he moved to Burlington so they could be near their daughter. Myra cared for C. P. for more than 10 years and would not leave his side. Despite the heartache, the physical and mental strain, she never lost her quiet courage, her compassion for others, or her sense of humor. When someone observed that God does not give people more than they can handle, she replied that this was doubtless true, but she sometimes wished He did not have such a high opinion of her!

After C. P.'s death in 1992 she continued to live quietly in Burlington and despite increasing health problems continued her zest for life, her interest in people, and her love for books. She was a member of Front Street UMC.

Myra died in Burlington on February 20, 1998. Dr. G. Robert McKenzie and Dr. William C. Simpson officiated at a graveside service. She was interred at Alamance County Memorial Park. She is survived by her daughter, Myra Buff, of Burlington; her sons, Jerome Morris of Burlington, Joel Morris of West Bloomfield, MI, and David Morris of Lexington, SC; a brother, Claude Vaden, and a sister, Mrs. Carmen Funk, both of Danville, VA; and nine grandchildren.

Myra is remembered as a warm and tender person who devoted her life to caring for her children, her husband and her friends. She brightened the day of everyone who came in contact with her. She was truly "Loving."

MAXINE GENEVA BAILEY SHINKLE

1909 - 1998

Maxine Geneva Bailey was born on December 9, 1909 in Monterrey, Mexico. She was the only child of Weldon Jefferson Bailey and Olga Ursula Konoske Bailey. She graduated from Arizona State Teachers College at the age of 17. Living as a young adult during the Depression, she had a great concern for those in need, helping as best she could.

Maxine married Richard Dallam Shinkle on August 11, 1942, in Texas. They had no children. He was an Air Drome Officer for the Civil Air Patrol in Corpus Christi, TX, and she became his secretary. Often working together, they led a varied and interesting life on their way to the ministry.

Richard became a lay pastor in 1959, and then went into the ministry full time, serving churches at Ocracoke, Williston-Smyrna, Beech Grove-Rhems, and Straits-North River. He retired in 1973 and died on September 10, 1974.

Maxine worked as a sales person for the May Company in California; as a Red Cross Volunteer ambulance driver in Corpus Christi, TX; as secretary to the Chamber of Commerce manager in Florida; and as secretary to the Governor of Florida's press secretary. She later worked as associate editor of the Havelock Progress newspaper and then at Cherry Point in the Supply Department.

A person of many interests, she enjoyed walking on the beach and fishing. She was known for growing beautiful flowers (orchids and blooming cacti); and she also loved knitting and reading. She was a member of Riverside UMC in New Bern.

Maxine left these words: "I've tried to do my best, and thank God, He's always been there to pull me up when I needed it - which has been often." Maxine was a beloved wife - a dear friend - and part of my family.

Maxine died on March 11, 1998. Graveside services were held on March 13 at Cedar Grove Cemetery Extension in New Bern, where she was placed next to her beloved husband. The Reverends Michael Register and Walter Gaskins officiated at the service.

In her own words, "I'm just a child of God who has gone home."

RUTH NIXON MANESS

1911 - 1998

On April 6, 1998, Ruth Nixon Maness, age 87, widow of the late Reverend Madison Ward "Doc" Maness, passed into her heavenly home.

Together, Doc and Ruth served Manteo, Tarboro: St. James, Mount Gilead, Durham: Lakewood, Burlington: Webb Avenue, Fairmont: Trinity, Fayetteville: Camp Ground, and Fayetteville: Arran Lake-Trinity; They also served Hay Street UMC, where Doc was minister of visitation for six years after his retirement in 1970.

Ruth was born January 5, 1911, reared in the Dare County community of Stumpy Point, and to her, that was always "home." She was educated in the Dare County Schools and graduated in 1934 from East Carolina Teacher's College in Greenville. She taught in Dare and Cumberland counties for 20 years.

After teaching for several years on the Outer Banks, Ruth was married on September 29, 1939 to Doc, who at that time was serving a charge on the Outer Banks.

While in Manteo, their first daughter, Betty Ruth, was born in 1942. Daughter Virginia Ann followed six and one-half years later while in Tarboro. Betty Ruth died in 1964 in an automobile accident while a senior at Methodist College in Fayetteville. Virginia Ann Maness Anglin resides in Fayetteville with her husband, Dr. Richard E. Anglin.

Ruth died the death of the blest at Hope Mills Retirement Home. Her funeral was held from Hay Street UMC with the Reverend Carl Frazier officiating. Interment was in Lafayette Memorial Cemetery in Fayetteville, beside her husband.

Ruth was always a fun-loving person, while loving very deeply her family and her God. Even as the tempests of age and memory were upon her, she still felt the responsibility and longing to be in "her pew" for Sunday services, and was always "ready to go" at a moment's notice.

Ruth and her legacy will be sorely missed by her daughter, Ann, and by the many people whose lives she touched and greatly influenced.

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1997, and the related statements of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The Conference does not compute the cost of postretirement benefits other than pensions nor disclose certain information regarding such costs as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 106 ("SFAS 106") issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Rather, the Conference's policy is to expense such costs as incurred. The effects on the financial statements of these matters are not reasonably determinable.

In our opinion, except for the effects of not recording the postretirement benefits other than pensions in accordance with SFAS 106 as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1997, and the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

The Conference is the fundamental body of the United Methodist Church which under Episcopal leadership provides the mechanism for admitting and ordaining clergy, appointing itinerant pastors to churches, and supplying them with mutual support. The Conference is composed of ministerial and lay members and other individuals as required in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church which in an annual meeting defines the programs and responsibilities of the Church as a whole. Included within this report are all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Investments: Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are stated at fair value. Changes in fair value of investments, and both realized and unrealized gains and losses, are included in the accompanying statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets. In determining realized gains and losses, the cost of investments is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property and equipment: Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, estimated historical costs were used.

Church properties assumed by the Conference as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Other accounting policies: The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $300,000 to be maintained. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds are invested in this program each business day. The amount invested in this program at December 31, 1997 was $2,598,000. The Conference places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Note 3. Investments

Investments are comprised of the following:

Certificates of deposit	$ 1,588,493
GBOP Superannuate Endowment Fund	147,938
Investment in United Methodist Foundation, Inc.	34,765,450
Other	1,479
	$ 36,503,360

The Conference's investment in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents approximately 57 percent of the unitholder equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $61,200,000 at December 31, 1997 and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Note 4. Property and Equipment

A summary of property and equipment is as follows:

Land and land improvements	$ 1,080,370
Buildings and building improvements	4,524,135
Furniture and equipment	1,212,110
Construction in progress, camps	81,387
	6,898,002
Less accumulated depreciation	2,420,998
	$ 4,477,004

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981, the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide benefits for Clergy as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under Episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1997 is based on 12% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan. Funding is based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation.

Beginning January 1, 1990, the employers of plan participants collect the required contributions for the defined contribution plans described above from the plan participants and remit all collections directly to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1982. On January 1, 1997, the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $367 was $28,326,168. Current expense for prior service liability was $2,308,656. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.: The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Included in accounts receivable is $141,551 due from the Foundation.

Board of Missions, Inc.: The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repair of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to Churches established in eastern North Carolina. The net amount due from the Board is $190,995.

Note 8. Contingent Liabilities

The Conference has been named as a defendant in several legal actions which are being vigorously defended. In management's opinion, the ultimate resolution of these actions will not have a materially adverse effect on the Conference's financial position.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established in 1955 by the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to provide a management-investment pool for long-term and permanent funds of the North Carolina Conference and of local churches, institutions, and ministries of the Church and to encourage and receive planned gifts in support of local churches, institutions, and special ministries of The United Methodist Church and to assist donors in placing their gifts.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities: Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Short-term investments are stated at market value. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

General: The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 1997 and 1996 were as follows:

	1997	1996
Cost of purchases:
Short-term investments	$ 21,994,797	$ 75,978,095
Other securities	14,147,543	32,866,204
	$ 36,142,340	$ 108,844,299
Proceeds from sale:
Short-term investments	$ 18,483,992	$ 73,043,275
Other securities	11,381,868	35,729,960

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also established during 1990 a separate Cash Surrender Value fund for 16 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991 and five additional policies were recorded during 1992.

In 1994, the Foundation established a separate Real Estate fund for a donation of an apartment dwelling in an irrevocable charitable remainder unitrust. Net income from the fund is to be paid to the unitrust recipient until death of the recipient occurs.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and restricted net assets.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $2.55 at December 31, 1997 and $2.22 at December 31, 1996.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 6. Credit Risk

The Foundation places its cash with a high quality financial institution. At times, such cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

Note 7. Donated Services

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. receives accounting services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. The value of such services is not reflected in these financial statements since it is not susceptible to objective measurement.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are collateralized by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the statement of financial position date and the statement of activities for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net assets: Net assets, revenue and expenses, and gains and losses are classified as permanently restricted, temporarily restricted or unrestricted based upon the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. All of the net assets of the Board are classified as unrestricted due to the absence of any donor restrictions.

Cash: The Board places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC limit.

Investments: Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are measured at fair value. Changes in the fair value of investments, including both realized and unrealized gains and losses, are included in the accompanying statements of activities. In determining realized gains and losses, the cost of investments is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property: Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. Depreciation of its building is computed using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of forty years.

Note 2. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and market values as of December 31, 1997 and 1996 were as follows:

	1997	1996
Cost	$ 10,427	$ 10,051
Market value	14,741	12,490

The Board of Missions investment in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents less than 1 percent of the equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were $61,229,358 at December 31, 1997 and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Note 3. Property

A summary of property is as follows

	1997	1996
Undeveloped land	$ 849,679	$ 849,679
Land	340,845	340,845
Building	85,210	85,210
	1,275,734	1,275,734
Less accumulated depreciation	13,848	11,716
	$ 1,261,886	$ 1,264,018

The undeveloped land is land held by the Board for future church sites. Included in the undeveloped land is a 13.5 acre tract in the Wake Forest Township of Wake County. The Board of Missions acquired this tract of land by an action of the Charge Conference of the former Morningstar Church to transfer the deed of trust to the Board of Missions along with the corresponding loan against the property. The Board paid off the loan on this property in 1996. The deed was transferred to the Board in 1997.

Note 4. Related Party Transactions

The Board of Missions benefits from all management and administrative services performed by the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. No portion of the costs incurred by the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church to provide these services is reflected in the financial statements of the Board.

Note 5. Line of Credit

During 1997, the Board of Missions entered into a one-year financing agreement with the bank to borrow up to $500,000, subject to review and renewal annually. This agreement is collateralized by deeds of trust on certain real property located in eastern North Carolina and by various mortgage loans receivable.

These funds are to be utilized by the Board of Missions for the specific purposes of granting loans to churches for building programs and acquiring undeveloped land for future church sites. The bank must approve the use of the loan proceeds which the Board distributes.

At December 31, 1997 there was no outstanding balance on this line of credit. Interest on any outstanding balance would be paid at the prime rate plus .5%.

Note 6. Commitments

As of December 31, 1997, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $50,000 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.
